EXHIBIT C

Right of First Refusal

Until the Termination Date, if at any time, Grantee or any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, joint stock company, limited liability company, trust, estate, unincorporated organization, governmental entity or their successors in title or permitted assigns ("Person") owning the Premises other than a Person owning the Premises after the Premises has been released from the Brand Covenant pursuant to the Branding Agreement ("Premises Owner") (i) receives an acceptable bona fide offer to purchase or lease from a ready, willing, and able purchaser or lessee which Grantee or any Premises Owner desires to accept, or (ii) makes a bona fide offer to sell, lease or otherwise transfer to such a purchaser or lessee, all of Grantee's or any Premises Owner's right, title and interest in and to the Premises, or any interest therein ("Offer"), Grantee or such Premises Owner shall provide written notice to Grantor, specifying the name and address of the buyer or lessee and the price and complete terms of the Offer, accompanied by Grantee's or any Premises Owner's affidavit that the proposed sale or lease transaction described in the Offer is in good faith. Grantor will then have the prior option to purchase or lease the Premises at the price and on the terms of the Offer, but subject to the terms provided below.

Grantor shall provide written notice to Grantee or such Premises Owner, as applicable, of Grantor's election to exercise its Right of First Refusal within 30 days after Grantor receives such Person's written notice of the Offer. Within 20 days after the date of the notice provided to such Person of Grantor's election to exercise its Right of First Refusal, Grantor shall designate a title company and provide written notice to such Person of the same. Such Person shall deposit with the title company a recordable special warranty deed or lease, as applicable, to Grantor, in form satisfactory to Grantor, for the Premises. Grantor shall deposit with the title company any earnest money required by the Offer. Promptly thereafter, such Person shall (or Grantor may), at Grantor's expense, order from the title company a report on title to (or leasehold interest in) the Premises and a commitment for an owner's or lessee's (as applicable) policy of title insurance. Upon written notice from Grantor to such Person and the title company that title is acceptable, the title company shall deliver to Grantor the deed or lease executed by such Person, together with the owner's or lessee's (as applicable) policy of title insurance, against payment by Grantor of the purchase price (which shall include payment of any costs, fees, expenses, documentary, transfer and like taxes required to paid by Grantor), less any earnest money, as such allocation of costs, fees and expenses may be set forth in the Offer. Thereafter, the title company shall deliver to such Person the purchase price required by the Offer less the amount of any liens accepted by Grantor and less the amount of any and all costs, fees, expenses, documentary, transfer and like taxes required to paid by such Person as set forth in the Offer. Taxes and rent will be prorated as of the date of delivery of the deed (or the assignment of lease, as applicable) from the title company to the Grantor. Upon receipt from Grantor of written notice that the title is not acceptable, Grantee or such Premises Owner, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such title objections by the closing, including, without limitation, insuring against or providing a bond or suitable escrow for, any lien or other encumbrance that represents a liquidated amount or sum of money. If such Person is unable to cure the title to Grantor's satisfaction, Grantor may elect not to purchase the Premises, in which case the title company shall return the deed (or assignment of lease) to such Person, and the earnest money to Grantor. If Grantor elects to not exercise its Right of First Refusal for any reason, Grantee or such Premises Owner, as applicable, may sell the Premises under the terms described in the notice of the Offer provided to Grantor, provided, that such sale is concluded within ninety (90) days of Grantor's election to not exercise its Right of First Refusal, otherwise the Premises shall again be subject to the Right of First Refusal provisions described herein. Any proposed sale of any Premises under different terms than those described in such notice of the Offer is subject to the Right of First Refusal provisions described herein.

The Right of First Refusal is not limited by any other rights Grantor has under the Branding Agreement or elsewhere, if any, to acquire the Premises. The Right of First Refusal runs with the land or leasehold interest, inures to the benefit of, and binds the respective successors in interest and assigns thereof.

The Right of First Refusal shall not apply to any lease or sublease by Grantee to any Person other than Grantor or Grantee and their respective affiliates ("Third-Party") or other Person operating a retail motor fuel facility at the Premises using the "Shell" brand and any other trademark or distinctive name identifying branded fuel offered for resale at retail outlets approved by Grantor (the "Brand") pursuant to a written agreement with Grantee or any affiliate of Grantee, provided Grantee retains ownership and control of, and full contractual and regulatory responsibility for, the underground storage tanks, piping, leak detection devices and any related equipment, including "inground" hoists, direct and remote vapor and fill lines/buckets used for the storage and dispensing of petroleum products, used oil and/or heating oil, and other equipment related to the operation of a motor fuel service station which are, were or may be present on the Premises, not including any concrete or other slab or platform upon which such equipment may be stationed ("UST System") throughout the term of the lease or sublease with such Third-Party or Person and Grantee complies with the provisions of Section 9.6 (Future Conveyances) of the Purchase Agreement.
