The death of any beneficiary hereunder shall not terminate the trust nor in any manner affect the powers of the trustee hereunder. No assignment of any beneficial interest hereunder shall be binding on the trustee unless and until all applicable transfer tax ordinances have been complied with and until the original or an executed duplicate of the assignment in form satisfactory to the trustee is lodged with the trustee, and every assignment of any beneficial interest hereunder, the original or executed duplicate of which shall not have been lodged with the trustee, shall be void as to all subsequent assignees or purchasers without notice.
- d) Nothing contained in this agreement, unless otherwise specified, shall be construed as imposing any obligation on the trustee to file any income, profit, or other tax reports or schedules, it being expressly understood that the beneficiaries from time to time will individually make all such reports and pay any and all taxes required with respect to the earnings, avails, and proceeds of said real estate or growing out of their interest under this trust agreement.

Although the trustee may in its discretion refer any litigation involving the trust assets to counsel of its own choice and charge its legal fees and expenses to the beneficiaries as hereinabove set forth, nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the trustee to advance or pay out any money on account of this trust or to prosecute or defend any legal proceeding involving this trust or any property or interest thereunder unless it shall be furnished with funds sufficient therefore or be satisfactorily indemnified in respect thereto.
- f) This trust agreement being placed on record in the Recorder's Office of the county in which the land is situated, or elsewhere, shall be considered as notice of the rights of any person hereunder, and upon service of process on the trustee at any time hereafter, the trustee may, in his or her discretion, disclose to the other parties to any such proceeding, the names and addresses of the beneficiary or beneficiaries hereof.

In the event that no successor in trust is named as above provided within ten days after the mailing of such notices by the trustee, then the trustee may convey the trust property to the beneficiaries in accordance with their respective interests hereunder, and the conveyance may be recorded or registered, as the case may be, by the trustee and such recording or registration shall constitute delivery of the conveyance or transfer to the beneficiaries, or the trustee may, at its option, file a bill for appropriate relief in any court of competent jurisdiction.

 - (3) The cumulative dollar amount (as adjusted) that a vested beneficiary contributes above her or his share of the normal and customary expenses shall increase the amount that the respective vested beneficiary would ordinarily receive from the financial proceeds generated by the rent or sale of any part of the subject property and such application shall be ultimately determined by the Trustee.
- j) If this testamentary trust or any testamentary trust of this instrument fails to create the trust or is later held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, then the subject property shall pass with the surviving owner's estate.

- l) In no case shall any party dealing with said Trustee in relation to the subject property, or to whom the real estate or part thereof shall be conveyed, contracted to be sold, leased, or mortgaged by the Trustee, be obliged to see to the application of any purchase money, rent, or money borrowed or advanced on the real estate, or be obliged to see that the terms of the trust have been complied with, or be obliged to inquire into the "necessity or expediency of any act of the Trustee, or be obliged or privileged to inquire into any of the terms of the trust agreement; and every deed, trust deed, mortgage, lease, or other instrument executed by the Trustee in relation to the real estate shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying upon or claiming under any such conveyance, lease, or other instrument, (a) that at the time of the delivery thereof the trust created herein and by the trust agreement was in full force and effect; (b) that such conveyance or other instrument was executed in accordance with the trusts, conditions, and limitations contained herein and in the trust agreement or in any amendments thereof and

- p) Determinations by Trustee. The trustee's reasonable determination of any question of fact shall bind all persons.

- r) Exoneration of Trustee. Any individual trustee acting in good faith shall not be liable for any act or omission. No trustee shall be liable for any act or omission of another trustee.
- s) Bond. No trustee need give surety or bond to, qualify before, or account to any court.
- t) Powers of Successor Trustee. Unless expressly limited, each successor trustee shall have all the titles, powers, duties, discretions, and immunities of the original trustee.

Any contract, obligation, or indebtedness incurred or entered into by the Trustee in connection with said real estate may be entered into by it in the name of the then beneficiaries under said Trust Agreement as their attorney-in-fact, hereby irrevocably appointed for such purposes, or at the election of the Trustee, in its own name as Trustee of an express trust and not individually [and the Trustee shall have no obligation whatsoever with respect to any such contract, obligation, or indebtedness except only so far as the trust property and funds in the actual possession of the Trustee shall be applicable for the payment and discharge thereof]. All persons and corporations whosoever and whatsoever shall be charged with notice of this condition from the date of the filing for record of this Deed.
- v) PROPERTY VESTING IN DISABLED PERSONS: Notwithstanding any other provision in this instrument, if any beneficiary under this instrument, including any beneficiary of any trust created under this instrument, is or shall become disabled or incapacitated, institutionalized, and/or shall be receiving nursing or other care in the home of the beneficiary, in a nursing home, or on an out-patient basis, thereby entitling the beneficiary to public benefits such as Medicaid or Supplemental Security Income, or the Trustee reasonably shall anticipate that the beneficiary may need such public benefits in the foreseeable future, the share to which said beneficiary (hereinafter referred to as the "Beneficiary") is entitled instead shall be distributed to the Trustee, IN TRUST, to hold the same as a separate trust for the benefit of the Beneficiary in accordance with the following provisions of this Section.
 - i) The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the trust assets, shall collect the income therefrom and, after deducting all charges and expenses properly attributable thereto, shall apply for the benefit of the Beneficiary, at any time and from time to time, any part or all of the net income and/or principal of this trust as the Trustee shall deem advisable, in the absolute discretion of the Trustee, subject to the limitations set forth below. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to the principal of this trust at least annually.

