Buyer declines to have a professional property inspection performed, and this Contract shall not be contingent upon such an inspection.

Buyer shall have the right, for a period of five (5) business days following the date of acceptance of this Contract, to have the subject property and its improvements inspected by a certified home inspection service of Buyer's choice, and at Buyer's cost.

If the condition report reveals any structural, heating, cooling, plumbing, mechanical or electrical defect(s) for which the cumulative cost of repair shall exceed $ _____, Buyer shall then have the right and option to make written request of Seller for certain repairs, said request to be provided to Seller, Seller's listing agent or attorney within the aforementioned five (5) business days. 1. making the repairs as requested by Buyer, or
2. negotiating the cost of correcting said defects with Buyer, or
3. declaring this Contract null and void.

In the event the Seller does not exercise any of these options and, in the further event that the Buyer does not waive said defects, the Buyer shall have the right to declare this Contract null and void. Should either party to this Contract make such a declaration, any earnest money deposit made by the Buyer shall be refunded in full. Seller's options must be exercised within five (5) business days of Seller's receipt of the inspection report.

If either of said written test reports indicate that the water is not potable, that the septic system is not in proper operating condition, or that the systems are not in compliance with the relevant statutes, Seller shall have the option to make the necessary repairs and bring the system(s) into compliance prior to the closing date. In the event Seller elects not to make the necessary repairs, then this Contract, at the option of Buyer, shall become null and void, and all earnest money shall be refunded to Buyer.

FLOOD PLAIN:

Buyer shall have the option of declaring this Contract null and void within five (5) days of receipt of any written notice or disclosure, including the Residential Real Property Disclosure Report, that the property is located in a special flood plain hazard area which requires the Buyer to obtain flood insurance. If Buyer defaults, all earnest money shall be forfeited to Seller, subject to Seller's obligations under any real estate listing agreement, provided, however, that such forfeiture shall not be the exclusive remedy of Seller, and Seller shall retain said forfeited earnest money without prejudice to any other remedy Seller has at law or in equity. If Seller defaults, the earnest money, at the option of the Buyer, shall be refunded to Buyer, but such refund shall not release Seller from his obligations under this Contract or in any way limit or restrict the right of Buyer to pursue other legal or equitable remedies. In the event of any default or nonperformance by either of the parties, and should there be no agreement by the parties as to the disposition of the earnest money, Escrowee may give written notice to all parties of Escrowee's intention to file, thirty (30) days thereafter, an action with the appropriate Circuit Court in the nature of an interpleader for the purpose of depositing the earnest money with the Clerk of the Circuit Court.
