Each Unit Owner shall have the right to the exclusive use and possession of the Limited Common Elements serving only his or her Unit. The right to the exclusive use and possession of the Limited Common Elements as aforesaid shall be appurtenant and pass with title to and run with the Unit of such Unit Owner. The use of the Common Elements, including the Limited Common Elements, and the rights of the Unit Owners with respect thereto, shall be subject to and governed by the Act, other applicable law, the Condominium Instruments, the Rules and Regulations and any resolutions adopted from time to time by the Board.

Any such delegation and/or transfer shall be in written form and shall provide that, while the delegation and/or transfer is in effect, the Unit Owner shall have no right to use the Common Elements and/or the improvements located thereon. A copy of such document effectuating the delegation shall be delivered to the Association in order for the delegation to become effective.

10. Parking and Garage Areas. The Parking and Garage Areas constitute a portion of the Common Elements. To the extent to which the original developer of the Property or other authorized party duly assigned and/or granted to initial Unit Owners the exclusive rights to use of one (1) designated outdoor parking space per Unit and/or one (1) designated garage space per Unit, such assignments and/or grants shall be deemed to be appurtenant to and pass with title to the Units to which appurtenant, regardless of whether expressly mentioned in deeds of conveyance or other instruments conveying title to the Units.

13. Transfer of Limited Common Elements. The use of the Limited Common Elements may be transferred between Unit Owners at their expense, provided, however, that each such transfer shall be made by an amendment to this Amended and Restated Declaration executed by all Unit Owners who are parties to the transfer and consented to by all other Unit Owners who have any right to use the Limited Common Elements affected. The amendment shall contain a certificate showing that a copy of the amendment has been delivered to the Board and shall contain a statement from the parties involved in the transfer which sets forth any changes in the parties' percentages of ownership in the Common Elements. If the parties cannot agree upon a reapportionment of their respective shares, the Board shall decide upon such reapportionment. No transfer shall become effective until the amendment has been Recorded. Rights and obligations with respect to any Limited Common Element shall not be affected nor shall any transfer of it be effective unless the transaction complies with the requirements of this Paragraph and the Act. The Association may, in the Board's sole discretion, charge a reasonable fee for processing any such transaction and/or recover from the Unit Owners who are parties to the transaction any and all attorneys' fees and related legal expenses (including, without limitation, title company charges and/or Recording fees) incurred in connection with the transaction. Such transaction fees shall be divided equally between the Unit Owners involved in such transfer, shall be the personal obligations of the Unit Owners, constitute continuing liens on the Unit Owner's Units and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

a. Encroachments. If any part of the Common Elements encroaches or shall hereafter encroach on any part of any Unit, or if any part of any Unit encroaches or shall hereafter encroach on any part of the Common Elements, or if any portion of any Unit encroaches on any part of any other Unit as a result of the construction, repair, reconstruction, settlement or shifting of a Building, valid mutual easements for the maintenance of such encroachment are hereby established and shall exist for the benefit of (a) the Unit Owner of the Unit so encroaching; or (b) all the Unit Owners with respect to the Common Elements so encroaching, as long as all or any part of the Building containing such Unit or Common Elements so encroaching shall remain standing, provided, however, that a valid easement for an encroachment shall in no event be created in favor of the Owner of any Unit if such encroachment occurred due to the intentional, wilful or negligent conduct of such Unit Owner, his or her Occupants and/or either of their tenants, guests, invitees, licensees, family members, contractors or agents, or if such encroachment or use is detrimental to or interferes with the reasonable use and enjoyment of the Property by any other Unit Owner.

b. Utility Easements. Easements are hereby declared and granted to all public utilities serving the Property for utility purposes, including the right to install, lay, operate, maintain, inspect, repair and replace water mains and pipes, sanitary and storm sewer lines, gas mains, telephone wires and equipment, electrical, cable television, Internet, other commercial entertainment or telecommunications conduits, cables, wires, transformers, and other equipment over, under, along and on any part of the Common Elements as and to the extent such easements existed as of the effective date of this Amended and Restated Declaration. Easements are also hereby declared and granted to all public utilities serving the Property to install, lay, operate, maintain, inspect, repair and replace any pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, utility lines, commercial entertainment lines, components of telecommunications systems or components of the Buildings' electronic systems or structural components which may run through the walls of a Unit, whether or not such walls lie in whole or in part within the Unit boundaries. The Property is subject to any easements set forth on the Plats. The Board may hereafter grant, renew, amend or terminate existing or additional easements for utility or commercial entertainment purposes or for other purposes it deems to be in the best interests of the Association and to be for the benefit of the Property over, under, along and on any portion of the Common Elements. Each Person, by acceptance of a deed, mortgage, trust deed, other evidence of obligation, or other instrument relating to a Unit, shall be deemed to grant a power coupled with an interest to the Board, as attorney-in-fact, to execute, acknowledge and Record, for and in the name of such Unit Owner, such instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate the foregoing.

c. Easement for Public Authorities. The duly designated officials and employees of governmental entities having jurisdiction over the Property shall have an easement to enter upon the Common Elements for the purpose of providing police and fire protection and ambulance and rescue services. Such right shall include a right of vehicular entry and access through and across all driveways and parking areas which are part of the Common Elements.

d. Street and Utilities Dedication. Upon approval by the Board, portions of the Common Elements may be dedicated to a public body for use as, or in connection with, a street or utility. Where such a dedication is made, nothing in the Act or any other law shall be construed to require that the real property taxes of every Unit must be paid prior to Recordation of the instruments effectuating the dedication. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Amended and Restated Declaration shall be deemed to constitute a dedication, express or implied, of any part of the Property which has not heretofore been dedicated to or for any public use or purpose whatsoever.

e. Cable Television/Internet Easement. Upon approval by the Board, an easement for the installation, laying, operation, maintenance, inspection, repair and replacement of cable television or high-speed internet cable may be granted, renewed, amended or terminated. The grant of such easement shall be according to the terms and conditions of local ordinances providing for cable television and/or high-speed Internet.

f. Water Damage/Erosion Protection Easement. Upon approval by the Board, an easement to a governmental body for construction, maintenance or repair of a project for protection against water damage or erosion may be granted, renewed, amended or terminated.

g. Repair Easement. The right of the Unit Owners to use and possess the Common Elements shall be subject to a blanket easement over the Common Elements in favor of the Association and its representatives, agents, associates, employees, contractors, subcontractors, invitees, licensees, tenants, successors, and assigns for the purposes of (i) access, ingress to and egress from the Property or any part thereof; and (ii) construction, installation, maintenance, inspection, repair, restoration and replacement of utilities and any other portion of the improvements thereon, including the right to restrict and regulate access to the Common Elements for the purposes of completing such work.

h. Blanket Easement. A blanket easement over the Property is hereby granted in favor of the Association for the purpose of exercising its rights and performing its duties under the Act, this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules and Regulations and resolutions of the Association. The authorized representatives of the Association or the Board, or of the manager or managing agent for the Property, and any suppliers of utilities (including, without limitation, water, sanitary and storm sewers, gas, electricity, telephone, cable television, Internet, commercial entertainment or telecommunications services) to the Property, shall be entitled to reasonable access to, over and through the individual Units as may be required in connection with the operation, maintenance, inspection, repair or replacement of the Common Elements or any equipment, facilities or fixtures affecting or serving other Units or the Common Elements or to service or take readings of any utility installations or meters located within a Unit. No Unit Owner may take any action that would interfere with the ability of the Association to operate, administer, maintain, inspect, repair or replace the Common Elements as provided herein.

15. Association.

a. The Association shall be the governing body for all of the Unit Owners and for the administration and operation of the Property as provided in the Act, this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and the resolutions of the Association. All agreements and determinations lawfully made by the Association shall be deemed to be binding on all Unit Owners and their respective successors and assigns.

b. Whether or not the Association is incorporated,

(i) Each Unit Owner shall be a member of such Association, which membership shall terminate on the sale or other disposition by such member of his or her Unit, at which time the new Unit Owner shall automatically become a member therein;

(ii) The provisions of Exhibit "C" to this Amended and Restated Declaration shall be adopted as the Bylaws of the Association; and

(iii) The name of the Association shall be "Condominiums of Northfield Square" or a similar name. Without limiting the foregoing, the Association shall have the authority to adopt, renew, change and/or cancel its assumed corporate name pursuant to the Illinois General Not For Profit Corporation Act of 1986.

