!!! IMPORTANT -- PLEASE READ !!!

This is your Certificate of Release of Tax Lien(s).

You MUST take this certificate to the Recorder of Deeds (or Registrar of Titles) for the county in which the lien is recorded so that the lien can be removed from your records. (The name of the county is at the bottom of the certificate.)

The Recorder/Registrar will charge you a fee for recording your certificate. Recorder's/Registrar's charges vary to record the Release of Lien(s). These charges are prescribed by law and payable by you. When mailing the Certificate of Release(s) to the Recorder/Registrar, it is advisable to call their office to determine the amount required to record your release.

If you do not have this Certificate of Release of Tax Lien recorded in the county's official records, their records will continue to show that there is a tax lien filed against you which will affect your credit rating and cause a cloud to remain over the title to your property. Therefore, please remember to RECORD THIS CERTIFICATE.
