My name is Steven Brown and I am a licensed attorney in the State of Illinois. Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, through its closer, has referred you to me, as an attorney, to prepare a quitclaim deed (QCD) on your behalf to comply with one of your lender's closing requirements. Before you retain me to prepare the QCD, however, I would like to explain certain facts to you so you may make an informed decision as to whether you would like me to prepare these documents for you.

First, the scope of my representation only includes the preparation of the QCD. My fee for this service is $80.00 for each deed. This fee will be paid at the time of closing. If you need legal advice or additional legal services, I urge you to seek the advice of local counsel.

Second, you are not required to use my services as a condition of refinancing. You may use any attorney of your choice to prepare this document.

Finally, I am employed as the Illinois Retail Manager for the title insurance underwriter. As an employee of the title insurance underwriter, I may be asked to determine the insurability of certain matters which may adversely affect title to your property. In most cases, I will review the title commitment prior to drafting the documents to confirm that a conflict does not exist. However, should a conflict arise after I have prepared the QCD, you may request that another attorney prepare these documents for you and I will not charge you for my services.

If, after reading the disclosures contained in this letter, you would like me to prepare your QCD, please sign on the line(s) below and return this letter to my attention. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me.

I look forward to providing you with quality service in the preparation of your QCD.

Sincerely,

Steven W. Brown
