Make It Legal

_____ The Revocation of Power of Attorney (whether General or Special) must be signed by you AND it must be presented to the Agent in order to provide evidence of your intent to revoke the Power of Attorney.

_____ Because the Agent must be given a copy of the Revocation, it is recommended that the Revocation be mailed by certified mail to the Agent's last known address. Alternatively, a copy of the Revocation may be hand delivered to the Agent, in which case, the Agent should sign a receipt acknowledging that the Agent received the Revocation.

_____ In all states, the signatures on the Revocation should be notarized.

Copies

_____ The Agent must be given a copy of the Revocation.

_____ You should retain a copy of the Revocation of Power of Attorney document for your files, as well as any evidence that the Agent received the original copy of the Revocation.

Reasons to Update

* To correct an error which made the earlier revocation ineffective or invalid.
