7. Lease of Dwelling Units or Sublease or Assignment of Lease Thereof. Any Dwelling Unit Owner shall have the right to lease, or permit a subsequent sublease or assignment of all (but not less than all) of his Unit or such Owner's Garage Unit(s) upon such terms and conditions as the Dwelling Unit Owner may deem acceptable, except that no Dwelling Unit shall be leased, subleased or assigned for transient or hotel purposes, which are hereby defined as being for a period of less than thirty (30) days or for a period of more than thirty (30) days where hotel services normally furnished by a hotel (such as room service and maid service) are furnished. Any such lease, sublease or assignment shall be in writing, a copy of which must be delivered to the Association not later than the date of occupancy or ten (10) days after the lease is signed, whichever occurs first, and shall provide that the lease, sublease or assignment shall be subject to the terms of this Declaration and that any failure of the lessee, sublessee or assignee to comply with the terms of this Declaration shall be a default under the lease, sublease or assignment. The Dwelling Unit Owner making any such lease, or permitting such sublease or assignment shall not be relieved there by from any of his obligations under the Declaration. In addition to any other remedies, by filing an action jointly against the Dwelling Unit Owner and the lessee, sublessee or assignee, the Association may seek to enjoin a lessee, sublessee or assignee from occupying a Dwelling Unit or seek to evict a lessee, sublessee or assignee under the provisions of Article IX of the Code of Civil Procedure for failure of the lessor-Dwelling Unit Owner to comply with the leasing requirements prescribed by this Section or by the Declaration, By-Laws, and rules and regulations. Garage Units which are being assigned, leased or subleased independently of a Dwelling Unit, may only be assigned, leased or subleased to other owners or occupants of Dwelling Units in Condominiums located in the University Commons Development. The Commercial Storage Unit Owner(s) shall have the right to lease, license, or permit a subsequent sublease, assignment or license of all (but not less than all) of the Commercial Storage Unit upon such terms and conditions as the Commercial Storage Unit Owner(s) may deem acceptable, except that the Commercial Storage Unit shall not be leased, subleased or assigned for any residential use including transient or hotel purposes, which are hereby defined as being for a period of less than thirty (30) days or for a period of more than thirty (30) days where hotel services normally furnished by a hotel (such as room service and maid service are furnished. Any such lease, sublease, license agreement or assignment shall be in writing, a copy of which must be delivered to the Association not later than the date of occupancy or ten (10) days after the lease is signed, whichever occurs first, and such lease, sublease, license agreement or assignment shall provide that the same is subject to the terms of this Declaration and that any failure of the lessee, sublessee, licensee or assignee to comply with the terms of this Declaration shall be a default under the lease, sublease, license agreement or assignment. The Commercial Storage Unit Owner(s) in making any such lease, license agreement, or permitting such sublease, license agreement or assignment shall not be relieved thereby from any of its obligations under the Declaration. In the event the Commercial Storage Unit Owner(s) or such lessee, licensee or assignee shall fail to comply with the Declaration, By-Laws, and rules and regulations lawfully promulgated by the Board, the Association may seek to enjoin the lessee, sublessee, licensee, or assignee from occupying the Commercial Storage Unit or seek to evict the lessee, sublessee, licensee or assignee under the provisions of Article IX of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Notwithstanding any foregoing provisions of this Declaration to the contrary, rental or leasing of Dwelling Units is restricted to thirty-five percent (35%) of the total number of Dwelling Units at any given time. Those Owners of Dwelling Units in the Association as of the effective date of this Amendment shall have the right to lease their Dwelling Units until the transfer of ownership of the Dwelling Unit, meaning that such "Grandfathered Owners" will have the right to lease their Dwelling Units regardless of the percentage of leased Dwelling Units at the time such Grandfathered Owner seeks to lease his Dwelling Unit. However, when a Grandfathered Owner transfers ownership of his Dwelling Unit, the Dwelling Unit shall be subject to the restrictions in this Amendment. A Grandfathered Owner's transfer of a Dwelling Unit to a living trust or similar estate planning trust, so long as the Grandfathered Owner is alive and acting as the trustee under that trust, shall not be considered a "transfer of ownership" for purposes of this Amendment. In addition, a Grandfathered Owner's transfer of a Dwelling Unit to a land trust or other asset protection trust, so long as the Grandfathered owner is alive and the sole or majority beneficial owner of that trust, shall not be considered a "transfer of ownership" for purposes of this Amendment.

With respect to all other Owners of Dwelling Units who purchase, or otherwise receive ownership of Dwelling Units after the effective date of this Amendment, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) The term "leasing of Dwelling Units" includes a transaction wherein the title holder of a Dwelling Unit, who does not reside therein, permits its occupancy by persons not on title regardless of whether a formal written lease exists or if money or any other form of consideration is paid therefore; provided that if the Unit Owner is a corporation, partnership or other business entity, such Unit Owner may allow a shareholder, partner or director holding at least 25% interest or shares in the entity to reside in the Dwelling Unit without being subject to this Amendment. Additionally, the term "leasing of Dwelling Units" shall include any transaction wherein possession of a Dwelling Unit is provided prior to transfer of title. In no event may less than the entire Dwelling Unit be leased. A Unit Owner shall be deemed to “reside” in a Dwelling Unit if he/she has slept in the Dwelling Unit for more than ninety (90) days of the previous six (6) months.

