A court can take away the powers of your Agent if it finds the Agent is not acting properly. You may name successor Agents under this form but not Co-Agents, unless you expressly limit the duration of this power in the manner provided below, until you revoke this power or a court acting on your behalf terminates it, your Agent may exercise the powers given here throughout your lifetime, even after you become disabled. The powers you give your Agent are explained more fully in Section 3-4 of the Illinois "Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law" of which this form is a part (see the back of this form).