16. Assessments. Each Unit Owner shall pay assessments reflecting his or her proportionate share of the Common Expenses. Such proportionate share of the Common

UNOFFICIAL COPY

Expenses for each Unit Owner shall be in the same ratio as his or her percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. Payment of assessments shall be in such amounts and at such times as determined and in the manner provided in the Bylaws and any Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions adopted by the Board. The Association, in the Board's sole discretion, may charge late fees for the late payment of assessments or other charges. If any Unit Owner shall fail or refuse to pay such assessments, the amount of any unpaid fine or other charges when due, the amount unpaid, together with any late fees, title company charges, management company charges, Recording fees, court costs, collection costs and attorneys' fees for services incurred prior or subsequent to the institution of any court action (and regardless of whether litigation is initiated by any party) (including, without limitation, fees incurred by the Association in an effort to protect its interests and/or to monitor the progress of a mortgage foreclosure case, real estate tax sale and/or other legal proceeding relating to a Unit or Unit Owner) shall be added to and deemed a part of the Unit Owner's respective share of the Common Expenses and constitute a lien on the interest of such Unit Owner in the Property. Said lien shall take effect and be in force when and as provided in the Act. Without limiting the foregoing, fees charged by the Association's property manager or managing agent pertaining to the collection of a Unit Owner's financial obligations to the Association (including, without limitation, collection account "turnover fees," court appearance fees and eviction fees) shall be added to and deemed a part of the Unit Owner's respective share of the Common Expenses, be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

17. Separate Mortgages. Each Unit Owner shall have the right, subject to the provisions herein, to make a separate mortgage or encumbrance or other lien on his or her respective Unit. No Unit Owner shall have the right or authority to make or create, or to cause to be made or created, any mortgage or encumbrance or other lien on or affecting the Property or any part thereof, except only to the extent of his or her Unit ownership.

18. Real Estate Taxes. Real estate taxes, special assessments, and any other taxes or charges of the State of Illinois or any political subdivision thereof, or other lawful taxing or assessing body, which are authorized by law to be assessed against and levied upon any real property, shall be separately taxed to each Unit Owner for his or her Unit and its corresponding percentage of ownership of the Common Elements, as provided in the Act. In the event that for any year such taxes are not separately taxed to each Unit Owner but are taxed to the Property as a whole, then each Unit Owner shall pay his or her proportionate share thereof in accordance with his or her respective percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. Upon authorization by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members of the Board or by the affirmative vote of not less than a Majority of the total number of Unit Owners at a meeting duly called for such purpose, the Board, acting on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have the power to seek relief from or in connection with the assessment or levy of any such taxes, special assessments or charges upon the Units, and to charge and collect all expenses incurred in connection therewith as Common Expenses.

In the event of a taking or condemnation by competent authority of any part of the Property, the Association shall, if necessary, restore the improvements on the remaining portion of the Property to conform as closely as possible to the general design, structure and materials used with respect to the improvements as they existed before the taking or condemnation. Any proceeds or awards paid to the Association shall be applied first to the cost of any restoration, and any remaining portion of such proceeds shall be, in the sole discretion of the Board, either (i) applied to pay the Common Expenses; or (ii) distributed to the remaining Unit Owners based on their current percentages of ownership in the Common Elements. Each Unit Owner hereby appoints the Association as attorney-in-fact for the purpose of representing him or her in any condemnation proceedings or in negotiations, settlements and agreements with the condemning authority for acquisition of the Common Elements or any part thereof.

b. In the event that part or all of one or more Units is taken or condemned, then the portions so taken or condemned shall be deemed to have been removed from the provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration and the Act, and the court which has jurisdiction in the action shall adjust the percentages of interest in the Common Elements allocated to the remaining Units in a just and equitable manner and as provided under the Act. If the court fails to make such adjustment, such adjustment may be made by the Board. In such cases, the Association shall execute and Record an amendment to this Amended and Restated Declaration to reflect the removal of property and the adjustments, if any, in the percentages of ownership resulting from an occurrence covered by this Paragraph. The amendment shall be approved by the Board, executed by the President or other designated officer of the Association and attested to by the Secretary or other designated officer of the Association. The amendment shall be effective as of the effective date of the taking or condemnation. From and after the effective date of the amendment, the Owner of a Unit which is removed in part or in whole from the provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration shall only be liable for the payment of assessments based on the percentage of ownership, if any, allocated to the Unit in the amendment.

20. Maintenance, Repair and Replacement of Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Instruments, maintenance, repair, replacement and decorating of the Common Elements shall be furnished by the Board as part of the Common Expenses. However, with respect to a particular category or class of Limited Common Elements, the Association, in the Board's sole discretion, may (a) furnish the maintenance, repair, replacement or decorating as a Common Expense; (b) furnish such services but assess the costs thereof in whole or in part directly to the Unit Owners benefited thereby; or (c) require such Unit Owners to furnish such services to the Limited Common Elements serving their respective Units at their own cost and expense and to procure and deliver to the Association such lien waivers, contractors' and subcontractors' sworn statements and/or other documentation as may be required to protect the Property from all mechanics or materialmen's lien claims that may arise therefrom.

21. Maintenance, Repair and Replacement by Unit Owners.

a. Each Unit Owner shall furnish and be responsible, at his or her sole cost and expense, for any and all maintenance, inspection, repair, replacement, restoration, painting, staining, refinishing, decorating and cleaning within his or her Unit, including, without limitation, work upon wall and floor coverings, paneling, molding, trim, tile, wallpaper, paint, finished flooring, carpeting, draperies, window shades, other window coverings, sinks, bathtubs, toilets and other bathroom fixtures, cabinets, refrigerators, ranges, dishwashers, garbage disposals and other kitchen appliances, humidifiers, water heaters, security systems, lighting, electrical and plumbing fixtures, any portion of any other utility service facilities situated entirely within a Unit and serving only such Unit, and other furnishings and interior decorating within a Unit. Each Unit Owner shall be obligated to maintain and keep his or her own Unit in good, clean order and repair and to conduct regular inspections of the Unit so as to maintain it in a first-class condition. Upon the request of a Unit Owner, the Board may (but shall have no obligation to), in its discretion, cause maintenance services to be performed within a Unit or to the Limited Common Elements serving a Unit and may charge a fee for such services.

b. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, the interior surfaces of all windows forming part of a perimeter wall of a Unit and all portions of perimeter doors (including, without limitation, balcony and patio doors) forming part of a perimeter wall of a Unit shall be properly and diligently maintained, inspected, repaired, replaced, cleaned and washed by each respective Unit Owner at his or her sole cost and expense. Without limiting the foregoing, unless otherwise determined by the Board, each Unit Owner shall be individually responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of all door locks, hinges, door knockers, doorbells and other hardware and similar items with respect to which each Unit Owner is entitled to the exclusive use thereof.

c. Each Unit Owner shall be required to maintain and pay for such utility services as may be separately metered or billed to each Unit by the respective utility companies and as may be required to protect the integrity of the Common Elements and the other Units.

d. If the act or omission of a Unit Owner or Occupant or guest, family member, invitee, licensee, contractor, visitor or pet of a Unit Owner or Occupant shall cause damage to the Common Elements or to a Unit or Units owned by others, or maintenance, repairs or replacements shall be required that would otherwise be at Common Expense (regardless of whether such act or omission was intentional or negligent), then such Unit Owner shall pay for such damage and such maintenance, repairs and replacements as may be determined by the Board. To the extent permitted by law, nothing herein shall be deemed to require the Association to submit to its insurance carrier claims for such damage and such maintenance, repairs and replacements. In the event the Board reasonably declines to submit such claims, the Board may, in its sole discretion, charge all costs associated with the claims to the responsible Unit Owner and, until paid by such Unit Owner, such costs shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

e. Whenever the Board shall determine, in its sole discretion, that any maintenance, repair or replacement of any Unit or Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto is necessary to protect the Common Elements or any other Unit, the Board may direct such Unit Owner to perform the work and to pay the cost thereof or cause the work to be done and charge the cost thereof to such Unit Owner and, until paid by such Unit Owner, such cost shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses. No Unit Owner shall have a claim against the Association or the Board for any work which is ordinarily the responsibility of the Association but which the Unit Owner himself or herself has performed or caused to be performed.

f. A Unit Owner shall be strictly liable for any claim, damage or judgment entered as a result of the use or operation of his or her Unit, or caused by his or her own conduct, the conduct of the Unit Owner's Occupants or the conduct of a guest, family member, invitee, licensee, contractor, visitor or pet of a Unit Owner or Occupant. Costs incurred by the Association in connection with such strict liability shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

22. Additions, Alterations or Improvements. Except as required by law or otherwise expressly provided in this Amended and Restated Declaration or the Bylaws, no additions, alterations or improvements shall be made by a Unit Owner to any part of the Common Elements (including the Limited Common Elements), and no additions, alterations or improvements shall be made by a Unit Owner to his Unit where such work alters a bearing wall or partition, configuration, perimeter doors or windows or otherwise affects the structure of the Unit or the structural integrity or systems of a Building or increases the cost of insurance required to be carried by the Board hereunder, without the prior written consent of the Board and then only in accordance with Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions adopted by the Board. Further, any addition, alteration or improvement of a Unit by the Unit Owner that shall affect the structure of the Unit or the Common Elements, the structural integrity of a Building or the exterior appearance of a Building shall conform to all plans, specifications and/or other information which the Association, in the Board's sole discretion, may require the Unit Owner to submit. The Board may require that such plans, specifications and/or other information be prepared or reviewed and approved by an architectural firm, engineering firm or other professionals selected or approved by the Board. The costs of such plans, specifications and/or other documentation or review and approval thereof (including, without limitation, architects' fees, engineers' fees and/or legal fees) shall be paid by the Unit Owner. The Board may (but shall not be required to) condition its consent to the making of an addition, alteration or improvement by a Unit Owner on the Unit Owner's agreement either to be solely responsible for the maintenance of such addition, alteration or improvement, subject to such standards as the Board may from time to time set or to pay to the Association from time to time the additional costs of maintenance or insurance as a result of the addition, alteration or improvement. If an addition, alteration or improvement is made by a Unit Owner without the prior written consent of the Board, then the Board may, in its sole discretion, take any of the following actions, which actions shall not be exclusive of the remedies generally available to the Board under the Condominium Instruments and applicable law:

- a. Require the Unit Owner to remove the addition, alteration or improvement and restore the Property to its previously existing condition, all at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense;
- b. If the Unit Owner refuses or fails to properly perform the work required under clause (a) above, the Board may cause the work to be done and may charge the Unit Owner for the costs thereof as determined by the Board (with the costs constituting the personal obligation of the Unit Owner and continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and being collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses; or
- c. Ratify the action taken by the Unit Owner and the Board may (but shall not be obligated to) condition such ratification on the same conditions that it may impose on the giving of its prior consent under this Paragraph.

