Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues, and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagor, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (a) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Mortgage, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become due superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

For the purpose of this provision, the word "person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, any unincorporated organization, or governmental or political subdivision thereof or any one or more or combination of the foregoing. 16. The Mortgagee hereof may collect, and the Mortgagor hereof agrees to pay, a delinquency and collection charge on each installment not paid within ten (10) days of the date said installment was due in an amount equal to five (5%) percent of the installment. The amount of the installment shall include, in addition to principal and interest, all other sums required to be paid or permitted to be collected by the terms of this Mortgage. It is agreed that such delinquency and collection charge is to reimburse the Mortgagee for additional costs incurred by the reason of the Mortgagor's delinquency.

17. The Mortgagor hereby waives all right of homestead exemption in the Premises.

18. The Mortgagor agrees not to further encumber the Premises by a mortgage lien or otherwise without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee.
