Notwithstanding the foregoing, this option may not be exercised by Lender when the unavailability of insurance is solely due to Lender's failure to remit a mortgage insurance premium to the Secretary.

- 10. No Deficiency Judgments. Borrower shall have no personal liability for payment of the debt secured by this Security Instrument. Lender may enforce the debt only through sale of the Property. Lender shall not be permitted to obtain a deficiency judgment against Borrower if the Security Instrument is foreclosed. If Lender determ nes that the original lien status of the Security Instrument is jeopardized under state law (including out rot limited to situations where the amount secured by the Security Instrument equals or exceeds the maximum principal amount stated or the maximum period under which loan advances retain the same lien priority initially granted to loan advances has expired) and state law permits discriptional lien status to be maintained for future loan advances through the execution and recordation of one or more documents, then Lender shall obtain title evidence at Borrower's expense. If the title evidence indicates that the Property is not encumbered by any liens (except this Security Instrument, the Second Security Instrument described in Paragraph 13(a) and any subordinate liens that the Lender determines will also be subordinate to any future loan advances), Lender shall request he Borrower to execute any documents necessary to protect the lien status of future loan advances. Borrower agrees to execute such documents. If state law does not permit the original nen status to be extended to future loan advances, Borrower will be deemed to have failed to have performed an obligation under this Security Instrument.
- (b) Tax Deferral Programs. Borrower shall not participate in a real estate ax deferral program, if any liens created by the tax deferral are not subordinate to this Security Instrument.

If Lender determines that any part of the Property is subject to a lien which may attain priority over this Security Instrument, Lender may

14. Forbearance by Lender Not a Waiver. Any forbearance by Lender in exercising any right or remedy shall not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of cay light or remedy.

- 15. Successors and Assigns Bound; Joint and Several Lability. The covenants and agreements of this Security Instrument shall bind and benefit the successors and assigns of Lender. revenues and hereby directs each tenant of the Property to pay the rents to Lender or Lender's agents. However, prior to Lender's notice to Borrower of Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in the Security Instrument, Borrower shall collect and receive all rents and revenues of the Property as trustee for the benefit of Lender and Borrower. This assignment of rents constitutes an absolute assignment and not an assignment for additional security only.

If Lender gives notice of breach to Borrower: (a) all rents received by Borrower shall be held by Borrower as trustee for benefit of Lender only, to be applied to the sums secured by this Security Instrument; (b) Lender shall be entitled to collect and receive all of the rents of the Property; and (c) each tenant of the Property shall pay all rents due and unpaid to Lender or Lender's agent on Lender's written demand to the tenant.

This lien priority shall apply notwithstanding any State constitution, law or regulation, except that this lien priority shall not affect the priority of any liens for unpaid State or local governmental unit special assessments of taxes.
- 22. Adjustable Rate Feature. Under the Note, the initial interest rate of 3.245 % which accrues on the unpaid principal balance ("Initial Interest Rat:") is subject to the change, as described below. When the interest rate changes, the new adjusted interest rate will be applied to the total outstanding principal balance. Each adjustment to the interest rate will be based upon the average of interbank offered rates for one-month U.S. dollar-denominated deposits in the London market ("LIBOR"), as published in The Wall Street Journal, rounded to three digits to the right of the decimal print, ("Index") plus a margin. If the Index is no longer available, Lender will use as a new Index any index prescribed by the Secretary. Lender will give Borrower notice of the new Index.

Lender will perform the calculations described below to determine the new adjusted interest rate. The interest rate may change on the first day of 06/2010, and on unit day of each succeeding year X the first day of each succeeding month ("Change Date") until the loan is repaid in full.

The "Current Index" means the most recent Index figure available 30 days before the Change Date, and if the day that is 30 days before the Change Date is not a Sunday or Monday and not the first business day of the week, the Current Index will be the Index as published the first business day of that week. If "In day that is 30 days before the Change Date is a Sunday or Monday and not the first business day of the week, the Current Index will be the Index as published the first business day of the immediately prior week. Before each Change Date, the new interest rate will be calculated by adding a margin to the Current Index. The sum of the margin plus the Current Index will be called the "Calculated Interest Rate" for each Change Date. The Calculated Interest Rate will be compared to the interest rate in effect immediately prior to the current Change Date (the "Existing Interest Rate").
