North Shore Assembly of God
Special Called Business Meeting
Sunday, June 3, 2007

The meeting was called to order by Pastor Fred Sindorf.

The pastor called for the roster report with 37 members present.

The pastor began the meeting by bringing the members up to date on the windows campaign regarding the various bids. We have collected $7,675 to date and pledges totaling $19,775.

The board is requesting that we replace the damaged church and annex windows and we will need to secure financing to manage this project since we have not raised enough funds to totally handle this project.

A motion was made by Ric Miranda that we would secure the financing needed to replace the windows. The motion was seconded by Vandell Catron.

Discussion followed by various members wanting additional information.

The board is looking at getting our financing at the Niles Township Credit Union where we presently have the church accounts. An interest only loan would be secured at 7.75% and if we borrowed $37,000 the monthly interest would be $240 per month.

The question was called for regarding the motion on the floor and the membership approved the motion to secure the financing to replace the church and annex windows and it was approved unanimously.

A motion to adjourn was presented and seconded at 12:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Vandell Catron, Secretary

Clerk's Office
