If evidence of title discloses other exceptions, Seller shall have thirty days from Seller's receipt of evidence of title to cure such exceptions and notify Purchaser accordingly, and as to those exceptions which may be removed at closing by payment of money, Seller may have same removed at closing by using the proceeds of sale in payment thereof.

If Seller defaults, the earnest money, at the option of Purchaser, shall be refunded to Purchaser, but such refunding shall not release Seller from the obligation of this Contract. In the event of any default, Escrowee shall give written notice to Seller and Purchaser indicating Escrowee's intended disposition of the earnest money and request the Seller's and Purchaser's written consent to the Escrowee's intended disposition of the earnest money within thirty (30) days after the date of mailing of the Notice. However Seller and Purchaser hereby acknowledge that if Escrowee is a licensed real estate broker, Seller and Purchaser hereby agree that if neither party object, in writing, to the proposed disposition of the earnest money within thirty (30) days after the date of mailing of said notice that Escrowee shall proceed to dispose of the earnest money as previously indicated by the Escrowee.