- ii) It is our intention to create a purely discretionary supplemental needs trust. WE intend that the trust assets be used to supplement, not supplant, impair or diminish, any benefits or assistance of any federal, state, county, city or other governmental entity for which the beneficiary may otherwise be eligible or which the beneficiary may be receiving. Consistent with that intent, it is our desire that, before expending any amounts from the net income and/or principal of this trust, the Trustee shall consider the availability of all benefits or assistance under governmental or private programs for which the Beneficiary may be eligible and that, where appropriate and to the extent possible, the Trustee shall endeavor to maximize the collection of such benefits or assistance for the benefit of the Beneficiary.
- iii) None of the income or principal of this trust shall be applied in such manner as to supplant, impair or diminish benefits or assistance of any federal, state, county, city or other governmental entity for which the beneficiary may otherwise be eligible or which the beneficiary may be receiving. The Trustee shall not make any distribution to or for the benefit of the Beneficiary if such distribution would reduce or eliminate any governmental entitlement or payment which the Beneficiary would otherwise receive.
- iv) No judge or court shall have the power to order the invasion of principal in contravention of the provisions of the directives above. This provision is intended to negate and eliminate any discretion granted by any applicable law. All provisions of this trust shall be interpreted to conform to our primary goal that any governmental benefits or assistance that otherwise would be available to the Beneficiary if this trust did not exist will in no way be reduced, diminished, altered or denied.
- v) The following are examples of the kind of supplemental, nonsupport disbursements that may be appropriate for the Trustee to make for the Beneficiary: medical, dental, rehabilitative and diagnostic work or treatment for which there are no private or public funds otherwise available; supplemental nursing care; differentials in the cost between housing and shelter for shared and private rooms in institutional settings; care appropriate for the Beneficiary that assistance programs do not otherwise provide; and expenditures for travel, companionship, cultural and educational experiences. It is our desire that the Beneficiary enjoy the therapeutic benefits of education, vocational training, hobbies, vacations, modes of transportation, equipment, visitation with family and friends, and other needs and/or luxuries the Beneficiary may have to enjoy life to the fullest. Subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Article, the Trustee may use the principal and income of this trust for these types of purposes and such other purposes as the Trustee may deem appropriate.
- vi) The Beneficiary shall not have any right or power to assign, encumber, direct, distribute or authorize distribution from this trust. The Beneficiary has no entitlement to the income or principal of this trust, except as the Trustee, in the complete, sole, absolute and unfettered discretion of the Trustee, may elect to disburse. In this regard the Trustee may act unreasonably and arbitrarily as WE could have acted if living and in control of these funds. The discretion of the Trustee in making nonsupport disbursements as provided in this instrument is final as to all interested parties, including all federal, state, county, city or other governmental entities, even if the Trustee shall elect to make no disbursements at all.
- vii) With the consent of the Trustee, any person may add property to this trust, by assignment, gift, transfer, deed or will, and any property so added shall be held, administered and distributed under the terms of this trust.
- viii) The Trustee from time to time may consult with an attorney with appropriate expertise in the area of public benefits and trust law to review applicable legislation, regulations and requirements so that the public benefits eligibility of the Beneficiary is not jeopardized by the actions of the Trustee. The cost of such attorney shall be paid by the Trustee from the trust assets.
- ix) Subject to the restrictions and limitations set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Article, upon the death of the Beneficiary the Trustee may pay all or part of the funeral expenses of the Beneficiary and expenses relating to the distribution of the remaining trust assets as the Trustee shall deem advisable, in the absolute discretion of the Trustee. The Trustee may consider whether other satisfactory provisions have been made for such expenses.

