This Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement is mutually agreed upon and entered into in this twenty third day of April in the year of our Lord two thousand nine, A.D. between the juristic person, JOHN MORO and any and all derivatives and variations in the spelling of said name except John Moro, hereinafter jointly and severally Debtor, and the living, breathing, flesh-and-blood man, known by the distinctive appellation John: Moro, hereinafter Creditor.

For valuable consideration Debtor hereby expressly agrees and covenants, without benefit of discussion, and without division, that Debtor holds harmless and undertakes the indemnification of Creditor from and against any and all claims, legal actions, orders, warrants, judgments, demands, liabilities, losses, depositions, summonses, lawsuits, costs, fines, liens, levies, penalties, damages, interests, and expenses whatsoever, both absolute and contingent, as are due and as might become due, now existing and as might hereafter arise, and as might be suffered/incurred by, as well as imposed on, Debtor for any reason, purpose, and cause whatsoever. Debtor does hereby and herewith expressly covenant and agree that Creditor shall not under any circumstances, nor in any manner whatsoever, be considered an accommodation party, nor a surety, for Debtor.

Words Defined; Glossary of Terms. As used in this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement, the following words and terms express the meanings set forth as follows, non obstante :

Appellation: In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term appellation means : A general term that introduces and specifies a particular term which may be used in addressing, greeting, calling out for, and making appeals of a particular living, breathing, flesh-and-blood man.

Conduit. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term conduit signifies a means of transmitting and distributing energy and the effects/produce of labor, such as goods and services, via the name JOHN MORO, also known by any and all derivatives and variations in the spelling of said name of Debtor except John Moro.

Creditor. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term Creditor means John: Moro .

Debtor. In this Hold harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term Debtor means JOHN MORO also known by any and all derivatives and variations in the spelling of said name except John Moro.

Derivative. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the word derivative means coming from another; taken from something preceding; secondary; that which has not the origin in itself, but obtains existence from something foregoing and of a more primal and fundamental nature ; anything derived from another.

Ens legis. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term ens legis means a creature of the law; an artificial being, as contrasted with a natural person, such as a corporation, considered as deriving its existence entirely from the law.

Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement means this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement No. JM-042309-HHIA, as this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement may be amended and modified in accordance with the agreement of the parties signing hereunder, together with all attachments, exhibits, documents, endorsements, and schedules re this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement attached hereto.

JOHN MORO. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term JOHN MORO means JOHN MORO and any and all derivatives and variations in the spelling of said name except John Moro, Common Law Copyright 1952 by John Moro . UCC 1-308 Without Prejudice All Rights Reserved.

John Moro. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term John Moro means the sentient, living, flesh-and-blood man identified by the distinctive appellation Thaddeus Long. All rights are reserved re use of John: Moro , Autograph Common Law Copyright 1952 by John: Moro . UCC 1-308 Without Prejudice Juristic person. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term juristic person means an abstract, legal entity ens legis, such as a corporation, created by construct of law and considered as possessing certain legal rights and duties of a human being; an imaginary entity, such as Debtor, i.e. JOHN MORO which, on the basis of legal reasoning, is legally treated as a human being for the purpose of conducting commercial activity for the benefit of a biological, living being, such as Creditor.

From the earliest times the law has enforced rights and exacted liabilities by utilizing a corporate concept by recognizing, that is, juristic persons other than human beings. The theories by which this mode of legal operation has developed, has been justified, qualified, and defined are the subject matter of a very sizable library. The historic roots of a particular society, economic pressures, philosophic notions, all have had their share in the law response to the ways of men in carrying on their affairs through what is now the familiar device of the corporation. Attribution of legal rights and duties to a juristic person other than man is necessarily a metaphorical process. And none the worse for it. No doubt, etaphors in law are to be narrowly watched. Cardozo, J., in Berkey v. Third Avenue R., Co., 244 N.Y. 84, 94, ut all instruments of thought should be narrowly watched lest they be abused and fail in their service to reason. See U.S. v. SCOPHONY CORP. OF AMERICA, 333 U.S. 795; 68 S. Ct. 855; 1948 U.S.

