

Illinois Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property

(Notice: the purpose of this power of attorney is to give the person you designate (your "Agent") broad powers to handle your property, which may include powers to pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice to you or approval by you. This form does not impose a duty on your agent to exercise granted powers; but when powers are exercised, your agent will have to use due care to act for your benefit and in accordance with this form and keep a record of receipts, disbursements and significant actions taken as agent. A court can take away the powers of your agent if it finds the agent is not acting properly. You may name successor agents under this form but no co-agents. Unless you expressly limit the duration of this power in the manner provided below, until you revoke this power or a court acting on your behalf terminates it, your agent may exercise the powers given here throughout your lifetime, even after you become disabled. The powers you give your agent are explained more fully in Section 3-4 of the Illinois "Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law" of which this form is a part (see the end of this form). That law expressly permits the use of any different form of power of attorney you may desire. If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.)

POWER OF ATTORNEY MADE MAY 30, 2007

1. I, Bruce M. Hall, of Schaumburg, IL, hereby appoint William M. Hall, my brother, of Lombard, IL, as my attorney-in-fact (my "agent") to act for me and in my name (in any way I could act in person) with respect to the following powers, as defined in Section 3-4 of the "Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law" (including all amendments), but subject to any limitations on or additions to the specified powers inserted in paragraph 2 or 3 below:

(You must strike out any one or more of the following categories of powers you do not want your agent to have. Failure to strike the title of any category will cause the powers described in that category to be granted to the agent. To strike out a category you must draw a line through the title of that category.)

(Limitations on and additions to the agent's powers may be included in this power of attorney if they are specifically described below.)

2. The powers granted above shall not include the following powers or shall be modified or limited in the following particulars (here you may include any specific limitations you deem appropriate, such as a prohibition or conditions on the sale of a particular stock or real estate or special rules on borrowing by the agent):

(Initials: BJ no limitations)

3. In addition to the powers granted above, I grant my agent the following powers (here you may add any other delegable powers including, without limitation, power to make gifts, exercise powers of appointment, name or change beneficiaries or joint tenants or revoke or amend any trust specifically referred to below):

Authority to Make Gifts. My agent is authorized to pay my pledges to and make such gifts to such individuals, but not to the agent acting under this power of attorney, and in such amounts, as my agent, in his or her sole discretion, may deem appropriate, and if my agent determines that such action is not significantly detrimental to my welfare.

Authority to Engage in Financial Transactions. My agent is authorized to engage in financial transactions as agent with himself/herself in his/her individual capacity and I waive on behalf of myself and my estate all objections to any such transactions. I waive any conflict which may exist or which I have because my agent (who is a fiduciary when acting pursuant to the authority granted by this instrument) also is a beneficiary of my estate and/or otherwise derives some current or future benefit from such financial transactions.

Authority to Renounce and Disclaim. My agent is authorized to renounce and disclaim any property or interest in property or powers to which for any reason and by any means I may become entitled, whether by gift or by testate or intestate succession; my agent is further authorized to release or abandon any property or interest in property or power which I may now have or hereafter acquire and, in exercising such discretion, my agent may consider, without limitation, such matters as

- The effect of such renunciation or disclaimer upon my estate's liability for estate, inheritance or other death taxes;
- The effect of such renunciation or disclaimer upon persons interested in my estate; and
- The effect of such renunciation or disclaimer upon persons who would receive the renounced or disclaimed property.

Authority to Apply for Government Aid. My agent is authorized to apply for government aid for me or on my behalf including, but not limited to, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability, Medicaid and Medicare.

Authority to Purchase Health Insurance. My agent is authorized to apply for and to purchase health insurance for me and on my behalf.

Authority to Establish Special Needs Trust. My agent is authorized to establish a Supplemental Needs Trust, an OBRA Trust (D4A Trust) or a Pooled Payback Trust (D4C Trust) for my benefit.

UNOFFICIAL COPY

Authority to Compensate Agents. My agent is authorized to compensate separately any brokers, attorneys, auditors, depositories, real estate managers, investment advisors and other persons (including my agent and any firm with which my agent is associated) without reducing compensation in any capacity.

Authority to Apply for Reverse Mortgage. My agent is authorized to apply for a reverse mortgage, including but not limited to signing the Mortgage and Note.

Tax Powers. My agent is authorized to sign tax returns and tax powers of attorney.

Authority to Change Accounts. My agent is authorized to change any of my accounts, joint or otherwise, by renaming such accounts, removing my name from such accounts or otherwise dealing with any savings, checking or other banking or securities accounts with any financial institution or brokerage firm, whether said accounts are in my name alone or in joint tenancy with any other person.

Authority to Change Beneficiary Designation on Retirement Accounts. My agent is authorized to change the beneficiary designation on any account in my name, whether IRA, 401(K) Profit Sharing, or other form of retirement account.

Authority to Change Beneficiary Designation on Life Insurance Policies. My agent is authorized to change the beneficiary designation on any life insurance policy or life insurance contract that I own.