23. Adjoining Units. A Unit Owner owning two (2) or more Units shall have the right, subject to the provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration and the Rules and Regulations and resolutions of the Association and on such conditions as shall reasonably be determined by the Board, to remove or otherwise alter any intervening partition, so long as the action does not weaken, impair or endanger any other Unit or any portion of the Common Elements. The Unit Owner shall notify the Board of the nature of the removal at least ten (10) days before the commencement of any such alteration.

24. Handicapped Access. Until determined by a legislative body, administrative agency or court of law having proper jurisdiction, the Common Elements shall not be subject to the public facility requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. To the extent required to conform to the Federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988 and/or other applicable law, a Unit Owner may, at his or her sole cost and expense, make reasonable modifications to the Common Elements or the Limited Common Elements serving his or her Unit, subject to the following:

UNOFFICIAL COPY

- a. All modifications must be approved by the Board prior to the commencement of construction.
- b. The Board may request that all requests for modifications be submitted in written form. However, the Association will give appropriate consideration to reasonable modification requests made orally.
- c. In cases in which a Unit Owner's or Occupant's disability is not obvious or otherwise known to the Association or if the Unit Owner's or Occupant's need for a modification is not readily apparent or known, the Board may require that a Unit Owner or Occupant provide additional information specifying the general nature of the disability, describing the requested modification and/or describing how the requested modification is necessary to provide an equal opportunity for a Unit Owner or Occupant to use and enjoy the Property.
- d. The Board may require that the Unit Owner provide copies of plans, specifications, drawings, certifications and/or other reasonable documentation describing and/or depicting the proposed modifications.
- e. The Board may establish reasonable guidelines for construction of any proposed modification and may require that the Unit Owner provide reasonable assurances that the construction will be performed in a good and workmanlike manner.
- f. The Board may require the Unit Owner to obtain and furnish adequate proof of any required building permits, mechanics lien waivers and other documentation customarily furnished in connection with construction projects.
- g. All modifications shall be constructed by properly insured and licensed contractors (where such insurance and licenses would otherwise be required for the proposed modification), and the Board may require that the Unit Owner furnish adequate proof of such insurance and licenses.
- h. To the extent permitted by law and depending on the nature and location of the modification, the Board may require that, after completion, the modification will be maintained as necessary by the Unit Owner, at his or her sole cost and expense, in a safe and attractive condition.

25. Insurance.

- a. The Board shall have the authority to and shall obtain insurance for the Association as follows:
 - (i) Property Insurance. The Association shall obtain and maintain property insurance:

(aa) On the Common Elements and the Units, including the Limited Common Elements and the bare walls, floors and ceilings of the Units;

(cc) Providing coverage, at the time the insurance is purchased and at each renewal date, in a total amount of not less than the full insurable replacement cost of the insured property, less deductibles, but including coverage sufficient to rebuild the insured property in compliance with building code requirements subsequent to an insured loss, including the following: Coverage B, demolition costs and Coverage C, increased cost of construction coverage. The combined total of Coverage B and Coverage C shall be no less than ten percent (10%) of each insured building value, or $500,000, whichever is less.

(ii) General Liability Insurance. The Association shall obtain and maintain commercial general liability insurance against claims and liabilities arising in connection with the ownership, existence, use or management of the Property in a minimum amount of $1,000,000, or a greater amount deemed sufficient in the judgment of the Board, insuring the Board, the Association, the managing agent and their respective employees and agents and all persons acting as agents. The Unit Owners must be included as additional insured parties but only for claims and liabilities arising in connection with the ownership, existence, use or management of the Common Elements. The insurance must cover claims of one or more insured parties against other insured parties.

(iii) Fidelity Bond.

(aa) The Association shall obtain and maintain a fidelity bond. The fidelity bond shall cover the Association's property manager, the management company with whom the property manager is employed during the term of the fidelity bond and all partners, officers and employees of the management company, as well as the Association Board members, officers and employees. The fidelity bond shall be in the full amount of funds in the custody or control of the Association and the management company, including, without limitation, the Association Reserve fund.

(bb) The insurance company issuing the fidelity bond may not cancel or refuse to renew the bond without giving not less than ten (10) days' prior written notice to the Association.

(cc) The Association shall secure and pay for the fidelity bond.

(iv) Directors and Officers Coverage. The Board shall obtain and maintain directors and officers liability coverage at a level deemed reasonable by the Board. Directors and officers liability coverage must extend to all contracts and other actions taken by the Board members in their official capacity as directors and officers, but this coverage shall exclude actions for which the Board members are not entitled to indemnification under the Illinois General Not For Profit Corporation Act of 1986, this Amended and Restated Declaration and the Bylaws. The coverage required by this Paragraph 25(a)(iv) shall include, but not be limited to, coverage of the following: defense of non-monetary actions; defense of breach of contract; and defense of decisions related to the placement or adequacy of insurance. The coverage required by this Paragraph 25(a)(iv) shall include as an insured the following parties: past, present and future Board members while acting in their capacity as members of the Board; the managing agent; and employees of the Board and the managing agent.

(v) Other Coverage. The Association shall have the authority to obtain and maintain such other insurance including, without limitation, umbrella liability insurance in excess of the required general liability insurance in an amount deemed sufficient in the judgment of the Board, workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance in amounts deemed sufficient in the judgment of the Board and as necessary to comply with applicable law (including voluntary compensation to cover employees not covered under the Illinois statute for benefits), errors and omissions coverage for the Board members, employment practices coverage, flood insurance, environmental hazards coverage, plate glass and equipment breakdown coverage and medical payments coverage for members of the public (not Unit Owners) injured on the Property without regard to liability of the Board or the Association, as the Board considers necessary or appropriate to protect the Association or the Unit Owners, Board members, officers, employees and/or agents of the Association.

b. The insurance maintained pursuant to Paragraph 25(a)(i) herein must include the Units, the Limited Common Elements (except as otherwise determined by the Board) and the Common Elements. The insurance need not cover improvements and betterments to the Units installed by Unit Owners, but if improvements and betterments are covered, any increased cost may be assessed by the Association against the Units affected. Common elements include fixtures located within the unfinished interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings of the individual Units initially installed by the developer of the Property. Common Elements exclude floor, wall and ceiling coverings. "Improvements and betterments" means all decorating, fixtures and furnishings installed or added to and located within the boundaries of the Unit, including electrical fixtures, appliances, air conditioning and heating equipment, water heaters or built-in cabinets installed by Unit Owners, or any other additions, alterations or upgrades installed or purchased by any Unit Owner.

c. The Board shall have the right to select substantial deductibles to the insurance coverages required or permitted under this Paragraph if the economic savings justify the additional risk and if permitted by law. The Board may, in the case of a claim for damage to a Unit or the Common Elements:

- (i) Pay the deductible amount as a Common Expense;
- (ii) After notice and an opportunity for a hearing, assess the deductible amount against the Unit Owner(s) who caused the damage or from whose Unit(s) the damage or cause of loss originated; or
- (iii) Require the Owner(s) of the Unit(s) affected to pay the deductible amount.

d. Insurance policies maintained pursuant to Paragraph 25(a) and Paragraph 25(b) herein must include each of the following provisions:

- (i) Each Unit Owner and secured party is an insured person under the policy with respect to liability arising out of the Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements or membership in the Association;
- (ii) The insurer waives its right to subrogation under the policy against any Unit Owner of the condominium or members of the Unit Owner's household and against the Association and Board members; and
- (iii) The Unit Owner waives his or her right to subrogation under the Association policy against the Association and the Board.

e. If at the time of a loss under a policy maintained by the Association hereunder there is other insurance in the name of a Unit Owner covering the same property covered by the policy, the Association's policy shall be the primary insurance.

f. Any loss covered by the property policy under Paragraph 25(a)(i) herein must be adjusted by and with the Association. The insurance proceeds for that loss must be payable to the Association or to an insurance trustee designated by the Association for that purpose. The insurance trustee or the Association must hold any insurance proceeds in trust for Unit Owners and secured parties as their interests may appear. The proceeds must be disbursed first for the repair or restoration of the damaged Common Elements, the bare walls, ceilings and floors of the Units, and then to any improvements and betterments the Association may insure. Unit Owners are not entitled to receive any portion of the proceeds unless there is a surplus of proceeds after the Common Elements and Units have been completely repaired or restored or the Association has been terminated as trustee.

g. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for obtaining and maintaining physical damage insurance on the wall, floor and ceiling coverings, decorating, painting, furniture, appliances, furnishings and personal property in his or her Unit and elsewhere on the Property (including, without limitation, vehicles) and any improvements and betterments to his or her Unit, for his or her personal liability and for his or her additional living expense. The Board shall not be responsible for obtaining or maintaining any insurance for which Unit Owners are responsible hereunder.

h. All Unit Owners shall obtain insurance covering their personal liability and compensatory (but not consequential) damages to another Unit caused by the negligence of the Unit Owner or his or her guests, residents or invitees or, regardless of any negligence originating from the Unit. The personal liability of a Unit Owner or Association member must include the deductible of the Unit Owner whose Unit was damaged, any damage not covered by insurance required by this Paragraph, as well as the decorating, painting, wall, floor and ceiling coverings, trim, appliances, equipment and other furnishings. If the Unit Owner does not purchase insurance required by the Board and provide copies of certificates of insurance and/or other documentation deemed sufficient by the Board in its sole discretion evidencing the required coverage, the Board may, after providing notice and an opportunity for a violation hearing, impose single or continuing fines against a Unit Owner who fails to purchase and/or produce evidence of such liability insurance deemed sufficient by the Board in its sole discretion.

i. Contractors and vendors (except public utilities) doing business with the Association under contracts exceeding $10,000 per year must provide certificates of insurance naming the Association, the Board and the Association's managing agent as additional insured parties.

j. Any insurer defending a liability claim against the Association must notify the Association of the terms of the settlement no less than ten (10) days before settling the claim. The Association may not veto the settlement unless otherwise provided by contract or statute.

k. Each Unit Owner hereby waives and releases any and all claims which the Unit Owner may have against any other Unit Owner, the Association, its officers, members of the Board, the community management firm, community manager and/or managing agent of the Association, and their respective employees and agents, for damage to the Common Elements, the Units, or to any personal property located in the Units or Common Elements, caused by fire or other casualty, to the extent that such damage is covered by fire or other form of casualty insurance.

26. Sale of Units/Right of First Refusal.

a. Any Unit Owner who wishes to sell his or her Unit to any Person shall first obtain from the proposed purchaser a bona fide executed offer in writing setting forth all the terms and conditions of said proposed transaction. The offer shall be expressly subject to the terms of this Paragraph. If any Unit Owner receives such an offer that he or she intends to accept, he or she shall accept such offer only subject to the terms of this Paragraph and give written notice to the Association of such offer and acceptance, stating the name and address of such proposed purchaser, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Association may reasonably require and shall furnish a copy of such executed offer and acceptance to the Association. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the giver thereof that he or she believes such offer and all information contained in the notice to be bona fide, true, and correct in all respects. During the period of forty-five (45) days following receipt by the Association of such written notice, the Association shall have the first right and option to purchase such Unit (or to cause the same to be purchased by any designee, nominee or assignee, corporate or otherwise, of the Association) on the same terms and conditions as stated in the aforesaid notice received by the Association. If the Association shall give written notice to the Unit Owner within said forty-five (45) day period of the exercise of its first right and option, the transaction between the Unit Owner and the Association or its designee shall be consummated on the same terms as set forth in the notice to the Association. If the Association shall give written notice to the Unit Owner within said forty-five (45) day period that it has elected not to exercise such first right and option or if the Association shall fail to give any notice within said forty-five (45) day period, then the proposed transaction, as described and set forth in the notice to the Association may be consummated within sixty (60) days after the expiration of said forty-five (45) day period. If the Unit Owner fails to consummate such transaction within such sixty (60) day period, then such Unit and all rights with respect thereto shall again become subject to the first right and option of the Association as herein provided.

b. The terms of this Paragraph and the first right and option herein provided for shall not be applicable to the following:

(i) The transfer or conveyance of title to a Unit from a Unit Owner to a land trust, provided that the Unit Owner retains the beneficial interest in such land trust, or from a land trust to the beneficiary of the land trust;

(ii) The transfer or conveyance of title to a Unit from a Unit Owner to a living trust, provided that the Unit Owner is designated as the trustee under such living trust and retains such designation, or from a living trust to the trustee thereof;

UNOFFICIAL COPY

(iii) The transfer or conveyance, by operation of law or otherwise, of the interest of a co-Owner of any Unit to any other co-Owner of the same Unit, when such Persons hold (or after consummation of the transfer, will hold) title to such Unit as tenants in common, joint tenants or tenants by the entirety;

(iv) The transfer or conveyance, by operation of law or otherwise, of the interest of a co-owner of the beneficial interest in a land trust holding title to a Unit to any other co-owner of such beneficial interest;

(v) The transfer or conveyance, by operation of law or otherwise, of the interest of a co-trustee under a living trust holding title to a Unit to any other co-trustee of such living trust;

(vi) The transfer by sale or otherwise of any Unit or interest therein to or for the sole benefit of any spouse, descendant, ancestor or sibling (or the spouse of any such person) of the transferor;

(vii) The transfer by gift or devise of the Unit or interest therein;

(viii) The transfer of the Unit or interest therein to a beneficiary under a living trust;

(ix) The execution of a bona fide trust deed, mortgage or other security instrument; and

(x) The sale or conveyance of a Unit by the holder of a mortgage or trust deed who has acquired title to such Unit by deed in lieu of foreclosure, foreclosure of the mortgage or trust deed or by any other remedy set forth in the mortgage or trust deed, provided such holder is a bank, financial institution, insurance company or like institutional mortgagee.

c. Acquisition of Units or interests therein under the provisions of this Paragraph shall be made from the Maintenance Fund. If said fund is insufficient, the Association may levy a separate (special) assessment against each Unit Owner, including the Owner of the Unit that is to be acquired by the Association, in the ratio that his or her percentage of ownership in the Common Elements bears to the total of such percentages applicable to Units subject to the separate assessment, which assessment shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses. Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Bylaws, the Association may borrow money to finance the acquisition of Units, which acquisition is authorized by this Paragraph.

d. The rights and options contained in this Paragraph may be released or waived by the Board, and the Unit or interest therein that is subject to the right and option of the Association set forth in this Paragraph may thereafter be sold or conveyed free and clear of the provisions of this Paragraph.

e. Upon the written request of any Unit Owner, the Association, by its Secretary or duly authorized agent, shall issue a written and acknowledged certificate evidencing:

(i) That the provisions of this Paragraph have been complied with or duly waived by the Association and that the first right and option of the Association has been terminated, if such is the fact; or

(ii) That any conveyance or deed is, by the terms hereof, not subject to the provisions of this Paragraph, if such is the fact;

and such a certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts contained therein.

f. To implement the provisions of this Paragraph, the Board may adopt Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions from time to time not inconsistent with the provisions of this Paragraph. If any sale of a Unit is made or attempted by any Unit Owner without complying with the provisions of this Paragraph or any Rules and Regulations or resolutions adopted by the Board, the provisions of this Paragraph shall remain in full force and effect, and such sale shall remain subject to each and all of the rights and options of the Board contained herein.

27. Association's Purchase or Sale of Unit. The Board shall not purchase or sell a Unit without the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners representing not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the total vote of the Association at a meeting duly called for that purpose. The Board may bid to purchase at any sale of a Unit where such sale is held pursuant to an order or direction of a court upon the prior consent of the aforesaid Unit Owners where such consent sets forth a maximum price which the Board is authorized to bid and pay for such Unit. If the requisite consent is obtained, any Unit purchase or sale transaction shall be exercised by the Board solely for the use and benefit of all Unit Owners, including the minority of Unit Owners not consenting to the transaction.

28. Leasing of Units.

a. Definition of Terms. For the purposes of this Paragraph 28, the terms "rental" and "leasing" shall include any arrangement in which a Unit Owner does not reside in his or her Unit and allows one or more other Persons to reside therein, regardless of whether the Occupant or Occupants pay rent to the Unit Owner. In the event that a Unit Owner is a land trust, the holder or holders of the beneficial interest in the land trust shall be deemed to be the Unit Owner for the purposes of this Paragraph 28. In the event that a Unit Owner is a living trust, the trustee or co-trustees of the living trust shall be deemed to be the Unit Owner for the purposes of this Paragraph 28. In the event that a Unit Owner is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other legal entity not mentioned above capable of holding title to real property, the shareholders of the corporation, the members of the partnership, the members of the limited liability company, or the persons having an equity interest in such other entity shall be deemed to be the Unit Owner for the purposes of this Paragraph 28. In the event there is more than one Unit Owner of record, only one such Unit Owner shall be required to occupy his or her Unit as provided herein. To the extent any provisions in this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations conflict with any provisions in this Paragraph 28, this Paragraph 28 shall control.

b. Initial Residency Requirement/"Grandfather" Exemption.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated in this Amended and Restated Declaration or the Bylaws, except as otherwise provided in this Paragraph 28, the rental or leasing of Units shall be prohibited during the first (1st) five (5) years after a Unit Owner has acquired or acquires title to or a beneficial interest in a Unit. Without limiting the foregoing, Unit Owners who commenced ownership of their Units on or before April 15, 2009 shall be permitted to lease their Units in accordance with this Paragraph 28.

