EXHIBIT C

Right of First Refusal

Until December 31, 2029, if at any time Grantee (i) receives an acceptable bona fide offer to purchase or lease from a ready, willing, and able purchaser or lessee which Grantee desires to accept, or (ii) makes a bona fide offer to sell, lease or otherwise transfer to such a purchaser or lessee, all of Grantee's right, title and interest in and to the Premises ("Offer"), Grantee shall provide written notice to Grantor, specifying the name and address of the proposed grantee or lessee and the price and complete terms of the Offer, accompanied by Grantee's affidavit that the proposed sale or lease transaction described in the Offer is in good faith. Grantor will then have the prior option to purchase or lease the Premises at the price and on the terms of the Offer, but subject to the terms provided below ("Right of First Refusal").

If the Offer received by Grantee or Grantee's own bona fide Offer relates to more than one Premises, Grantor must elect to purchase or lease (as applicable) all of the Premises that are the subject of the Offer. For the avoidance of doubt, the Right of First Refusal extends only to the Premises even if the Offer giving rise to the Right of First Refusal involves a combination of the Premises and other real property owned or leased by Grantee which is not the Premises.

Grantor shall provide written notice to Grantee of Grantor's election to exercise its Right of First Refusal within 30 days after Grantor receives Grantee's written notice of the Offer. If Grantor does not timely exercise its Right of First Refusal with respect to the Premises, Grantee shall be free to sell, lease or otherwise transfer the Premises in accordance with the transaction described in Grantee's notice. If such transaction is not consummated as described in the Grantee's notice, this Right of First Refusal shall thereafter apply to the Premises.

Within 20 days after the date of the notice provided to Grantee of Grantor's election to exercise its Right of First Refusal, Grantor shall designate a title company and provide written notice to Grantee of the same. Grantee shall deposit with the title company a recordable special warranty deed comparable to the Special Warranty Deed to which this Exhibit relates or a lease containing terms consistent with the Offer described in Grantee's notice and acceptable to Grantor. Grantor shall deposit with the title company any earnest money required by the Offer. Promptly thereafter, Grantee shall (or Grantor may), at Grantor's expense, order from the title company a report on title to (or leasehold interest in) the Premises and a commitment for an owner's or lessee's (as applicable) policy of title insurance. Upon written notice from Grantor to Grantee and the title company that title is acceptable, the title company shall deliver to Grantor the deed or lease executed by Grantee, together with the owner's or lessee's (as applicable) policy of title insurance, against payment by Grantor of the purchase price (which shall include payment of any costs, fees, expenses, documentary, transfer and like taxes required to be paid by Grantor), as such allocation of costs, fees and expenses may be set forth in the Offer, less any earnest money. Thereafter, the title company shall deliver to Grantee the purchase price required by the Offer less the amount of any liens accepted by Grantor and less the amount of any and all costs, fees, expenses, documentary, transfer and like taxes required to be paid by Grantee as set forth in the Offer. Taxes and rent will be prorated as of the date of delivery of the deed (or the assignment of lease, as applicable) from the title company to the Grantor. Upon receipt from Grantor of written notice that the title is not acceptable, Grantee shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cure such title objections by the closing, including, without limitation, insuring against or providing a bond or suitable escrow for, any lien or other encumbrance that represents a liquidated amount or sum of money. No objection shall be made to any encumbrance that was set forth as a permitted encumbrance for such Premises in the deed from Grantor to Grantee. In no case shall Grantee be required to convey any interest in the Premises greater than the interest it is vested in. If Grantee is unable to cure the title to Grantor's satisfaction, Grantor may elect not to purchase the Premises, in which case the title company shall return the deed (or assignment of lease) to Grantee, and the earnest money to Grantor. If Grantor elects to not exercise its Right of First Refusal for any reason, Grantee may sell the Premises under the terms described in the notice of the Offer provided to Grantor. Any proposed sale of the Premises under different terms than those described in such notice of the Offer is subject to the Right of First Refusal provisions described herein.

This Right of First Refusal shall not apply to (i) Grantee's sale (in a sale-leaseback transaction) of a Premises to an affiliate of Grantee or to a Third-Party, provided, as part of such transaction Grantee concurrently leases back and operates such Premises from the affiliate or Third-Party or (ii) any sale or lease of a Premises to an Affiliate of Grantee.