Authority to Convert Life Insurance Policies to Cash. My agent is authorized to redeem, cash in, or otherwise convert to cash any life insurance owned by me.

(Your agent will have authority to employ other persons as necessary to enable the agent to properly exercise the powers granted in this form, but your agent will have to make all discretionary decisions. If you want to give your agent the right to delegate discretionary decision-making powers to others, you should keep the next sentence. Otherwise it should be struck out.)

4. My agent shall have the right by written instrument to delegate any or all of the foregoing powers involving discretionary decision-making to any person or persons whom my agent may select, but such delegation may be amended or revoked by any agent (including any successor) named by me who is acting under this power of attorney at the time of reference.

(Your agent will be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred in acting under this power of attorney. Strike out and initial the next sentence if you do not want your agent to also be entitled to reasonable compensation for services as agent.)

5. My agent shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered as agent under this power of attorney. (If you do not want your agent to be compensated, cross out the preceding sentence and initial here:

(This power of attorney may be amended or revoked by you at any time and in any manner. Absent amendment or revocation, the authority granted in this power of attorney will become effective at the time this power is signed and will continue until your death unless a limitation on the beginning date or duration is made by initialing and completing either (or both) of the following:)

6. (Initials: BH) This power of attorney shall become effective immediately (insert when you want this power to first take effect: "immediately," "upon a medical determination of my disability," or some other date or future event during your lifetime).

7. (Initials: BK) This power of attorney shall terminate upon my revocation of this power of attorney or upon my death, whichever shall first occur.

(If you wish to name successor agents, insert the name(s) and address(es) of such successor(s) in the following paragraph.)

8. If any agent named by me shall die, become incompetent, resign or refuse to accept this office of agent, I name the following (each to act alone and successively, in the order named) as successors to such agent: Meredith K. Konopka, my sister.

For purposes of this paragraph 8, a person shall be considered to be incompetent if and while the person is a minor or an adjudicated incompetent or disabled person or the person is unable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters, as certified by a licensed physician.

(If you wish to name your agent as guardian of your estate, in the event a court decides that one should be appointed, you may, but are not required to, do so by retaining the following paragraph, the court will appoint your agent if the court finds that such appointment will serve your best interest and welfare. Strike out and initial paragraph 9 if you do not want your agent to act as guardian.)

9. If a guardian of my estate (my property) is to be appointed, I nominate the agent acting under this power of attorney as such guardian, to serve without bond or security.

10. I am fully informed as to all the contents of this form and understand the full import of this grant of powers to my agent.

A COPY OR REPRODUCTION OF THIS EXECUTED ORIGINAL (WITH COPIES OF SIGNATURES, THE CERTIFICATE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND THE WITNESS CLAUSE) SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE ORIGINAL COUNTERPARTS OF THIS POWER OF ATTORNEY.

Section 3-4 of the Illinois Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law

Section 3/4. Explanation of powers granted in the statutory short form power of attorney for property. This Section defines each category of powers listed in the statutory short form power of attorney for property and the effect of granting powers to an agent. When the title of any of the following categories is retained (not struck out) in a statutory property power form, the effect will be to grant the agent all of the principal's rights, powers and discretions with respect to the types of property and transactions covered by the retained category, subject to any limitations on the granted powers that appear on the form. The agent will have authority to exercise each granted power for and in the name of the principal with respect to all of the principal's interests in every type of property or transaction covered by the granted power at the time of exercise, whether the principal's interest are direct or indirect, whole or fractional, legal, equitable or contractual, as a joint tenant or tenant in common or held in any other form; but the agent will not have power under any of the statutory categories (a) through (o) to make gifts of the principal's property, to exercise powers to appoint to others or to change any beneficiary whom the principal has designated to take the principal's interest at death under any will, trust, joint tenancy, beneficiary form or contractual arrangement. The agent will be under no duty to exercise granted powers or to assume control of or responsibility for the principal's property or affairs; but when granted powers are exercised, the agent will be required to use due care to act for the benefit of the principal in accordance with the terms of the statutory property power and will be liable for negligent exercise. The agent may act in person or through others reasonably employed by the agent for that purpose and will have authority to sign and deliver all instruments, negotiate and enter into all agreements and do all other acts reasonably necessary to implement the exercise of the powers granted to the agent.