c. Family Member Exemption. A Unit Owner need not be an Occupant of his or her Unit if a member of the Unit Owner's "Immediate Family" (strictly defined for the purposes of this Paragraph 28 as natural individuals who, by blood, marriage, adoption and/or operation of law, are a Unit Owner's grandmother, grandfather, mother, father, sister, brother, daughter, son, granddaughter or grandson) resides in the Unit. Persons who are not related to a Unit Owner may reside in a Unit with the Unit Owner or a member of the Unit Owner's Immediate Family. The Association shall have the authority to require that a Unit Owner provide documentation and/or other information adequately verifying that an individual qualifies as an Immediate Family member (including, but not limited to, true and correct copies of government records such as birth certificates, adoption records, driver's licenses, passports, military identification records and marriage licenses). For the purposes of this Paragraph 28, decisions regarding whether such verification is adequate shall be made by the Board in its sole discretion.

d. Hardship Exemption. If a written request setting forth how the five (5) year initial residency requirement for the leasing of Units established in Paragraph 28(b) above causes a hardship to the Unit Owner is submitted to the Association, a hardship exemption to the five (5) year initial residency requirement may be granted by the Board. Reasons for such a hardship may include, without limitation, illness, death, loss of employment, job relocation or military service of the Unit Owner or the Unit Owner's spouse. In the event the Board determines in its sole discretion that a hardship exists and that granting a hardship exemption would be appropriate, the Board may grant permission for the Unit to be leased for a period of time not to exceed two (2) years. Thereafter, the Unit Owner must reapply for hardship status in order for his or her Unit to remain occupied pursuant to a hardship exemption. The Board shall be under no obligation whatsoever to grant such requested hardship status or any continuation thereof. The Board shall have the authority to adopt Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions from time to time establishing guidelines and procedures for the submission and evaluation of hardship requests.

e. Lease Terms.

(i) No portion of a Unit which is less than the entire Unit shall be leased.

(ii) Occupancy of any Unit is subject to any local ordinances governing the number of Occupants in the Unit.

(iii) No Unit shall be leased for hotel purposes, such as where services normally furnished by a hotel (such as room service or maid service) are furnished.

(iv) Any lease permitted under this Paragraph 28 and executed or renewed after April 15, 2014 shall be in writing, shall contain fixed beginning and ending dates, shall have a term of not less than one (1) year and shall expressly provide that the lease shall be subject to the terms of this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and resolutions of the Association and that any failure of a tenant to comply with the terms of this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and/or the resolutions of the Association shall constitute a default under the lease.

(v) The Unit Owner shall deliver to the Board a true and correct copy of any such fully executed lease (including any renewal thereof), as well as such other information as the Board may prescribe through Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions, not later than occupancy or ten (10) days after the lease is signed, whichever occurs first. Failure to deliver a copy of the lease as provided herein may, in the Board's sole discretion and without limitation, result in the revocation of the Unit Owner's right to lease his or her Unit.

f. No Avoidance of Covenants. No leasing or allowing someone other than the Unit Owner to reside in his or her Unit shall relieve the Unit Owner from the obligations imposed upon him or her or his or her Unit pursuant to this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and Board resolutions. A Unit Owner shall remain primarily liable for these obligations.

g. Remedies for Leasing Violations. In addition to the authority to levy flat or continuing fines against a Unit Owner for violation of this Paragraph 28 or any other provision of this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws or the Rules and Regulations, the Board shall have all rights and remedies available under applicable law, including, without limitation, the right to maintain an action for possession against the Unit Owner and/or his or her tenants or Occupants under the forcible entry and detainer provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, an action for injunctive and/or other equitable relief and/or an action at law for damages. Any and all unpaid charges incurred in connection with the foregoing (regardless of whether litigation is initiated by any party), including, without limitation, fines, attorneys' fees, court costs, title company charges, management company charges, Recording fees and late fees, shall be deemed a part of the Unit Owner's respective share of the Common Expenses, be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien against the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectible in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessment or other Common Expense.

h. Association Exemption. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Paragraph 28, neither Units owned by the Association nor leases entered into by the Association pursuant to the forcible entry and detainer provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure and/or other applicable law shall be subject to the leasing restrictions contained herein.

29. Use and Occupancy. No part of the Property shall be used for other than housing and the related common purposes for which the Property was designed. Each Unit shall be used for residential purposes or such other uses permitted by the Condominium Instruments and for no other purposes and shall be used in strict compliance with all Village ordinances and/or other governmental requirements related to the use and/or occupancy of property. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Paragraph, Units owned by and/or in possession of the Association or its nominees may be used for any lawful purposes deemed appropriate by the Association in the Board's sole discretion.

30. Residential Use. Except as provided herein, each Unit shall be used only as a residence or for such other purposes permitted by the Condominium Instruments. No industry, business, trade, occupation or profession of any kind or similar activity which would generate traffic, noise, odors, refuse, advertising and/or other incidentals of operating a business which could disturb the other Unit Owners and Occupants, detract from the appearance and residential character of the Property, increase exposure to liability, increase insurance rates and/or lower property values shall be conducted, maintained or permitted on any part of the Property by any Unit Owner or Occupant. However, no Unit Owner or Occupant shall be precluded with respect to his or her Unit from (a) maintaining a personal professional library thereon; (b) keeping his or her personal business or professional records or accounts thereon; or (c) handling his or her business or professional telephone calls or correspondence therefrom. Such uses are expressly declared customarily incident to the principal residential use and not in violation of such restriction. In all instances, the decision of the Board as to whether particular business activities are prohibited shall be final. The foregoing covenants of this Paragraph shall not apply to the activities of the Association and its nominees, employees and agents.

31. Obstruction of Common Elements/Proscribed Activities.

a. There shall be no obstruction of the Common Elements, nor shall anything be stored in the Common Elements without the prior consent of the Board, except as herein expressly provided. Nothing shall be altered or constructed in or removed from the Common Elements without the prior written consent of the Association. The Common Elements shall be kept free and clear of rubbish, debris and other unsightly materials and articles of personal property.

b. No clothes, sheets, blankets, laundry of any kind or other similar articles shall be hung out on any part of the Common Elements except as permitted by Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board. The display of the American flag or a military flag (or both) shall be allowed on or within the Limited Common Elements or in the immediately adjacent exterior of the Building where the Unit of a Unit Owner is located, subject to the Rules and Regulations and resolutions of the Association and applicable state and federal law.

c. The foregoing covenants of this Paragraph shall not apply to the activities of the Association and its agents.

32. Signs. No sign of any kind or other form of solicitation or advertising or window display (including, without limitation, "For Sale" and "For Rent" signs) shall be permitted on the Property except at such location and in such form as may be prescribed by the Board. The Board may adopt Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions further regulating the placement of signs on the Property.

33. Antennas. No mast, satellite dish, antenna or other structure for transmitting or receiving messages or programs by radio or television shall be erected, permitted or maintained in or upon any part of the Common Elements of the Property without the prior written approval of the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, satellite dishes one (1) meter or less and antennas designed to receive local television broadcast signals may be erected and maintained on those portions of the Property under the exclusive use and control of a Unit Owner, subject to Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions adopted from time to time by the Board. Antennas must not extend beyond a Unit Owner's exclusive-use area or encroach upon any portion of the Common Elements or another Unit Owner's Unit or Limited Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Board.

34. Animals. No animals shall be kept, raised or bred on or brought to the Property for commercial purposes (including, without limitation, boarding purposes). Customary domesticated animals of a breed or variety commonly kept as household pets may be kept in the Units. The Board may from time to time adopt Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions governing the conduct of pets. Any pet deemed by the Board, in its sole discretion, as causing or creating a nuisance or unreasonable disturbance shall be permanently removed from the Property, and the Board's decision shall be final.

35. Disposal of Trash. Unit Owners and Occupants shall dispose of trash, garbage and other waste in such areas and such receptacles as shall be designated by the Board.

36. Use Affecting Insurance. Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in the Common Elements that will increase the rate of insurance on the Property without the prior written consent of the Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of any insurance maintained by the Association or that would be in violation of any law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

37. Structural Impairment. Except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Instruments or permitted by applicable law, nothing shall be done in any Unit or in, on or to the Common Elements that would impair the structural integrity, safety or soundness of the Buildings or that would structurally change the Buildings. No Unit Owner or Occupant shall overload the plumbing, electric, or other mechanical or utility systems in a Building.

38. Nuisances. No noxious or offensive activity shall be carried on in any Unit or on any other portion of the Property, and nothing shall be done on the Property, either willfully or negligently, which shall in the sole judgment of the Board cause unreasonable annoyance or nuisance to other Unit Owners or Occupants. Without limiting the foregoing, no Unit Owner or Occupant shall operate any machines, appliances, accessories or equipment in such manner as to cause, in the judgment of the Board, an unreasonable disturbance to others.

39. Unit Keys. The Association reserves the right, but no affirmative obligation, to require that each Unit Owner deposit with the Association duplicate keys for all locks required for entry to his or her Unit.

