And to do any act, deed, and thing whatsoever which I may lawfully do through or by an attorney in fact, as fully as I could do if personally present.

Giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act, deed, matter, and thing whatsoever with respect to the conveyance, financing and mortgage of said property as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person if personally present, including, without limitation, the execution of Notes, Mortgages, closing statements, affidavits and other documents required by the lender. I hereby declare that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said attorney shall be binding on myself, and my heirs, legal and personal representative, and assigns. I hereby ratify and confirm all that said attorney should lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents.

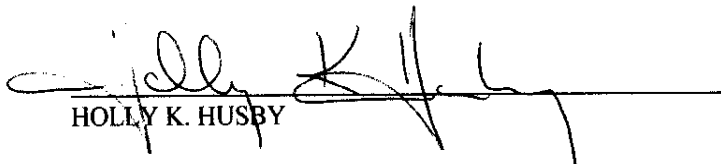

I have executed this Power of Attorney with the knowledge that I may, at some time hereafter, be adjudicated incapacitated, disabled or incompetent. I specifically direct that the power of attorney and the discretions, powers and authority herein granted to my said attorney or attorneys shall remain in full force and effect until revoked by me or until the date of such adjudication of incapacity, disability or in competency.
