The Escrow Funds are pledged as additional security for all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower tenders to Lender the full payment of all such sums, Borrower's account shall be credited with the balance remaining for all installment items (a), (b), and (c) and any mortgage insurance premium installment that Lender has not become obligated to pay to the Secretary, and Lender shall promptly refund any excess funds to Borrower. Immediately prior to a foreclosure sale of the Property of its equisition by Lender, Borrower's account shall be credited with any balance remaining for all installments for items (a), (b), and (c).

All insurance shall be carried with companies approved by Lender. The insurance policies and any renewals shall be held by Lender and shall include loss payable clauses in favor of, and in a form acceptable to, Lender.

Each insurance company concerned is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for such loss directly to Lender, instead of to Borrower and to Lender jointly. All or any part of the insurance proceeds may be applied by Lender, at its option, either (a) to the reduction of the indebtedness under the Note and this Security Instrument, first to any delinquent amounts applied in the order in paragraph 3, and then to prepayment of principal, or (b) to the restoration or repair of the damaged Property. Any application of the proceeds to the principal shall not extend or postpone the due date of the monthly payments which are referred to in paragraph 2, or change the amount of such payments. Any excess insurance proceeds over an amount required to pay all outstanding indebte costs under the Note and this Security Instrument shall be paid to the entity legally entitled thereto.

Borrower shall not commit waste or destroy, damage or substantially change the Property or allow the Property to deteriorate, reasonable wear and tear excepted. - 6. Condemnation. The priceeds of any award or claim for damages, direct or consequential, in connection with any condemnation or other taking of any part of the Property, or for conveyance in place of condemnation, are hereby assigned and shall be paid to Lender to the extent of the full amount of the indebtedness that remains unpaid under the Note and this Security Instrument. Lender the Note and this Security Instrument, first to any delinquent amounts applied in the order provided in paragraph 3, and then to prepayment of principal. Any amounts disbursed by Lender under this paragraph shall become an additional debt of Borrower and be secured by this Security Instrument. These amounts shall bear interest from the date of disbursement, at the Note rate, and at the option of Lender, shall be immediately due and payable.

Borrower shall promptly discharge any lien which has priority over this Security Lieurument unless Borrower: (a) agrees in writing to the payment of the obligation secured by the lien in a manner acceptable to Lender; (b) contests in good faith the lien by, or defends against enforcement of the lien in, legal proceedings which in the Lender's opinion operate to prevent the enforcement of the lien; or (c) secures from the holder of the lien an agreement satisfactory to Lender subordinating the lien to this Security Instrument. If Lender determines that any part of the Property is subject to a lien which may attain priority over this Security Instrument, Lender may give Borrower a notice identifying the lien. Borrower shall satisfy the lien or take one or more of the actions set forth above within 10 days of the garing of notice.

- 8. Fees. Lender may collect fees and charges authorized by the Secretary.
- 9. Grounds for Acceleration of Debt.

    - (ii) Borrower defaults by failing, for a period of thirty days, to perform any other obligations contained in this Security Instrument.
  - (b) Sale Without Credit Approval. Lender shall, if permitted by applicable law (including Section 341(d) of the Garn-St. Germain Depository Institutions Act of 1982, 12 U.S.C. 1701j-3(d)) and with the prior approval of the Secretary, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument if:

