Exercise of my powers over allocated property. "Allocated property" means property known to my agent to be allocated in my estate plan to particular beneficiaries (not including my heirs as to intestate property and the residuary beneficiaries under my will). Examples of the types of property that may constitute allocated property are joint tenancy property, bank, Totten trust and P.O.D. accounts, property specifically bequeathed under my will, life insurance, retirement plan benefits, property held in any revocable trust established by me, property subject to my right of withdrawal or power of appointment and property passing at my death pursuant to any other type of trust, contract or beneficiary designation form. My agent shall have power to act for me and in my name to exercise all my rights and powers to withdraw or consume allocated property, but only to the extent necessary (after use of substantially all unallocated and readily marketable property known to my agent) to provide for my health, comfortable care and customary standard of living. If it is necessary to resort to allocated property, my agent shall endeavor to use it in such manner that my estate plan and the relative interests of the beneficiaries of allocated property will be preserved insofar as practicable, but my agent shall not be liable to any person for failure to do so. Power to make gifts. My agent shall have the power to make annual gifts each year during my lifetime in cash or in kind, in equal or unequal amounts, to such one or more of _____ according to the pattern of giving established by me. The gift(s) to _____ shall not exceed in each year the annual gift tax exclusion under Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the gift ($11,000/year/donee at the time this instrument is signed) or twice such amount if I am married at the time of the gift, and may be subject to such trusts, powers, terms and conditions as my agent determines to be consistent either with my overall estate plan or with any pattern of giving established by me. My agent shall not have the power to make such gifts if my agent determines that the effect would be to impair the ability of my agent and the trustee of my trust, to provide adequately for my and my dependents health and comfortable care in our accustomed manner of living. My agent shall not participate in making any gifts to my agent or to any person whom my agent has the legal obligation to support.]

(YOUR AGENT WILL HAVE AUTHORITY TO EMPLOY OTHER PERSONS AS NECESSARY TO ENABLE THE AGENT TO PROPERLY EXERCISE THE POWERS GRANTED IN THIS FORM, BUT YOUR AGENT WILL HAVE TO MAKE ALL DISCRETIONARY DECISIONS. IF YOU WANT TO GIVE YOUR AGENT THE RIGHT TO DELEGATE DISCRETIONARY DECISION-MAKING POWERS TO OTHERS, YOU SHOULD KEEP THE NEXT SENTENCE, OTHERWISE IT SHOULD BE STRUCK OUT.)

4. My agent shall have the right by written instrument to delegate any or all of the foregoing powers involving discretionary decision-making to any person or persons whom my agent may select, but such delegation may be amended or revoked by any agent (including any successor) named by me who is acting under this power of attorney at the time of reference.

When the title of any of the following categories is retained (not struck out) in a statutory property power form, the effect will be to grant the agent all of the principal's rights, powers and discretions with respect to the types of property and transactions covered by the retained category, subject to any limitations on the granted powers that appear on the face of the form. The agent will have authority to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in every type of property or transaction covered by the granted power at the time of exercise, whether the principal's interests are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, equitable or contractual, as a joint tenant or tenant in common or held in any other form; but the agent will not have power under any of the statutory categories (a) through (o) to make gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to appoint to others or to change any beneficiary whom the principal has designated to take the principal's interests at death under any will, trust, joint tenancy, beneficiary form or contractual arrangement.
