In addition to the annual assessments authorized above, the Owner of the Residential Property may levy special assessments for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of constructing or purchasing a specified capital improvement upon the Building and for the necessary fixtures and personal property related thereto. The special assessments levied hereunder shall be due and payable at such time or times and in such manner as shall be fixed by the Owner of the Residential Property and shall be used only for the specific purpose for which such assessment was levied.

(c) The failure or delay of the Owner of the Residential Property to prepare or serve the annual or adjusted estimate on the Owner of the Commercial Property shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of such Owner's obligation to pay the maintenance costs and necessary reserves, as herein provided, whenever the same shall be determined, and in the absence of any annual estimate or adjusted estimate, the Owner of the Commercial Property shall continue to pay his monthly installment at the then existing rate established for the previous period until the monthly installment which is due more than ten (10) days after such new annual or adjusted estimate shall have been mailed or delivered.

(b) If said annual assessments prove inadequate for any reason, the Owner of the Residential Property may charge the deficiency against the existing reserves, or levy a further assessment which shall be assessed in accordance with the Percentage Schedule, which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit "D". The Owner of the Residential Property shall serve notice for such further assessment on the Owner of the Commercial Property by a statement in writing showing the amount due and reasons therefor, and such further assessments shall become effective with the monthly installment which is due more than ten (10) days after delivery or mailing of such notice of further assessment. All Owners shall be personally liable for and obligated to pay their respective adjusted monthly assessment.

10.2 Applications. Applications for building permits to make Alterations shall be filed and processed by the Altering Owner without the joinder of the other Owner in such application, unless the City of Chicago or other government agency having jurisdiction thereof requires joinder of the other Owner. If joinder by the other Owner not making Alterations is so required, said Owner shall cooperate in executing such application or other instruments as may be necessary to obtain the building permit; provided, however, the Altering Owner shall indemnify and hold harmless the other owners from and against any and all loss, liability, claims, judgments, costs and expenses arising out of the other Owner's execution of the application, permit or other instrument.

(e) The Owners, in making Alterations, shall (i) perform all work in a good and workmanlike manner and in accordance with good construction practices, (ii) comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules, regulations and orders, including, without limitation, the City of Chicago Building Code, and (iii) comply with all of the applicable provisions of this Declaration. Each Owner shall, to the extent reasonably practicable, make Alterations within its portion of the Total Property in such a manner as to minimize any noise, vibration, particulate and dust infiltration or other interference or disturbance which would interfere with or disturb an occupant or occupants of the other portion of the Total Property, but such Owner shall not be liable in any event for damages as a result of any such disturbance.

(d) If any matter arises, between the Owners with respect to whether any Alterations or proposed Alterations violate the provisions of this Article, then any Owner may submit such matter to the Architect for its advice, and the Architect shall render its opinion whether the Alterations or proposed Alterations violate the provisions hereof.

The Owner or Mortgagees whose consents are requested shall make a good faith effort to respond to the Altering Owner within thirty (30) days after its receipt of said plans and specifications from the Altering Owner showing proposed Alterations. If the Altering Owner has not requested the other Owner consent to the proposed alterations, and if, in the good faith opinion of the other owners or the applicable Mortgagees, the Altering Owner has violated or will violate the provisions of this Article, such Owner or Mortgagees (an "Objecting Party") shall notify the Altering owner of its opinion that the Alterations or proposed Alterations violate or will violate the provisions of this Article, and shall specify the respect or respects in which its provisions are or will be violated. If an Objecting Party in good faith asserts such a violation, then the Altering owner shall not commence with the Alterations or proceed with the Alterations, if already commenced, until the matter has been resolved. In addition to any other legal or equitable rights or remedies to which the Objecting Party may be entitled by reason of an Altering Owner's violation or likely violation, the Objecting Party shall be entitled to seek and obtain injunctive relief to enjoin any such violation.

11.1 Notices. All notices, demands, elections or other communications required, permitted or desired to be served hereunder ("Notices") shall be in writing and shall be delivered in person or mailed as certified or registered matter, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, addressed to the respective Owner at their current address. The foregoing notwithstanding, at such time as any portion of the Total Property is submitted to the Act, Notices to the Owners of such portion of the Total Property shall be delivered or mailed as aforesaid, to any officer, director or managing agent of the applicable Condominium Association to such address as may appear in any public record instead of the addresses set forth above. Any change of address shall be effective, however, only upon the giving of notice thereof to the other owners in accordance with the provision of Section 1.3 hereof. Copies of all such Notices shall also be sent to the applicable Mortgagees. Concurrently with the giving of any notification required hereunder to be given, or which any other party here to may desire to give to the Owner of the Residential Property or the Owner of the Commercial Property, a duplicate original of such notification shall be given to the Mortgagees affected thereby at the address for the giving of notice set forth in the mortgage or trust deed securing indebtedness to such Mortgagees, or to any other address of which notice by United States Mail, return receipt requested, shall have been given to the other parties hereto.

