INTEREST RATE AND MONTHLY PAYMENT CHANGES

(A) Change Dates

The interest rate I will pay may change on the first day of December 1997 , and on that day every 12th month thereafter. Each date on which my interest rate could change is called a "Change Date

Beginning with the first Change Date, my interest rate will be based on an Index. The "Index" is the weekly average yield on United States Treasury securities adjusted to a constant maturity of 1 year, as made available by the Federal Reserve Board. The most recent Index figure available as of the date 45 days before each Change Date is called the "Current Index".

If the Index is no longer available, the Note Holder will brose a new index which is based upon comparable information. The Note Holder will give me notice of this choice.

(C) Calculation of Changes

Before each Change Date, the Note Holder will calculate my new interest rate by adding. Two and Three Fourths (3) to the Current Index. The Note flo de will then found the result of this addition to the nearest percentage points ( 2.750 one-eighth of one percentage point (0.125%). Subject to the limits stated in Section 4(D) below, this rounded amount will be my new new interest rate until the next Change Date.

The Note Holder will then determine the amount of the monthly payment has would be sufficient to repay the unpaid principal that I am expected to lowe at the Change Date in full on the maturity date at m, new interest rate in substantially equal payments. The result of this calculation will be the new amount of my monthly payment.

(D) Limits on Interest Rate Changes

The Interest Rate I am required to pay at the first Change Date will not be greater than 9.500 % or less than %. Thereafter, my interest rate will never be increased or decreased on any single Change Date by more 5.500 than (wo percentage points (2.0%) from the rate of interest I have been paying for the preceding (welve months. My interest rate 13.500 w. will never be greater than

(E) Effective Date of Changes

My new interest rate will become effective on each Change Date. I will pay the amount of my new contriby payment beginning on the first monthly payment date after the Change Date until the amount of my monthly payment change, again.

The Note Holder will deliver or mail to me a notice of any changes in my interest rate and the amount of or a northly payment is before the effective date of any change.