Living, breathing, flesh-and-blood man. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term living, breathing, flesh-and-blood man means the Creditor, John: Moro , a sentient, living being, as distinguished from an artificial legal construct, ens legis, i.e. a juristic person, created by construct of law.

here, every man is independent of all laws, except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institutions formed by his fellowmen without his consent. CRUDEN V. NEALE, 2 N.C. 338 (1796) 2 S.E. 70.

Non obstante. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term non obstante means: Words anciently used in public and private instruments with the intent of precluding, in advance, any interpretation other than certain declared objects, purposes.

Sentient, living being. In this Hold-harmless an Indemnity Agreement the term sentient, living being means the Creditor, i.e. John Moro , a living, breathing, flesh-and-blood man, as distinguished from an abstract legal construct such as an artificial entity, juristic person, corporation, partnership, association, and the like.

Transmitting Utility. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term transmitting utility means a conduit, e.g. the Debtor, i.e. JOHN MORO

UNOFFICIAL COPY

UCC. In this Hold-harmless and Indemnity Agreement the term UCC means Uniform Commercial Code.

I, Sec. 8, Cl. 17, and/or Art. IV, Sec. 3, Cl. 2] of the Constitution of the United States.

DECLARATION AND NOTICE OF REVOCATION & RESCISSION.

with language such as; "I declare that I am giving notice that I am rescinding, removing, revolving, by cancellation of my signature, all documents held by or in the possession of the Corporation known as the COOK COUNTY SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT, CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, COOK COUNTY, COOK COUNTY RECORDER OF DEEDS and any agencies including and not limited to THE CITY OF CHICAGO, and all subdivisions thereof, any and all agents, and all agents of the Crown with the title of Nobility of Esquire for commercial fraud, deceptive practice and failure of full disclosure to me.

There are few if any federal crimes that can be committed outside federal territory. Congressional insiders know Congress can punish few acts outside federal territory, so the federal territorial trial courts have been disguised as courts of justice for those who voluntarily submit themselves to federal prosecution. Among others, lawful users of medical marijuana and those who aid and assist them often find themselves federally charged with crimes that do not exist where they were alleged to have occurred.

AN EXPLANATION

The federal government is renowned for its complexity, so it is extremely gratifying to be able to compress an understanding of that government and its law into a couple of sheets. Pages 42 and 43 of Title 28 U.S.C. of the federal government own Judiciary and Judicial Procedure Code book printed by the Government Printing Office are the most important pages of law in the federal government. On those two pages, Congress explains that the territorial composition of the United States district courts is only that area subject to the exclusive legislative power of Congress. Did you think that the 50 United States were subject to Congress lawmaking power? To answer that I offer a riddle: What country gets smaller the more land you add to it? The United States of America is thought to be a nation/state but it is a confederation of nation/states created by the Articles of Confederation and it consists of the 50 United States. If Washington, D.C. and Puerto Rico are combined with the 50 United States, you don't get a bigger and better United States of America you get the government of the United States and 50 sovereign states. Those odd two pieces of real estate won't ever combine to form a whole nation/state and that is key to understanding the United States district courts.

The inability to combine the 50 United States, Washington D.C. and Puerto Rico to form one nation is what explains and gives us the territorial composition of the districts and divisions found in Sections 81-131 of Title 28 U.S.C. In the rest of Chapter 5, Congress explains that only one district court in all of the 50 states, Hawaii, has been established as an Article III judicial court and explains why that court cannot function as a court exercising judicial power. If judicial power is to be exercised in the several states, it will have to be exercised by state courts, because the districts have none. The federal government in the several states will consist of two government powers since the federal courts have not been granted Article III, Section 2 judicial power. While one or two branches of government may be good enough to do government work, it takes all three to lawfully act upon a citizen.
