The agent will have authority to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in every type of property or transaction covered by the granted power, to the time of exercise, whether the principal's interests are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, equitable or contractual, as a result of a deed or instrument in any other form, but the agent will not have power, under any of the statutory categories, (a) through (c), to make gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to appoint, to others or to change any beneficiaries when the principal has designated to take the principal's interests at death, under any will or trust instrument, beneficiary, trust or contractual arrangement.
