

ILLINOIS STATUTORY SHORT FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR PROPERTY

(NOTICE: The purpose of this Power of Attorney is to give the person you designate your "agent" broad powers to handle your property, which may include powers to pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice to you or approval by you. This form does not impose a duty on your agent to exercise granted powers; but when a power is exercised; your agent will have to use due care to act for your benefit and in accordance with this form. A court can take away the powers of your agent if it finds the agent is not acting properly. You may name successor agents under this form but no co-agents. Unless you expressly limit the duration of this power in the manner provided below, until you revoke this power or a court acting on your behalf terminates it, your agent may exercise the powers given here throughout your lifetime, even after you become disabled. The powers you give your agent are explained more fully in section 3-4 of the Illinois "Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law" of which this form is a part (see the back of this form). That law expressly permits the use of any different form of Power of Attorney you may desire. If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.)

- 2. The powers granted above shall not include the following powers or shall be modified or limited in the following particulars (here you may include any specific limitations you deem appropriate, such as a prohibition or conditions on the sale of a particular stock or real estate or special rules on borrowing by the agent):

LIMITED TO THE REFINANCE OF JANUARY 3, 2003

- 3. In addition to the powers granted above, I grant my agent the following powers (here you may add other delegable powers, including, without limitations, power to make gifts, exercise powers of appointment, name or change beneficiaries or joint tenants or revoke or amend any trust specifically referred to below):

(Your agent will have authority to employ other persons as necessary to enable the agent to properly exercise the powers granted in this form. But your agent will have to make all discretionary decisions. If you want to give your agent the right to delegate discretionary decision-making powers to others, you should keep the next sentence, otherwise it should be struck out.)

- 4. My agent shall have the right by written instrument to delegate any and all of the foregoing powers involving discretionary decision-making to any person or persons whom my agent may select, but such delegations may be amended or revoked by any agent (including any successor) named by me who is acting under this power of attorney at the time of reference.

(Your agent will be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred in acting under this Power of Attorney. Strike out the next sentence if you do not want your agent to also be entitled to reasonable compensation for services as agent.)

- 5. My agent shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered as agent under this power of attorney.

(This power of attorney may be amended or revoked by you at any time and in any manner. Absent a amendment or revocation, the authority granted in this power of attorney will become effective at the time this power is signed and will continue until your death unless a limitation on the beginning date or duration is made by initialing and completing either (or both) of the following:)

- 6. (X) This power of attorney shall become effective on December 15, 2002
(insert a future date of event during your lifetime, such as court determination of your disability, when you want this power to first take effect.)
- 7. (X) This power of attorney shall terminate on JANUARY 31, 2003
(insert a future date or event, such as court determination of your disability, when you want this power to terminate prior to your death.)

(If you wish to name successor agent, insert the name(s) and address(es) of such successor(s) in the following paragraph.)

8. If any agent named by me shall die, become legally disabled, resign or refuse to act, I name the following (each to act alone, and successively, in the order named) as successor(s) to such agent:

If you wish to name a guardian of your person or a guardian of your estate, or both, in the event a court decides that one should be appointed, you may, but are not required to do so by inserting the name(s) of such guardians in the following paragraphs. The court will appoint the person nominated by you if the court finds that such appointment will serve your best interests and welfare. You may, but are not required to, nominate as your guardian(s) the same person named in this form as your agent.)

9. If a guardian of my person is to be appointed, I nominate the following to serve as such guardian:

(insert name and address of nominated guardian of the person)

10. If a guardian of my estate (my property) is to be appointed, I nominate the following to serve as such guardian:

(insert name and address of nominated guardian of the estate)

11. I am fully informed as to all the contents of this form and understand the full import of this grant of powers to my Agent.

Signed Susan J. Hughes