40. Remedies for Breach or Violation. In the event of any violation by any Unit Owner (either by his or her own conduct or by the conduct of any Occupant or tenant, guest, licensee, invitee, family member, contractor or pet of a Unit Owner or Occupant) of the provisions of the Act, this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations and/or resolutions of the Association, the Association, or its successors or assigns, or the Board, or the Association's agents, shall have each and all of the rights and remedies which may be provided for in the Act, this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations and resolutions or which may be otherwise available by law, or any combination thereof, including, without limitation, the following:

a. Self Help. The power to enter the Unit or any portion of the Property on which, or as to which, such violation exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, personal property or condition that may exist thereon contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof. In such event, neither the Association, nor the Board members, officers, employees or agents thereof, shall thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass or liable for damages, provided, however, that where the violation involves an improvement located within the boundaries of a Unit, judicial proceedings shall be instituted before such improvement may be altered or demolished.

b. Involuntary Sale. The power to issue to the defaulting Unit Owner a ten (10) day notice in writing to terminate the rights of said defaulting Unit Owner to continue as a Unit Owner and to continue to occupy, use and control his or her Unit, and thereupon an action may be filed by the Association against said defaulting Unit Owner for a decree declaring the termination of said defaulting Unit Owner's right to occupy, use or control the Unit owned by him or her on account of said violation and ordering that all the right, title and interest of said defaulting Unit Owner in the Property shall be sold (subject to the lien of any existing mortgage) at a judicial sale upon such notice and other terms as the court shall determine equitable. The proceeds of any such judicial sale shall first be paid to discharge court costs, court reporter charges, attorneys' fees and all other expenses of the proceedings and sale, and all such items shall be taxed to such defaulting Unit Owner in the decree. Any balance of proceeds, after satisfaction of such charges and any unpaid assessments or other Common Expenses due hereunder or any liens, shall be paid to the defaulting Unit Owner. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the purchaser of the Unit thereupon shall be entitled to a deed to the Unit and to immediate possession of the Unit and may apply to the court for a writ of assistance for the purpose of acquiring such possession. It shall be a condition of any such sale, and the decree shall so provide, that the purchaser shall take the Unit so purchased subject to the Condominium Instruments, as amended from time to time.

c. Fines. The power to levy a single or continuing fine (including, without limitation, daily fines). The Association shall not impose a fine unless (i) it has first provided to the Unit Owner alleged to have violated any provision of the Act, this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations or resolutions of the Association notice and an opportunity for a violation hearing before the Board or a duly authorized commission; and (ii) the Board shall have determined such allegations to be true.

d. Eviction. The right to take possession of such Unit Owner's interest in the Property and to maintain an action for possession of such Unit in the manner prescribed by the forcible entry and detainer provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, as amended from time to time.

e. Other Remedies. The right to prosecute any action or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, against such defaulting Unit Owner and others for enforcement or foreclosure of the Association's lien, the appointment of a receiver for the Unit, money damages, injunction, specific performance, and any other relief.

f. Costs and Expenses. Any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Association in connection with or attributable to a violation and/or the exercise of its authority as granted in this Paragraph, including, but not limited to, court costs, Recording fees, attorneys' fees, title company charges, management company charges, and other costs of labor and materials, shall be paid by the Unit Owner in violation and/or to whom the act or omission giving rise to enforcement is attributable and, until paid by such Unit Owner, shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

g. Cumulative Remedies. Any and all rights and remedies may be exercised at any time and from time to time, cumulatively or otherwise, by the Association or the Board. No terms, obligations, covenants, conditions, restrictions, liens, charges or provisions imposed hereby or contained herein shall be deemed abrogated, abandoned or waived by any failure to enforce or delay in enforcing them, no matter how many violations or breaches may occur and regardless of any delays in enforcement.

41. Rights and Obligations of Mortgagees.

a. Notice to Mortgagees. Upon written request to the Association, the holder of any duly recorded mortgage or trust deed against any Unit shall be given a copy of any and all notices permitted or required by the Condominium Instruments to be given to the Unit Owner whose Unit is subject to such mortgage or trust deed.

b. Duty to Pay Assessments. The purchaser of a Unit at a judicial foreclosure sale, or a mortgagee who receives title to a Unit by deed in lieu of foreclosure or judgment by common law strict foreclosure or otherwise takes possession pursuant to court order under the Illinois Mortgage Foreclosure Law, shall have the duty to pay the Unit's proportionate share of the Common Expenses for the Unit assessed from and after the first (1st) day of the month after the date of the judicial foreclosure sale, delivery of the deed in lieu of foreclosure, entry of a judgment in common law strict foreclosure, or taking of possession pursuant to such court order. Such payment confirms the extinguishment of any lien created by virtue of the failure or refusal of a prior Unit Owner to make payment of Common Expenses, where the judicial foreclosure sale has been confirmed by order of the court, a deed in lieu thereof has been accepted by the lender, or a consent judgment has been entered by the court. The purchaser of a Unit at a judicial foreclosure sale, other than a mortgagee, who takes possession of a Unit pursuant to a court order or a purchaser who acquires title from a mortgagee shall have the duty to pay the proportionate share, if any, of the Common Expenses (including, without limitation, any legal fees) for the Unit which would have become due in the absence of any assessment acceleration during the six (6) months immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the collection of assessments, and which remain unpaid by the Unit

Owner during whose possession the assessments accrued. If the outstanding assessments are paid at any time during any action to enforce the collection of assessments, the purchaser shall have no obligation to pay any assessments which accrued before he or she acquired title. The statement of assessment account issued by the Association to a Unit Owner under Subsection 18(i) of the Act, and the disclosure statement issued to a prospective purchaser under Section 22.1 of the Act, shall state the amount of the assessments and the legal fees, if any, required hereunder.

42. Severability. The invalidity of any restriction hereby imposed or of any provision hereof or of any part of such restriction or provision shall not impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remainder of this Amended and Restated Declaration. All of the terms hereof are hereby declared to be severable.

43. Construction. The provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules and Regulations and the resolutions of the Association shall be liberally construed to effectuate their purpose of creating a uniform plan for the administration and operation of a quality residential condominium development.

44. Board Determination Binding. In the event of any dispute or disagreement between any Unit Owners relating to the Property or any question of interpretation or application of the provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration, the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules and Regulations and the resolutions of the Association, the determination by the Board shall be final and binding on each and all of such Unit Owners.

45. Captions. The Paragraph headings herein are intended for convenience only and shall not be construed with any substantive effect.

46. Grantees. Each grantee, purchaser under articles of agreement for deed, mortgagee, tenant under a lease and any other Person having at any time any interest or estate in the Property accepts the same subject to all covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, liens, charges, rights, benefits and privileges which are hereby granted, created, reserved or declared, the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules and Regulations and the resolutions of the Association, and the jurisdiction, rights and powers created or reserved by the provisions of the Act, all as at any time amended. All covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, liens, charges, rights, benefits and privileges which are hereby granted, created, reserved or declared in this Amended and Restated Declaration and the other Condominium Instruments shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land, perpetually and in full force and effect, and shall bind and inure to the benefit of each grantee, contract purchaser, mortgagee, tenant or other Person having at any time an interest or estate in the Property in like manner as though the provisions of the Condominium Instruments were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed of conveyance, installment contract, lease, mortgage, trust deed or other instrument evidencing such interest or estate in the Property.

47. Perpetuities and Restraints on Alienation. If and to the extent that any of the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, liens, charges, rights, benefits and privileges created by this Amended and Restated Declaration would otherwise be unlawful, void or voidable for violation of (a) the rule against perpetuities; (b) the rule restricting restraints on alienation; or (c) any other applicable statutes or common law rules analogous thereto or otherwise imposing limitations upon the time such covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, liens, charges, rights, benefits and privileges may be valid, then the covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements, reservations, liens, charges, rights, benefits and privileges at issue shall continue and endure only until the expiration of a period of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last to survive of the class of persons consisting of all of the lawful descendants of the President of the United States in office at the time of Recording of this Amended and Restated Declaration who are living at the time of Recording of this Amended and Restated Declaration.

48. Land Trustee or other Entity as Unit Owner.

a. In the event title to any Unit is conveyed to a title holding trust, under the terms of which all powers of management, operation and control of the Unit remain vested in the trust beneficiary or beneficiaries, then the beneficiaries thereunder from time to time shall be responsible for payment of all assessments, liens and other charges made hereunder and for the performance of all agreements, covenants and undertakings chargeable or created under this Amended and Restated Declaration against such Unit. The amount of such assessments, liens and charges shall continue to be obligations or liens upon the Unit and the beneficiaries of such trust notwithstanding any transfers of the beneficial interest of any such trust or any transfers of title to such Unit.

b. Upon the conveyance of title to any Unit to a title holding trust, corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other legal entity capable of holding title to real property, unless otherwise expressly agreed by the Association in the Board's sole discretion, the names and residence addresses of all trustees, co-trustees and beneficiaries of a trust, all shareholders of a corporation, all partners in a partnership, all members of a limited liability company, or all other persons having an equity interest in such other entity shall be disclosed to the Association. Such obligation to furnish information shall be of a continuing nature and shall include the obligation to provide the Association with written notice of any changes in such information within fourteen (14) days of such changes.