- x) Our concern is to provide for the Beneficiary and We are not concerned about preserving assets for the remaindermen of this trust. Upon the death of the Beneficiary, all remaining principal and income of this trust shall be paid and distributed as follows: The remaining principal and interest shall be distributed according to the directions and terms specified under the residuary trust estate, but if for any reason the foregoing bequest shall disqualify this bequest as a "third party" supplemental needs trust, then as the Trustee may elect.
- xi) If the existence of this supplemental needs trust adversely affects the qualification of the Beneficiary for public entitlements or private support benefits, the Trustee may terminate this trust. If this occurs the remainder interest will be accelerated and all principal and income remaining in the trust shall be paid and distributed as provided in the preceding section. In the event of such a voluntary termination of this trust, it would be our hope and expectation that the remainder beneficiaries would continue to provide for the nonsupport care of the Beneficiary of this trust; however, this request is an expression of our wishes and is not binding on the remainder beneficiaries.
- xii) If for any reason the foregoing shall not qualify as a "third party" created supplemental needs trust, the Trustee may, but shall not be required to, establish by court order a "first-party" or "self-settled" supplemental needs trust as permitted by law.
- w) PROPERTY VESTING IN MINORS OR INCOMPETENTS: Unless otherwise specified, if any principal or income of this trust or any trust hereunder vests in absolute ownership in a minor or incompetent, the Trustee serving, at any time and without court authorization, may: distribute the whole or any part of such property to the beneficiary; or use the whole or any part for the health, education, maintenance and support of the beneficiary; or distribute the whole or any part to a guardian, committee or other legal representative of the beneficiary, or to a custodian for the beneficiary (including a custodian appointed by the Trustee serving without court order) under any gifts to minors or transfers to minors act, or to the person or persons with whom the beneficiary resides. Evidence of any such distribution or the receipt therefor executed by the person to whom the distribution is made shall be a full discharge of the Trustee serving from any liability with respect thereto, even though the Trustee serving may be such person.
- i) If such beneficiary is a minor, the Trustee serving may defer the distribution of the whole or any part of such property until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-one (21) years, and may hold the same as a separate fund for the beneficiary with all of the powers described here. If the beneficiary dies before attaining said age, any balance shall be paid and distributed to the estate of the beneficiary.
- ii) The word "minor" wherever used here shall mean any person who shall be under the age of twenty-one (21) years.
- iii) If the Trustee serving shall reasonably believe that a beneficiary routinely or frequently uses or consumes any illegal substance so as to be physically or psychologically dependent upon that substance, or is clinically dependent upon the use or consumption of alcohol or any other legal drug or chemical substance that is not prescribed by a board certified medical doctor or psychiatrist in a current program of treatment supervised by such doctor or psychiatrist, and if the Trustee serving shall reasonably believe that as a result the beneficiary is unable to care for himself or herself or is unable to manage his or her financial affairs, the following provisions shall apply:
- (1) The beneficiary shall be deemed to be incompetent for purposes of this Trust and all mandatory distributions (including distributions upon termination of a trust) to the beneficiary and any rights of the beneficiary to participate in decisions concerning the removal and appointment of the Trustee serving shall be suspended.
 - (2) The Trustee serving may request the beneficiary to submit to one or more examinations (including laboratory tests of bodily fluids) determined to be appropriate by a board certified medical doctor and to consent to full disclosure to the Trustee serving of the results of all such examinations and all opinions and suggested treatments by the beneficiary's treating physician, on an ongoing basis. The Trustee serving shall maintain strict confidentiality of those results and shall not disclose those results to any person other than the beneficiary without the prior written permission of the beneficiary.
 - (3) If, in the opinion of the examining doctor, the examination indicates current or recent use of a drug or substance as described above, the examining doctor shall be asked to determine an appropriate method of treatment for the beneficiary (for example, counseling or treatment on an in-patient basis in a rehabilitation facility) that is acceptable to the Trustee serving. If the beneficiary consents to the treatment, the Trustee serving shall pay the costs of treatment directly to the provider of those services from the distributions suspended under this Article.

- (4) The Trustee serving may resume other distribution to the beneficiary (and the beneficiary's other suspended rights will be restored) when, in the case of use or consumption of an illegal substance, examinations indicate no such use for 12 months and, in all cases, when the Trustee serving shall determine that the beneficiary is able to care for himself or herself and is able to manage his or her financial affairs. When other distributions to the beneficiary are resumed, the remaining balance, if any, of distributions that were suspended may be distributed to the beneficiary at that time. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of those suspended amounts, the Trustee serving shall distribute the balance of the suspended amounts to the persons who would be the alternate takers of that beneficiary's share (or takers through the exercise of a power of appointment) as otherwise provided herein.
- (5) The Trustee serving shall not be responsible or liable to anyone for a beneficiary's actions or welfare and shall have no duty to inquire whether a beneficiary uses drugs or other substances as described in this Article. The Trustee serving shall be indemnified and held harmless by our estate and this trust from any liability of any nature in exercising its judgment and authority under this Article, including any failure to request a beneficiary to submit to medical examination, and including a decision to distribute suspended amounts to a beneficiary.
- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, the Trustee serving shall not suspend any mandatory distributions that are required for a trust to qualify for any federal transfer or estate tax exemption, deduction or exclusion allowable with respect to a trust or to become or remain a Qualified Subchapter S Trust (unless the Trustee serving shall elect for the trust to be an Electing Small Business Trust)

5) THE SECOND DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY OR BENEFICIARIES:

- a) In the event none of the above beneficiaries vest in ownership in the subject property or in the proceeds from the sale thereof, according to this instrument as determined by the Trustee, then the subject property shall pass with the estate of the surviving owner.
