RESTRICTIVE COVENANT

The real estate conveyed hereby may not be used as "residential property" within the meaning of the Site Remediation Program under Title XVII of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act 415 ILCS 5/58 et seq. For purposes of this restriction, "residential property" means any real property that is used for habitation by individuals, or where children have the opportunity for exposure to contaminants through soil ingestion or inhalation at educational facilities, health care facilities, child care facilities, or outdoor recreational areas. This definition is derived from the definition of "residential property" utilized in Section 740.120 of the rules promulgated by the Illinois Pollution Control Board under the Illinois Site Remediation Program Title XVII, 415 ILCS 5/58 et seq. This restrictive covenant shall attach to the property conveyed hereby and shall run with the land, and shall be binding on the grantee hereunder and its successors and assigns, for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from and after the date of this deed. This restrictive covenant is for the benefit of the grantor hereunder (grantor, as used in this covenant, to include the beneficial owner of grantor if grantor is a land trust) and the successors and assigns of grantor. This restrictive covenant is also for the benefit of grantor and the successors in title of grantor in respect of the real estate legally described on Schedule 1 attached hereto and is appurtenant to said real estate legally described on Schedule 1 attached hereto. Upon any breach of this restrictive covenant, in any material respect, any one or more of the parties referred to in the prior two sentences shall have as their sole and exclusive remedy, the right to seek injunctive relief with respect to such breach. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision hereof shall not impair the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof.