No judgment against any owner of any portion of the Total Property shall be subject to execution, or be a lien on any assets of, such owner other than Owner's interest in the Total Property.

12.2 Successors/Assigns. In the event of any conveyance or divestiture of title to any portion of or interest in any portion of the Total Property: (1) the Owner who is divested of title shall be entirely freed and relieved of all covenants and obligations thereafter accruing hereunder but only with respect to any such portion or interest conveyed or divested; and (2) the grantee or the person or persons or other entity or entities who succeed to title shall be deemed to have assumed all of the covenants and obligations of the Owner of such portion or interest thereafter accruing hereunder, until such grantee or successor is itself freed and relieved therefrom as hereinabove provided in this Section, and then any such grantee's or successor's grantee or successor shall thereafter be so bound. The terms, covenants, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall run with each respective Parcel.

12.1 Non-Liability. Each Owner of a portion of the Total Property shall cooperate in the securing and performing of the services as set forth in this Declaration but shall not be liable for interruption or inadequacy of service, loss or damage to property or injury (including death) to any person for any reason. Each Owner obligated hereunder is reserved the right to curtail or halt the performance of any service hereunder at any time in reasonable respects for a reasonable period of time to make necessary repairs or in case of an Emergency Situation.

Any amendment to or termination of this Declaration shall be recorded with the Recorder.

13.3 Headings. The headings of Articles in this Declaration are for convenience of reference only and shall not in any way limit or define the content, substance or effect of the Articles.

13.2 Unenforceable or Inapplicable Provisions. The illegality, invalidity or unenforceability under law of any covenant, restriction or condition or any other provision of this Declaration shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remaining provisions of this Declaration.

To that end, each Owner shall share information which it possesses relating to matters which are the subject of this Declaration, except such information as such Owner may reasonably deem confidential or which may be the subject of litigation and which such Owner is prohibited from revealing pursuant to court order. From time to time after the date hereof, each Owner shall furnish, execute and acknowledge, without charge (except where elsewhere provided herein) (i) such other instruments, documents, materials and information as the other Owner here to may reasonably request in order to confirm to such requesting Owner the benefits contemplated hereby, but only so long as any such request does not restrict or abridge the benefits granted the other Owner hereunder or increase such Owner's burdens hereunder; and (ii) such grants of easements to and agreements with utility companies as the other Owner here to may reasonably request in order to enable such utility company to furnish utility services as required by such owner, provided that the Mortgages which hold any Mortgage on the portions of the Total Property on which such Easement is granted have first consented in writing to such easements.

13.9 Applicable Law, Place of Performance. The parties hereto acknowledge that this Declaration and all other instruments in connection herewith, have been negotiated, executed and delivered in the City of Chicago, County of Cook and State of Illinois. This Declaration and said other instruments shall, in all respects, be governed,

13.8 Non-Use of Easements. Easements created hereunder shall not be presumed abandoned by nonuse or the occurrence of damage or destruction of a portion of the Improvements subject to an Easement unless the Owner benefited by such easement states in writing its intention to abandon the easement or unless the easement has been abandoned for a period in excess of two (2) years.

13.7 Run With Land. All the easements, covenants, restrictions and conditions herein contained shall run with the land and shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Declarant and each subsequent holder of any interest in any portion of the Total Property and their grantees, mortgagees, heirs, successors, personal representatives and assigns with the same full force and effect for all purposes as though set forth at length in each and every conveyance of the Total Property or any part thereof.

13.6 Construction. The Provisions of this Declaration shall be construed to ensure that the Total Property shall remain a first-class, mixed-use property.

13.5 Term. The covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in this Declaration shall be enforceable by the Owners and their respective successors and assigns for a term of forty (40) years from the date this Declaration is recorded, after which time said covenants, conditions and restrictions shall be automatically extended without further act or deed of the owners, except as may be required by law and as provided below for successive periods of ten (10) years, subject to amendment or termination as hereinabove set forth; provided, however, that this Declaration, and all easements, covenants, conditions and restrictions contained herein, shall terminate and be deemed abrogated upon the demolition or destruction of all of the Improvements and the failure to restore or rebuild the same within five (5) years after such demolition or destruction. If and to the extent that any of the covenants would otherwise be unlawful or void for violation of (a) the rule against perpetuities, (b) the rule restricting restraints on alienation, or (c) any other applicable statute or common law rule analogous thereto, or otherwise imposing limitations upon the time for which such covenants may be valid, then the provision concerned shall continue and endure only until the expiration of a period of twenty one (21) years after the date of the last to survive of the class of persons consisting of all of the lawful descendants of Richard M. Daley, Mayor of the City of Chicago, living at the date of this Declaration.

Property, and the acceptance thereof shall be deemed to be a grant and acknowledgment of, and a consent to the reservation of, the power to the Declarant to vote in favor of, make, execute and record Special Amendments. The right of the Declarant to act pursuant to rights reserved or granted under this section shall terminate at such time as the Declarant no longer holds or controls title to any portion of the Total Property.
