EXHIBIT A

AFFORDABILITY COVENANTS

A. Contract to Mission

The mission of Seller/Grantor is to provide affordable housing to low-income families and individuals. Purchaser/Grantee recognizes that Purchaser/Grantee has benefited from this mission and from the work of Seller/Grantor and therefore agrees to cooperate with the Affordability Covenants set forth herein.

B. Non-Specific

The subject property must be occupied by a household and must not to be used for short-term or speculative investment or rental purposes.

C. Shared Appreciation

If the subject property is sold within ten years of the date of this Deed, and the sales price for the subject property exceeds the current loan balance on the Seller Note, Purchaser/Grantee shall be obligated to pay to Seller/Grantor, from closing proceeds, a share of that excess in order to enable Seller/Grantor to continue providing affordable housing to low-income families and individuals. The percentage share that Purchaser/Grantee is obligated to pay to Seller/Grantor is set forth in the "Shared Appreciation Schedule" attached hereto. As shown on the Schedule, the percentage share that Purchaser/Grantee must pay to Seller/Grantor decreases over time and is zero after the expiration of the ten year period. In conjunction with this obligation, Purchaser/Grantee shall notify Seller/Grantor in writing at least five (5) business days prior to the sale. This written notice shall state the amount of the sales price and the date, time and location of closing.

D. Right of First Refusal

For a period of ten (10) years from the date of this Deed, Seller/Grantor shall have a right of first refusal to purchase the subject property from Purchaser/Grantee as described in this paragraph. If (and only if) Purchaser/Grantee decides to sell the subject property to someone other than a household member, Purchaser/Grantee must notify Seller/Grantor in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the intended sale. The written notice should briefly describe the purchase price, the name of the intended purchaser, and any other information that Purchaser/Grantee chooses to include that might be relevant to Seller/Grantor in determining whether an exercise of the right of first refusal would advance or hinder its mission to provide affordable housing. If Seller/Grantor reasonably determines that Seller/Grantor requires additional information or supporting documentation from Purchaser/Grantee for the express purpose of making this decision, Purchaser/Grantee shall reasonably cooperate in providing such information. Thereafter, Seller/Grantor shall have the first right, but not the obligation, to purchase the subject property from the Purchaser/Grantee, at the purchase price and in accordance with the other terms and conditions of sale set forth in the Purchaser/Grantee's notice and other documents related thereto. The right of first refusal set forth herein shall expire ten (10) years from the date of this Deed.

E. Continuing Deed Restrictions

Purchaser/Grantee agrees that any sale or transfer of the subject property will be made pursuant to a deed containing all of these Affordability Restrictions.

F. Option/Buy-Back Provisions

Seller/Grantor and Purchaser/Grantee hereby covenant and agree that during the one (1) year period after the date of this Deed (the "Option/Buy-Back Period"), Seller/Grantor shall have the option to purchase the subject property if: (1) the Condominium Association requests in writing that the Seller/Grantor exercise its option; and (2) a "Qualifying Event" occurs.

A Qualifying Event is either or both of the following:

1. Purchaser/Grantee is convicted of a crime involving substance abuse, gang activity, unlawful use or possession of firearms, sexual assault, prostitution, vandalism or domestic violence;
2. Four or more times, Purchaser/Grantee does any of the following: (i) disrupts the operations and tranquility of the Condominium and its residents; (ii) fails to use prescribed grievance procedures; or (iii) violates the Condominium Documents or the rules and regulations or the Act, the Code or another applicable law, statute, ordinance, or governmental regulation. Any such disruption, failure or violations, however, must be established by the findings, determinations, rulings or judgment of the Condominium Association's enforcement proceedings, by a court of law, or by a government regulatory agency or body.

If Seller exercises its option to purchase the subject property, Seller must give written notice to Purchaser served by U.S. Certified or Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested. Service shall be deemed effective immediately upon the second business day after mailing.

Upon timely service of the notice, the parties shall proceed to close the retransfer of the subject property within sixty (60) days and, upon the request of either party, said closing shall be done in escrow with the costs thereof being shared equally between the parties. All closing costs (including but not limited to title and recording fees and transfer taxes) shall be divided equally between the parties.

If Seller/Grantor has exercised its option to purchase, Seller/Grantor shall pay Purchaser/Grantee the amount of the Net Purchase Price paid by the Purchaser/Grantee, less: (a) the Purchaser/Grantee's share of closing costs for the retransfer; (b) any prior indebtedness due from Purchaser/Grantee to Seller/Grantor; (c) the costs of eliminating or ensuring over any encumbrances on the subject property owing to other parties; (d) the cost of covering or removing title exceptions created or allowed by the Purchaser/Grantee; and (e) the costs of repairing any damage to the subject property above and beyond ordinary wear and tear. In addition, Seller/Grantor shall pay Purchaser/Grantee a premium of their percent (3%) of the Net Purchase Price, less the foregoing deductions.

UNOFFICIAL COPY

The option described herein cannot be assigned or transferred, except to an affiliate or successor entity of Seller/Grantor. In any event, the option described herein shall automatically expire on the first anniversary of the date of this Deed and thereafter shall be null and void and of no legal effect.
