PAYMENTS

Any Borrower signing the Agreement will pay the Credit Union according to its terms.

FIRE AND OTHER INSURANCE

Until the Agreement is paid in full, the Borrower will keep all the buildings on the Property insured from fire and other hazards normally covered by an insurance policy. This type of policy is usually called "Extended Coverage". The Borrower may choose the insurance company but the Credit Union must approve the policy and the amount of the insurance. The insurance policies must contain the usual mortgagee clause protecting the interest of the Credit Union. The Credit Union may request proof of coverage from the Borrower at any time. Borrower must then provide proof of coverage to the Credit Union within ten (10) business days of the date it is requested at anytime during the life of the loan.

FLOOD INSURANCE

The Credit Union will advise the Borrower if flood insurance is required. If it is required, the Borrower will pay for and obtain the flood insurance. The policy must name the Credit Union as a Mortgagee. The amount of coverage required is either the maximum flood insurance coverage available or coverage in the amount of the unpaid balance due, whichever amount is lower. The Credit Union may request proof of coverage to the Credit Union within ten (10) business days of the date it is requested.

TAXES

The Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments, water and sewer charges on the Property. If the Credit Union requests receipts for these payments, the Borrower will provide them to the Credit Union within ten (10) business days of the date they are due.

ADVANCES TO PAY INSURANCE, TAXES, OR THE FIRST MORTGAGE

If the Borrower does not keep the buildings on the property insured, the Credit Union may, but is not required to, obtain insurance. If the Borrower fails to pay taxes when due, the Credit Union may, but is not required to, pay such taxes. If the Borrower fails to make any payments on any prior mortgage when they are due, the Credit Union may, but shall not be required to, make the payments. The amount of these payments, if any, shall be treated as an advance under the Agreement and added to the amount due under the Agreement. The Borrower must repay these amounts within ten (10) business days of the date the Credit Union requires payment. Failure to maintain insurance, to pay taxes, to make payments as due on a prior mortgage, or to repay such an advance shall constitute default on this Mortgage.

CARE OF THE PROPERTY

The Borrower will keep the property in reasonably good condition. The Borrower will not substantially change or damage the Property without the written permission of the Credit Union.

SALE OR TRANSFER OF THE PROPERTY

Any balance outstanding under the Agreement must be paid in full when the Property is sold or transferred.

 - 3) You fail to pay all property taxes or other assessments when due;
 - 4) You take additional advances from the first mortgage lienholder without Credit Union consent;
 - 5) You sell or pledge the property to anyone else or permit a subordinated lien on the property to be placed;
 - 6) You fail to maintain hazard and flood insurance;
 - 7) You fail to maintain the property, and/or the value of the appraised value for purposes of the line;
 - 8) A tax lien, mechanics lien, judgement lien, or lis pendens is filed against the Property;

RENTAL PAYMENTS

Upon default, the Credit Union has the right to collect rental payments from the Property. The Borrower may collect and keep the rental payments, unless the Credit Union requires immediate payment of all amounts due. If the Credit Union does not require that, the Borrower will pay the Credit Union in advance the fair rental value for the use and occupancy of the part of the Property that is in the Borrower's possession.