49. Amendment. The provisions of this Amended and Restated Declaration may be amended, changed, modified, enlarged or rescinded by a written instrument setting forth such amendment, change, modification, enlargement or rescission signed by the Board and the Unit Owners having at least three-fourths (3/4) of the total vote and containing an affidavit by an officer of the Association certifying that a copy of the amendment, change, modification, enlargement or rescission has been mailed by certified mail to all mortgagees having bona fide liens of record against any Unit, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of such affidavit. Any amendment, change, modification, enlargement or rescission shall be effective upon Recordation of such instrument in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois. No provision in this Amended and Restated Declaration may be amended, changed, modified, enlarged or rescinded so as to conflict with the provisions of the Act.

BYLAWS FOR

CONDOMINIUMS OF NORTHFIELD SQUARE

ARTICLE I

General Provisions

The Association is responsible for the overall administration of the Property through its duly elected Board of Managers. Whether or not incorporated, the Association shall have such powers, not inconsistent with the Illinois Condominium Property Act, as are now or may hereafter be granted by the Illinois General Not For Profit Corporation Act of 1986. The Association shall have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the Association is organized and to perform every other act not inconsistent with applicable law that may be appropriate to promote and attain the purposes set forth in the Condominium Property Act, the Condominium Instruments and the Articles of Incorporation. All capitalized terms used but not defined herein that are defined in the Amended and Restated Declaration of Condominium Ownership for Condominiums of Northfield Square (sometimes herein referred to as the "Amended and Restated Declaration" or the "Declaration") shall have the same meaning as ascribed to such terms in said document.

ARTICLE II

Registered Agent and Office

The Association shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Illinois a registered office and a registered agent whose office is identical with such registered office. The Association may have other offices within the State of Illinois as the Board may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE III

Members

Section 1. Classes of Members, Membership and Termination of Membership. The Association shall have one class of members. Each Unit Owner shall be a member of the Association, which membership shall terminate on the sale or other disposition of a Unit Owner's Unit, at which time the new Unit Owner automatically shall become a member of the Association. Such termination shall not relieve or release any former Unit Owner from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with the condominium or the Association during the period of such ownership and membership in the Association. Furthermore, such termination shall not impair any rights or remedies that the Association or others may have against a former Unit Owner arising from or in any way connected with such ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident to membership. Membership in the Association is not transferable or assignable, except as provided herein.

Section 2. Votes and Voting Rights.

- a. The total number of votes of all Unit Owners shall be one hundred (100). Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to his or her percentage of ownership interest in the Common Elements (as defined in the Amended and Restated Declaration).
- b. If a Unit is owned by more than one Person, or if the Unit Owner is a trust, corporation, partnership or other legal entity, the voting rights with respect to such Unit shall not be divided but shall be exercised as if the Unit Owner consisted of only one Person in accordance with the proxy or other written designation made by the Persons constituting such Unit Owner. If only one of the Persons constituting such Unit Owner is present, he or she shall be entitled to cast the votes allocated to the Unit. If more than one of the Persons constituting such Unit Owner are present, the votes allocated to the Unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of such Persons. Agreement by a majority in interest of such Persons shall be deemed to exist if any of the Persons casts the votes allocated to such Unit without protest being made promptly to the individual presiding over the meeting by any other Persons constituting the Unit Owner. With respect to Units owned by a land trust, a living trust, or other legal entity, the trustee, officer, manager or other duly authorized agent of the entity may designate, in writing, a person to cast votes on behalf of the Unit Owner, and a designation shall remain in effect until a subsequent document is filed with the Association.
- c. Any specified percentage of the Unit Owners, whether a Majority or otherwise, for the purposes of voting or for any other purpose, wherever provided in the Condominium Instruments, shall mean such percentage of the total number of votes hereinabove set forth. Such percentage shall be computed in the same manner as is a specified percentage of the Unit Owners of the condominium as provided in the Amended and Restated Declaration. When thirty percent (30%) or fewer of the Units, by number, possess over fifty percent (50%) in the aggregate of the votes as provided herein, any percentage vote of the Unit Owners specified herein or in the Amended and Restated Declaration shall require the specified percentage by number of Units rather than by percentage of interest in the Common Elements allocated to Units that would otherwise be applicable. There are no garage units or storage units classified as Units located on the Property.

Section 3. Installment Contracts. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event of a sale of a Unit, the purchaser of such Unit pursuant to an installment contract shall, during such times as he or she resides in the Unit, be counted toward a quorum for the purpose of election of members of the Board at any meeting of the Unit Owners called for the purpose of electing members of the Board and have the right to vote for the election of members of the Board and to be elected to and serve on the Board, unless the seller expressly retains in writing any or all of such rights. In no event may both the seller and purchaser be counted toward a quorum, be permitted to vote, or be elected to serve on the Board. Satisfactory evidence of the existence and terms of the installment contract as they relate to the subject matter of this Section shall be made available to the Association or its agents. "Installment Contract" shall have the same meaning as set forth in Section 1(e) of the Illinois Dwelling Unit Installment Contract Act, as amended from time to time.

If the election of members of the Board shall not be held when designated herein for any annual meeting or at any adjournment thereof, the Board shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the Unit Owners called as soon thereafter as it conveniently may be held.
- b. Once a quorum is established, it shall be deemed present throughout the meeting.

Section 6. Proxies. Except for votes cast by mail-in ballots or Acceptable Technological Means, and except as otherwise required by applicable law, at any meeting of the Unit Owners, a Unit Owner entitled to vote may vote either in person or by proxy, executed in writing by the Unit Owner or by his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact. Proxies shall be revocable at any time by actual notice to the Board of the death or judicially-declared incompetence of the Unit Owner or by written notice to the Board by the Unit Owner. Proxies may be Delivered to the Board, the Association's community management firm or other duly authorized agents of the Association by Electronic Transmission or other Acceptable Technological Means, provided that the Board can establish to its satisfaction that such proxy was authorized by the Unit Owner.

Such deadline shall be no more than seven (7) days before the ballots or instructions for voting using Acceptable Technological Means are distributed to Unit Owners. Every ballot or instruction notice must include the names of all candidates who have given the Board or its authorized agent timely written notice of their candidacy and must give the Person casting the ballot or voting through Acceptable Technological Means the opportunity to cast votes for candidates whose names do not appear on the ballot. A Unit Owner who submits a vote by mail or using Acceptable Technological Means may request and cast a ballot in person at the election meeting, thereby voiding any vote previously submitted by that Unit Owner.

Any other materials, supplies, furniture, labor, services, maintenance, repairs or alterations that the Association in the Board's sole discretion deems necessary or proper for the maintenance and operation of the Property or for the enforcement of any restrictions or provisions contained herein.
- e. Any amount necessary to discharge any mechanics lien or other encumbrance levied against the Property. When one or more Unit Owners are responsible for the existence of such lien, they shall be jointly and severally liable for the cost of discharging the lien, and any costs incurred by the Association by reason of said lien shall be charged to the assessment accounts of said Unit Owners and shall, until paid by such Unit Owners, be the personal obligation of the Unit Owners, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owners' Units and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.
- f. Maintenance and repair of any Unit or any other portion of the Property that a Unit Owner is obligated to maintain or repair under the terms hereof, if such maintenance or repair is necessary, in the sole discretion of the Association, to protect the Common Elements or any other portion of the Property, provided that the Association shall levy a charge against such Unit Owner for the cost of the maintenance or repair and the amount of such charge shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.
- g. Maintenance and repairs (including, without limitation, payment of real estate taxes, insurance premiums and Common Expenses) with respect to any Unit or other real property owned by the Association.
- h. If, due to the act, omission or neglect of a Unit Owner, Occupant or a Unit Owner's or Occupant's guests, family members, invitees, licensees, contractors, visitors or pets, damage shall be caused to the Common Elements or to a Unit or Units owned by others, or maintenance, repairs or replacements shall be required that would otherwise be a Common Expense, the Association may levy against such Unit Owner a charge for such damage and such maintenance, repairs and replacements as may be determined by the Board, and the amount of such charge shall be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.
- i. (i) All expenses, charges and costs of the maintenance, repair or replacement of the Common Elements and any other expenses, charges or costs that the Association may incur or expend pursuant hereto shall be approved by the Board.

(ii) Assessments for additions and alterations to the Common Elements or to Association-owned property not included in the adopted Annual Budget shall be separately assessed and are subject to approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of all Unit Owners (unless the additions and alterations are mandated by law or constitute an emergency as defined in Subsection 18(a)(8)(iv) of the Act).

(iii) Additions and alterations to the Common Elements having a total cost in excess of $5,000 shall require the prior approval of the Unit Owners representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the total vote. The foregoing expenditure limitation does not apply to additions and alterations which are mandated by law, additions and alterations which constitute an emergency as defined in Subsection 18(a)(8)(iv) of the Act and/or the repair, replacement and/or restoration of Common Elements.

(iv) As used herein, the terms "repairing, replacing and restoring" means to repair, replace or restore deteriorated or damaged portions of the then-existing decorating, facilities, structural or mechanical components, interior or exterior surfaces or energy systems and equipment to their functional equivalent prior to the deterioration or damage.

(v) The repair, replacement or restoration of a Common Element may result in an improvement over the original quality of such Common Element or facilities. Unless the improvement is mandated by law or is an emergency as defined in Subsection 18(a)(8)(iv) of the Act, if the improvement results in a proposed expenditure exceeding five percent (5%) of the Annual Budget, the Board, upon written petition by the Unit Owners representing twenty percent (20%) of the votes of the Association Delivered to the Board within fourteen (14) days of the Board's action to approve such expenditure, shall call a meeting of Unit Owners within thirty (30) days of the date of Delivery of such petition to consider the expenditure. Unless a majority of the total votes of the Unit Owners are cast at this meeting to reject the expenditure, the Board's decision to make the expenditure shall be deemed ratified.