- (ii) The Projecty is not occupied by the purchaser or grantee as his or her principal residence, or the purchaser or cantee does so occupy the Property but his or her credit has not been approved in accordance with the requirements of the Secretary.
- (c) No Waiver. If circumstances occur that would permit Lender to require immediate payment in full, but Lender does not require such payments, Lender does not waive its rights with respect to subsequent events.
- (d) Regulations of HUD Secretary. This Security Instrument does not authorize acceleration or foreclosure if not permitted by regulations of the Secretary.
- (e) Mortgage Not Insured. Borromer agrees that if this Security Instrument and the Note are not determined to be eligible for insurance under the National Housing Act within 60 days from the date hereof, Lender may, at its option, require immediate paymen in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. A written statement of any authorized agent of the Saretary dated subsequent to 60 days from the date hereof, declining to insure this Security Instrument and the Nate, shall be deemed conclusive proof of such ineligibility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this option may not be exercised by Lender when the unavailability of insurance is solely due to Lender's failure to remit a mortgage insurance premium to the Secretary.
- 10. Reinstatement. Borrower has a right to be reinstated. Lender has required immediate payment in full because of Borrower's failure to pay an amount due under the Note of this Security Instrument. Upon reinstatement by Forrower, this Security Instrument and the obligations that it secures shall remain in effect as if Lender had not required immediate payment in full. However, Lender is not required to permit reinstatement if: (i) Lender has accepted reas atement after the commencement of foreclosure proceedings within two years immediately preceding the commencement of a current foreclosure proceeding, (ii) reinstatement will preclude foreclosure on different grounds in the future, or (iii) reinstatement will adversely affect the priority of the lien created by this Security Instrument.
- 11. Borrower Not Released; Forbearance By Lender Not a Waiver. Extension of the time of payment or modification of amortization of the sums secured by this Security Instrument granted by Lender to any successor in interest of Borrower shall not operate to release the liability of the original Borrower or Borrower's successor in interest. Lender shall not be required to commence proceedings against any successor in interest or refuse to extend time for payment or otherwise modify amortization of the sums secured by this Security Instrument by region of any demand made by the original Borrower or Borrower's successors in interest. Any forbearance by Lender in the cising any right or remedy shall not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of any right or remedy.
- 12. Successors and Assigns Bound; Joint and Several Liability; Co-Signers. The covenants and agreements of this Security Instrument shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of Lender and Borrower, subject to the provisions of paragraph 9(b). Any Borrower who co-signs this Security Instrument but does not execute the Note: (a) is co-signing this Security Instrument only to mortgage, grant and convey that Borrower's interest in the Property under the terms of this Security Instrument; (b) is not personally obligated to pay the sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (c) agrees that Lender and any other Borrower may agree to extend, modify, forbear or make any accommodations with regard to the terms of this Security Instrument or the Note without that Borrower's consent.

Any notice to Borrower provided for in this Security Instrument shall be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first (135) mail unless applicable law requires use of another method. The notice shall be directed to the Property Address or any other address Borrower designates by notice to Lender. Any notice to Lender shall be given by first class mail to Lender's address stated herein or any address Lender designates by notice to Borrower. Any notice provided for in this Security Instrument shall be deemed to have been given to Borrower or Lender when given as provided in this paragraph.
- 14. Governing Law; Severability. This Security Instrument shall be governed by Federal law and the law of the jurisdiction in which the Property is located. In the event that any provision or clause of this Security Instrument or the Note conflicts with applicable law, and conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Security Instrument or the Note which can be given effect without the conflicting provision. To this end the provisions of this Security Instrument and the Note are declared to be severable.
  - 15. Borrower's Copy. Borrower shall be given one conformed copy of the Note and of this Security Instrument.
- 16. Hazardous Substances. Borrower shall not cause or permit the presence, use, disposal, storage, or release of any Hazardous Substances on or in the Property. The preceding two sentences shall not apply to the presence, use, or storage on the Property of small quantities of Fazardous Substances that are generally recognized to be appropriate to normal residential uses and to maintenance of the Property.

Borrower shall promptly give Lender written notice of any investigation, claim, demand, lawsuit or other action by any governmental or regulatory agency or private party involving the Property and any Hazardous Substance or Environmental Law of which Borrower has actual knowledge. As used in this paragraph 16, "Hazardous Substances" are those substances defined as toxic or hazardous substances by Environmental Law and the following substances: gasoline, serolene, other flammable or toxic petroleum products, toxic pesticides and herbicides, volatile solvents, materials copraining asbestos or formaldehyde, and radioactive materials. As used in this paragraph 16, "Environmental Law" pleans federal laws and laws of the jurisdiction where the Property is located that relate to health, safety or environmental protection.

NON-UNIFORM COVENANTS. Borrower and Lender further covenant and agree as follows:

17. Assignment of Rents. Borrower unconditionally assigns and transfers to Lender all the rents and revenues of the Property. Borrower authorizes Lender or Lender's agents to collect the rents and revenues and hereby directs each tenant of the Property to pay the rents to Lender or Lender's agents. However, prior to Lender so recice to Borrower of Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in the Security Instrument, Borrower shall collect and receive all rents and revenues of the Property as trustee for the benefit of Lender and Borrower. This assignment of rei ts constitutes an absolute assignment and not an assignment for additional security only.

