No State shall enter into any Treaty. No State shall enter into any alliance. No State shall enter into any Confederation. No State shall grant Letters of Marque or Reprisal. No State shall coin money. No State shall emit Bills of Credit. No State shall make any Thing but Gold and Silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts. No State shall pass any Bill of Attainder. No State shall pass any ex post facto Law. No State shall pass any Law impairing the obligation of Contracts. No State shall grant any Title of Nobility.

No State shall without the consent of Congress, lay any Imposts or Duties on Imports or Exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws: and the net Produce of all duties and Imposts, laid by any State on Imports or Exports, shall be for the Use of the Treasury of the United States and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of Congress.

No State shall, without the Consent of Congress; (1) Lay any duty of Tonnage (2) Keep Troops or ships of War in time of peace; (3) Enter into any agreement compact with another State; (4) Enter into any agreement or Compact with a fore Power; (5) No State shall without the Consent of Congress engage in War, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent Danger as will not admit of delay.

No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the Privileges of citizens of the United States.

No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the Immunities of Citizens of the United States.

No State shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without the process of law.

No State shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

These are prohibitions upon the activity of the States. A State cannot directly take any step in any degree to directly invade or violate any of these provisions. A State cannot lend its aid in any degree to any person or corporation to effectuate a violation of these absolute prohibitions indirectly or obliquely lest a mockery be made of the Constitution of the United States.

A more serious and obvious question arises. Can the Legislative Branch or the Executive Branch or the Judicial Branch of the Government of the United States authorize a State to invade the absolute prohibitions against the States expressly set out in the Constitution, or are the three departments of the U.S. Government incompetent to authorize such an invasion. The answer is obvious. The absolute prohibitions in the Constitution of the United States are impregnable. The Constitution is ordained and established in the name of the people. It is a law for the Governments of the States and the United States. The people said what they meant and they meant what they said.

Assume that Congress by attempted enactment would pass a law authorizing a State to deprive a person of Life, Liberty or property without due process of law. It would obviously be unconstitutional. The same is true of any other provision set out. Any attempt by Congress or the Executive or the Judiciary to authorize any State to invade any of the prohibitions is void. See Edwards v. Kearzey U.S. Supreme Court. 6 Otto 795.

No amount of perverted thinking or skullduggery can justify the fatal magnitude of the consequences which are to follow to total destruction of the Constitution of the United States by the Clergy, the Money Changers and those subversives in public office engaged in active treason against the Constitution.

This the tenth day of December in the year of our Lord two thousand ten, A.D.