(b) Any Unit Owner desiring to lease out their Dwelling Unit must notify the Board and/or managing agent prior to entering into a lease agreement and provide a copy of the proposed lease.

(c) Whenever 35% or more of the total number of Dwelling Units at the Association are being leased, the Owner’s name shall be added to a waiting list to be maintained by the Board and/or the managing agent and no other Dwelling Units may be leased except as set forth below in subparagraphs (e) and (f).

(d) At such time as less than 35% of the total number of Dwelling Units in the Association are being leased, the name on the waiting list (if any) for the longest period of time shall have the first opportunity to lease their Unit. That Unit Owner will be given thirty (30) days to indicate whether they intend to lease out their Dwelling Unit. That Unit Owner will then have an additional thirty (30) days to present a signed lease to the Board and/or managing agent, otherwise the right to lease shall pass to the next Unit Owner on the waiting list. The Board and/or managing agent shall promptly review the proposed lease agreement in order to verify that it complies with the standards as set forth herein.

(e) Occupancy of a Dwelling Unit by an Immediate Family Member(s) of a Unit Owner is permitted, and shall not constitute a lease as defined under this Amendment, even if there is no written memorandum or agreement executed between the parties, subject to the Unit Owner’s prior notification to the Board of such arrangement and the Board’s prompt review to ensure that the arrangement qualifies as an exemption from the leasing restrictions set forth herein. Immediate Family Member shall be defined as a spouse, child, stepchild, sibling, adoptive child and grandchildren, grandparent, parent or civil partner.

(f) Any Owner may, upon receipt of the Board’s prior written approval, enter into one (1) Occupancy Arrangement with respect to a Dwelling Unit for a period not to exceed one (1) year if the existence of a Hardship Situation (as hereinafter defined) is demonstrated to the reasonable satisfaction of the Association’s Board of Directors, provided that use of it is within the Board’s sole discretion to grant such a hardship. All decisions of the Board are final and binding. As used herein, a “Hardship Situation” means a situation in which an Owner has been unable to sell a Dwelling Unit for more than ninety (90) consecutive days despite good faith efforts to sell the Dwelling Unit at a reasonable price, as determined by a qualified real estate broker or qualified appraiser, and the inability to lease the Dwelling Unit will subject the Owner to financial hardship.

The Board shall consider the following in granting an exception under the “Hardship Situation”:

- (i) The length of time the Unit Owner has owned and resided in the Dwelling Unit;
- (ii) The number of units presently being leased in the building;

UNOFFICIAL COPY

- (iii) Whether the Unit Owner has previously been permitted to lease the Dwelling Unit pursuant to an exception; and
- (iv) Whether the Unit Owner is applying for an exception due to the loss of employment or relocation of employment.

It shall be the Unit Owner's obligation to provide the Board with any and all documentation data requested by the Board as part of a Unit Owner's application for an exception, all of which information shall be kept confidential by the Board and the Association's property manager.

In the event a Dwelling Unit is permitted to be leased by an exception, the Owner shall be required to furnish a copy of the written lease to the Board and/or managing agent at least 15 days prior to commencement of such lease, and which shall fully conform to all rules and regulations of the Association. The Lessee under said lease shall be bound by and subject to all of the obligations under the Declaration, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations of the Association, and the failure of the Lessee to comply therewith shall constitute a default under the lease which shall be enforceable by the Board. The Association may seek to evict such Lessee under the provisions of the By-Laws.

(g) Copies of all leases and documents required by the Board and/or management agent must be submitted to the Board and/or managing agent not later than the date of occupancy or ten (10) days after the lease is signed, whichever occurs first.

(h) All Unit Owners who lease their Dwelling Units are responsible for ensuring that their tenants are aware of and abide by the provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Association.

(i) The provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations that relate to the use of the individual Dwelling Unit or the Common Elements shall be applicable to any person leasing a Dwelling Unit and shall be deemed to be incorporated in any lease. In the event an Owner or Tenant violates any provision set forth herein or in the Governing Documents, said Owner or Tenant may be subject to a flat or daily fine to be determined by the Board of Directors upon notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(j) In addition to the authority to levy fines, against the Owner or Tenant for violation of this Amendment or any other provision of the Declaration, By-Laws or Rules and Regulations, the Board shall have all rights and remedies, including but not limited to the right to maintain an action for possession against the tenant, an action for injunctive and other equitable relief, or an action at law for damages.

(k) Any action brought on behalf of the Association and/or the Board of Directors to enforce this Amendment shall subject the Owner and/or the Tenant to the payment of all costs and attorneys' fees at the time they are incurred by the Association.

(l) All unpaid charges including legal fees as a result of the foregoing shall be deemed to be a lien against the Dwelling Unit and collectible as any other unpaid regular or special assessment, including late fees and interest on the unpaid balance.

(m) This Amendment shall not prohibit the Board from leasing any Dwelling Unit owned by the Association or any Unit which the Association has been issued an Order of Possession by the Circuit Court of Cook County.
