EMERGENCY NUMBERS

January 12, 1999

To Bridlewood Farm Residents And All Other Interested Parties

As a neighbor to your new subdivision, the Village of Hoffman Estates would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the area and inform you about the relationship between the Village and your subdivision. Your subdivision is not located within the Village corporate boundaries, and because of this, several issues require additional explanations.

Water and sanitary sewer main lines are the only services provided by the Village of Hoffman Estates to this subdivision, which means that you will receive monthly water and sanitary sewer bills from the Village of Hoffman Estates. Each resident is responsible for the individual service line to their home. Any questions regarding water and sanitary sewer services may be referred to the Village's Public Works Department at 847/490-6800, and any questions regarding water and sanitary sewer billing may be referred to the Village's Finance Department at 847/882-9100.

Storm sewers, which accommodate surface water runoff such as rain and melting snow, and the stormwater detention areas (where the storm sewers drain) are installed for this subdivision. Maintenance of these items is not the responsibility of the Village of Hoffman Estates.

The ability to dial 9-1-1 for a police, fire, or medical emergency is available in your area. Fire protection and ambulance services are provided by the Bartlett and Countryside Fire Protection District (Bartlett Fire Department). The non-emergency number for the Bartlett District Fire Department is 630/837-3701, and the emergency number for the Bartlett District Fire Department is now 9-1-1.

Police protection is provided by the Cook County Sheriff. The non-emergency number for the Cook County Sheriff is 847/635-1188, and the emergency number for the Cook County Sheriff is 9-1-1.

Street maintenance, including snow plowing and repaving, is not the responsibility of the Village of Hoffman Estates. Those services are provided by the developer until the streets are accepted by Hanover Township.