(a) Real estate transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy, sell, exchange, rent and lease real estate (which term includes, without limitation, real estate subject to a land trust and all beneficial interests in and powers of direction under any land trust); collect all rent, sale proceeds and earnings from real estate; convey, assign and accept title to real estate; grant easements, create conditions and release rights of homestead with respect to real estate; create land trusts and exercise all powers under land trusts; hold, possess, maintain, repair, improve, subdivide, manage, operate and insure real estate; pay, contest, protest and compromise real estate taxes and assessments; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to real estate which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(b) Financial institution transactions. The agent is authorized to: open, close, continue and control all accounts and deposits in any type of financial institution (which term includes, without limitation, banks, trust companies, savings and building and loan associations, credit unions and brokerage firms); deposit in and withdraw from and write checks on any financial institution account or deposit; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to financial institution transactions which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(c) Stock and bond transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy and sell all types of securities (which term includes, without limitation, stocks, bonds, mutual funds and all other types of investment securities and financial instruments); collect, hold and safekeep all dividends, interest, earnings, proceeds of sale, distributions, shares, certificates and other evidences of ownership paid or distributed with respect to securities; exercise all voting rights with respect to securities in person or by proxy, enter into voting trusts and consent to limitations on the right to vote; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to securities which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(d) Tangible personal property transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy and sell, lease, exchange, collect, possess and take title to all tangible personal property; move, store, ship, restore, maintain, repair, improve, manage, preserve, insure and safekeep tangible personal property; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to tangible personal property which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(e) Safe deposit box transactions. The agent is authorized to: open, continue and have access to all safe deposit boxes; sign, renew, release or terminate any safe deposit contract; drill or surrender any safe deposit box; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to safe deposit matters which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(f) Insurance and annuity transactions. The agent is authorized to: procure, acquire, continue, renew, terminate or otherwise deal with any type of insurance or annuity contract (which terms include, without limitation, life, accident, health, disability, automobile casualty, property or liability insurance); pay premiums or assessments on or surrender and collect all distributions, proceeds or benefits payable under any insurance or annuity contract; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to insurance and annuity contracts which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(g) Retirement plan transactions. The agent is authorized to: contribute to, withdraw from and deposit funds in any type of retirement plan (which term includes, without limitation, any tax qualified or nonqualified pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, employee savings and other retirement plan, individual retirement account, deferred compensation plan and any other type of employee benefit plan); select and change payment options for the principal under any retirement plan; make rollover contributions from any retirement plan to other retirement plans or individual retirement accounts; exercise all investment powers available under any type of self-directed retirement plan; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to retirement plans and retirement plan account balances which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(h) Social Security, unemployment and military service benefits. The agent is authorized to: prepare, sign and file any claim or application for Social Security, unemployment or military service benefits; sue for, settle or abandon any claims to any benefit or assistance under any federal, state, local or foreign statute or regulation; control, deposit to any account, collect, receipt for, and take title to and hold all benefits under any Social Security, unemployment, military service and governmental benefits which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(i) Tax matters. The agent is authorized to: sign, verify and file all the principal's federal, state and local income, gift, estate, property and other tax returns, including joint returns and declarations of estimated tax; pay all taxes; claim, sue for and receive all tax refunds; examine and copy all the principal's tax returns and records; represent the principal before any federal, state or local revenue agency or taxing body and sign and deliver all tax powers of attorney on behalf of the principal that may be necessary for such purposes; waive rights and sign all documents on behalf of the principal as required to settle, pay and determine all tax liabilities; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to tax matters which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(j) Claims and litigation. The agent is authorized to: institute, prosecute, defend, abandon, compromise, arbitrate, settle and dispose of any claim in favor of or against the principal or any property interests of the principal; collect and receipt for any claim or settlement proceeds and waive or release all rights of the principal; employ attorneys and others and enter into contingency agreements and other contracts as necessary in connection with litigation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to claims and litigation which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(k) Commodity and option transactions. The agent is authorized to: buy, sell, exchange, assign, convey, settle and exercise commodities futures contracts and call and put options on stocks and stock indices traded on a regulated options exchange and collect and receipt for all proceeds of such transactions; establish or continue option accounts for the principal with any securities or futures broker; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to commodities and options which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(l) Business operations. The agent is authorized to: organize or continue and conduct any business (which term includes, whether as a proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, corporation, trust or other legal entity); operate, buy, sell, expand, contract, terminate or liquidate any business; direct, control, supervise, manage or participate in the operation of any business and engage, compensate and discharge business managers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants and consultants; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to business interests and operations which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(m) Borrowing transactions. The agent is authorized to: borrow money; mortgage or pledge any real estate or tangible or intangible personal property as security for such purposes; sign, renew, extend, pay and satisfy any notes or other forms of obligation; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to secured and unsecured borrowing which the principal could if present and under no disability.

(n) Estate transactions. The agent is authorized to: accept, receipt for, exercise, release, reject, renounce, assign, disclaim, demand, sue for, claim and recover any legacy, bequest, devise, gift or other property interest or payment due or payable to or for the principal; assert any interest in and exercise any power over any trust, estate or property subject to fiduciary control; establish a revocable trust solely for the benefit of the principal that terminates at the death of the principal and is then distributable to the legal representative of the estate of the principal; and, in general, exercise all powers with respect to estates and trusts which the principal could if present and under no disability; provided, however, that the agent may not make or change a will and may not revoke or amend a trust revocable or amendable by the principal or require the trustee of any trust the benefit of the principal to pay income or principal to the agent, unless specific authority to that end is given, and specific reference to the trust is made, in the statutory property power form.

(o) All other property powers and transactions. The agent is authorized to: exercise all possible powers of the principal with respect to all possible types of property and interests in property, except to the extent the principal limits the generality of this category (o) by striking out one or more of categories (a) through (n) or by specifying other limitations in the statutory property power form.