Section 6. Annual Budget.

- a. Each year, on or before December 1st, the Board shall estimate the Annual Budget of Common Expenses, including the total amount required for the cost of wages, materials, insurance, services and supplies that will be required during the ensuing calendar year for the rendering of all services, together with a reasonable amount considered by the Association to be necessary for a Reserve for contingencies and replacements (as hereinafter specified) and each Unit Owner's proposed Common Expense assessment, together with an indication of which portions of the Annual Budget are intended for such Reserves, capital expenditures or repairs or payment of real estate taxes. The Board shall Deliver a copy of the proposed Annual Budget to each Unit Owner at least thirty (30) days before the adoption thereof. The Association shall give Unit Owners notice as provided in Article IV, Section 4 of these Bylaws of any meeting of the Board concerning the adoption of the proposed Annual Budget and regular assessments pursuant thereto or to adopt a separate (special) assessment.

- b. If said Annual Budget proves inadequate for any reason, including nonpayment of any Unit Owner's assessment or any nonrecurring Common Expense or any Common Expense not set forth in the Annual Budget as adopted, the Board may at any time levy a separate (special) assessment which shall be separately assessed to the Unit Owners according to each Unit Owner's percentage of ownership in the Common Elements and which may be payable in one lump sum or such installments as the Board may determine. The Board may adopt separate assessments payable over more than one fiscal year, the entire amount of which shall be deemed considered and authorized in the first fiscal year in which the assessment is approved. Such separate assessment shall become effective and shall be payable at such time or times and on such other terms as may be determined by the Board. All Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay the separate assessment.
- c. If an adopted Annual Budget or any separate (special) assessment would result in the sum of all assessments payable in the current fiscal year exceeding one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the sum of all regular and separate assessments payable during the preceding fiscal year, the Board, upon written petition by the Unit Owners representing twenty percent (20%) of the votes of the Association Delivered to the Board within fourteen (14) days of the Board action, shall call a meeting of the Unit Owners within thirty (30) days of the date of Delivery of the petition to consider the budget or separate assessment. Unless a majority of the total votes of the Unit Owners are cast at a meeting to reject the Annual Budget or separate assessment, it shall be deemed ratified. In determining whether separate assessments together with regular assessments exceed one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of assessments in the preceding fiscal year, any separate assessment for expenditures relating to emergencies or mandated by law shall not be included in the computation, and the Board may approve such assessment without being subject to the Unit Owner veto procedure set forth in this subsection. As used herein, the term "emergencies" means immediate dangers to the structural integrity of the Common Elements or to the life, health, safety or property of the Unit Owners.

- d. The Annual Budget shall be assessed to the Unit Owners according to each Unit Owner's percentage of ownership in the Common Elements. Each Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay to the Association, or as it may direct, the portion of the Annual Budget assessed to such Unit Owner in equal monthly installments on or before the first (1st) day in January of the ensuing year and on the first (1st) day of each and every month of said year.
- e. The failure or delay of the Association to prepare or Deliver the Annual Budget on the Unit Owners shall not constitute a waiver or release in any manner of the Unit Owners' obligation to pay the maintenance and other costs and necessary Reserves as herein provided, whenever the same shall be determined. In the absence of any annual or adjusted budget, the Unit Owners shall continue to pay the monthly assessment charges at the then-existing monthly rate established for the previous period.
- f. Anything herein or in the Amended and Restated Declaration to the contrary notwithstanding, the Board may charge to fewer than all Unit Owners such portion of the insurance premiums for insurance the Association is required or permitted to obtain that reflects increased charges for coverage on the Units owned by such Unit Owners on such reasonable basis as the Board shall determine. Such charge shall be considered a Common Expense with respect to the Units owned by such Unit Owners for all purposes herein and under the Amended and Restated Declaration.
- g. All funds collected hereunder shall be held and expended for the purposes designated herein and (except for such charges as may be levied hereunder against fewer than all the Unit Owners and for such adjustments as may be required to reflect delinquent or prepaid assessments) shall be deemed to be held for the benefit, use and account of all the Unit Owners in their relative percentages of ownership interest in the Common Elements.
- h. The Association shall have no authority to forbear the payment of assessments by any Unit Owner.

Section 7. Annual Accounting. The Association shall supply annually to all Unit Owners an itemized accounting of the Common Expenses for the preceding calendar year actually incurred and paid, together with an indication of which portions of the Annual Budget were for Reserves, capital expenditures or repairs or payment of real estate taxes and with a tabulation of the amounts collected pursuant to the budget or assessments and showing the net excess or deficit of income over expenditures plus Reserves. Any amount accumulated in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and Reserves may, in the Board's discretion, be placed into the Association's Reserve accounts and/or applied to the succeeding year's Annual Budget.

Section 8. Reserves.

- a. The Association shall accumulate and maintain reasonable Reserves for operations, contingencies and replacements. Extraordinary expenditures not originally included in the Annual Budget that may become necessary during the year may be charged first against such Reserves. In addition, the Association shall have the right to segregate all or any portion of the Reserves for any specific replacement or contingency on such conditions as the Board deems appropriate.
- b. The Annual Budget shall provide for reasonable Reserves for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance for repair or replacement of the Common Elements. To determine the amount of Reserves appropriate for the Association, the Board shall take into consideration the following: (i) the repair and replacement cost and the estimated useful life of the property the Association is obligated to maintain, including but not limited to structural and mechanical components, surfaces of the Buildings and Common Elements, and energy systems and equipment; (ii) the current and anticipated return on investment of Association funds; (iii) any independent professional reserve study the Association may obtain; (iv) the financial impact on Unit Owners, and the market value of the Units, of any assessment increase needed to fund Reserves; and (v) the ability of the Association to obtain financing or refinancing.
- c. Anything to the contrary in the foregoing notwithstanding, the Association may elect to waive in whole or in part the Reserve requirements of this Section by a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of the Association. In the event the Association elects to waive all or part of the Reserve requirements of this Section, such fact must be disclosed after the meeting at which such waiver occurs by the Association in the financial statements of the Association and, highlighted in bold print, in the response to any request of a prospective purchaser for the information prescribed under Section 22.1 of the Act, and no member of the Board or the managing agent of the Association shall be liable, and no cause of action may be brought for damages against these parties, for the lack or inadequacy of Reserve funds in the Annual Budget. If the Association elects to waive all or part of such Reserve requirements, the Association may by a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the total votes of the Association elect to again be governed by the Reserve requirements of this Section.

Section 9. Default in Payment.

- a. If a Unit Owner is in default in the payment of the aforesaid assessments or other charges imposed pursuant to the Amended and Restated Declaration, these Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations, resolutions adopted by the Board and/or applicable law for thirty (30) days or more, the Unit Owner's account shall be deemed delinquent, and the Association may, without limitation to any other available remedies, (i) bring an action against the Unit Owner personally obligated to pay the same; (ii) enforce and foreclose the Association's lien against the Unit and the Unit Owner's interest in the Property; and/or (iii) bring an action to terminate the Unit Owner's right of possession pursuant to the forcible entry and detainer provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure. The Association, in the Board's sole discretion, may charge late fees for the late payment of assessments or other charges. Any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Association in connection with or attributable to a Unit Owner's delinquency and/or to monitor the status of and/or protect the Association's interests in connection with a mortgage foreclosure action, a real estate tax sale and/or other legal proceeding relating to a Unit (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, court costs, Recording fees, title company charges, management company charges and other costs of labor and materials), regardless of whether litigation is initiated by any party, shall be added to and deemed a part of the Unit Owner's respective share of the Common Expenses, be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any other unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses. Without limiting the foregoing, fees charged by the Association's property manager or managing agent pertaining to the collection of a Unit Owner's financial obligations to the Association (including, without limitation, collection account "turnover fees," court appearance fees and fees for appearing at evictions) shall be added to and deemed a part of the Unit Owner's respective share of the Common Expenses, be the personal obligation of the Unit Owner, constitute a continuing lien on the Unit Owner's Unit and be collectable in the same manner as any unpaid regular or special (separate) assessments or other Common Expenses.

- b. No Unit Owner may assign, delegate, transfer, surrender, waive or avoid the duties, responsibilities and liabilities of a Unit Owner under the Act, the Amended and Restated Declaration, these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules and Regulations and the resolutions of the Association, including, but not limited to, the liability for the assessments provided for herein, by nonuse of the Common Elements or abandonment of his or her Unit or in any other manner. Any such attempted assignment, delegation, transfer, surrender, waiver or avoidance shall be deemed void.

Section 10. Books of Account and Statement of Account. The Association shall keep full and correct books of account. Upon ten (10) days' notice to the Association through the Board or the community management firm and the payment of any reasonable fee that may be fixed by the Association, a Unit Owner shall be furnished a statement of his or her account setting forth the amount of any unpaid assessments or other charges due and owing from such Unit Owner.

A Written waiver of notice signed by the Unit Owner entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.