If Lender gives notice of breach to Borrower: (a) all rents received by Borrower shall be held by Borrower as trustee for benefit of Lender only, to be applied to the sums secured by the Security Instrument; (b) Lender shall be entitled to collect and receive all of the rents of the Property; and (c) each tenant of the Property shall pay all rents due and unpaid to Lender or Lender's agent on Lender's written demand to the tenant.

Borrower has not executed any prior assignment of the rents and has not and will not perform any act that would prevent Lender from exercising its rights under this paragraph 17.

Lender shall not be required to enter upon, take control of or maintain the Property before or after giving notice of breach to Borrower. However, Lender or a judicially appointed receiver may do so at any time there is a breach. Any application of rents shall not cure or waive any default or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender. This assignment of rents of the Property shall terminate when the debt secured by the Security Instrument is paid in full.

UNDERSTANDING THE ROLE OF YOUR BROKER AND BROKER COMPENSATION

Many borrowers today look to a mortgage broker to provide information and assistance in obtaining loans that suit their requirements. For years, your professional mortgage broker has been making home financing more convenient for borrowers offering such valuable services and information as:

Same day pre-qualifications
A professional view point
Competitive rate shopping
Convenient application process
Pre-underwriting
Access to a variety of lender programs

Professional loan processing
Industry knowledge
Good Faith Estimates of closing costs
The ability to re-direct the loan if needed
Relationships with lenders
Alternative solutions when needed

Although virtually all brokers arrange for your to in to be funded by an independent investor or lender ("lender"), some brokers close loans in their own names while other close loans in the names of the lender funding the loan. In any event, your mortgage broker is not an employee or representative of the lender. Your mortgage broker and the lender are independent parties. The lender's role is to provide financing. You should look solely to your broker for information concerning your loan and any associated fees and costs.

The Cost of Your Loan

Your loan transaction will involve a variety of different fees and charges. Some of these are charged by the lender, some are charged by your broker, and some are charged by third parties such as closing agents, title companies, insurers, appraisers, home inspect on services, etc. Your Good Faith Estimate is an estimate of these fees and charges. At or being closing, you will receive a final statement showing the actual fees and charges for your transaction. The amount of any particular fee or charge can vary depending on many factors such as the lender's or your broker's out-of-pocket costs and internal administrative expenses, competitive factors, industry standards and practices, and third party charges. The costs of your transaction may also vary depending on the loan program you select with your broker, and any changes you decide upon during the loan process. Do not hesitate to ask your broker if you have any questions about any specific fees or charges.

Broker Compensation

In today's lending environment, you and your broker should work together to structure your loan to best meet your goals and objectives. If you would rather pay less cash, or if you do not have much cash available, you may finance your fees and costs. If you would rather pay a lower interest rate, you may pay higher points and fees. You should review the options with your broker and agree upon the terms of the loan (including the interest rate, points and fees), and the amount to be paid to the broker. If you choose to finance fees and costs through a higher interest rate, the broker will receive part of the broker's compensation out of that increase in rate in addition to, or in lieu of, fees or points paid by you to your broker. The lender-financed broker compensation is commonly referred to as an "interest rate premium".

Usually, the specific amount of any broker compensation financed by the lender through the interest rate will not be known until your broker locks in your loan with the lender, which will be after you have received your initial Good Faith Estimate from your broker. This initial Good Faith Estimate from your broker also shows the elements comprising the broker fee. The Good Faith Estimate you receive with this disclosure shows your broker's fee as a total amount and gives an estimate of how your broker's compensation could be paid. You should discuss this compensation structure with your broker. The final amount of any such compensation will be shown on your loan closing statement known as a HUD-1 or HUD-1A. Upon request, you may review this statement one business day before loan closing.

You should discuss with your broker how to structure the interest rate and the amount of fees and charges in the way that best suits your particular circumstances. Any questions you may have concerning broker compensation and other fees and costs during the loan process can be answered by your broker.
