NOTICE TO THE INDIVIDUAL SIGNING THE ILLINOIS
STATUTORY SHORT FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR PROPERTY.

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. The form that you will be signing is a legal document. It is governed by the Illinois Power of Attorney Act. If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

The purpose of this Power of Attorney is to give your designated "agent" broad powers to handle your financial affairs, which may include the power to pledge, sell, or dispose of any of your real or personal property, even without your consent or any advance notice to you.

FIDELITY NATIONAL TITLE CC18001950

UNOFFICIAL COPY

When using the Statutory Short Form, you may name successor agents, but you may not name co-agents.

This form does not impose a duty upon your agent to handle your financial affairs, so it is important that you select an agent who will agree to do this for you. It is also important to select an agent whom you trust, since you are giving that agent control over your financial assets and property. Any agent who does act for you has a duty to act in good faith for your benefit and to use due care, competence, and diligence. He or she must also act in accordance with the law and with the directions in this form. Your agent must keep a record of all receipts, disbursements, and significant actions taken as your agent.

Unless you specifically limit the period of time that this Power of Attorney will be in effect, your agent may exercise the powers given to him or her throughout your lifetime, both before and after you become incapacitated. A court, however, can take away the powers of your agent if it finds that the agent is not acting properly. You may also revoke this Power of Attorney if you wish.

This Power of Attorney does not authorize your agent to appear in court for you as an attorney-at-law or otherwise to engage in the practice of law unless he or she is a licensed attorney who is authorized to practice law in Illinois. The powers you give your agent are explained more fully in Section 3-4 of the Illinois Power of Attorney Act. This form is a part of that law. The "NOTE" paragraphs throughout this form are instructions.

You are not required to sign this Power of Attorney, but it will not take effect without your signature. You should not sign this Power of Attorney if you do not understand everything in it, and what your agent will be able to do if you do sign it.

Please place your initials on the following line indicating that you have read this Notice:

I, Steven Were Omamo, of Via C.G. VIOLA 68/70 Rome 00142 ITALY, hereby revoke all prior powers of attorney for property executed by me and appoint Cheryl R. Richardson as my attorney-in-fact (my "agent") to act for me and in my name (in any way I could act in person) with respect to the following powers, as defined in Section 3-4 of the "Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney for Property Law" (including all amendments), but subject to any limitations on or additions to the specified powers inserted below.

(NOTE: You must strike out any one or more of the following categories of powers you do not want your agent to have. Failure to strike the title of any category will cause the powers described in that category to be granted to the agent. To strike out a category you must draw a line through the title of that category.)

(a) Real estate transactions – specifically relating to 4578 S. Oakenwald Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60653. (P.I.N: 20-02-404-068-0000)

The powers granted above shall not include the following powers or shall be modified or limited in the following particulars: None

In addition to the powers granted above, I grant my agent the following powers: None.

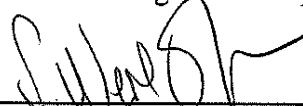

This power of attorney shall become effective on January 6, 2018

This power of attorney shall terminate on April 30, 2018

If any agent named by me shall die, become incompetent, resign or refuse to accept the office of agent, I name the following (each to act along and successively, in the order named) as successor(s) to such agent: None

I am fully informed as to all the contents of this form and understand the full import of this grant of powers to my agent.

The Notice to Agent is incorporated by reference and included as part of this form.

NOTICE TO AGENT

When you accept the authority granted under this power of attorney a special legal relationship, known as agency, is created between you and the principal. Agency imposes upon you duties that continue until you resign or the power of attorney is terminated or revoked. As agent you must:

- (1) Do what you know the principal reasonably expects you to do with the principal's property;
- (2) Act in good faith for the best interest of the principal, using due care, competence, and diligence;
- (3) Keep a complete and detailed record of all receipts, disbursements, and significant actions conducted for the principal;
- (4) Attempt to preserve the principal's estate plan, to the extent actually known by the agent, if preserving the plan is consistent with the principal's best interest; and
- (5) Cooperate with a person who has authority to make health decisions for the principal to carry out the principal's reasonable expectations to the extent actually in the principal's best interest.

As agent you must not do any of the following:

- (1) Act so as to create a conflict of interests that is inconsistent with the other principles in this notice to Agent;
- (2) Do any act beyond the authority granted in this power of attorney;
- (3) Commingle the principal's funds with your own funds;
- (4) Borrow funds or other property from the principal unless otherwise authorized;
- (5) Continue acting on behalf of the principal if you learn of any event that terminates this power of attorney or your authority under this power of attorney, or the dissolution of your marriage to the principal.

If you have special skills or expertise, you must use those special skills and expertise when acting for the principal. You must disclose your identity as an agent whenever you act for the principal by writing or printing the name of the principal and signing your own name "as Agent" in the following manner:

“(Principal's Name) by (Your Name) as Agent”

The meaning of the powers granted to you is contained in Section 3-4 of the Illinois Power of Attorney Act, which is incorporated by reference into the body of the power of attorney for property document. If you violate your duties as agent or act outside the authority granted to you, you may be liable for any damages, including attorney's fees and costs, caused by your violation. If there is anything about this document or your duties that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice from an attorney."
