JOHN STERNBERGS SUB S 2/5 OF 34
E 1/2

on December 27, 2002, and states:

That on December 27, 2002, the lien claimant made a verbal and subsequently made written contracts with the Owner to furnish and install electrical improvements within the building being remodeled. This contractor claims this lien because it supplied goods and services for which it was never fully paid. The goods supplied include but are not limited to the following:

- Wiring between twelve residential electrical panels and their electrical loads (i.e. lighting and receptacles in residential occupancies areas, gas heat and AC units, exhaust fans, and other miscellaneous related loads);
- Wiring outside of residential units supplied and completed by others.

The services supplied included materials and installation.

The balance due to claimant, after subtracting credits and payments is $34,883.75.
