1. Upon the date of service of this Default Judgment Order on the Defendant, the Defendant shall cease operation of any and all drycleaning machines located at the drycleaning facility, identified as Maywood Cleaners, at 311 Madison Street, Maywood, Cook County, Illinois ("Facility").

2. Within 24 hours of the date of service of this Default Judgment Order on the Defendant, the Defendant shall post the following message on all public entrances to the Facility:

THIS DRYCLEANING FACILITY IS NOT LICENSED TO CONDUCT DRYCLEANING ACTIVITIES

Pursuant to a Court Order, this drycleaning facility is no longer able to dry clean materials on-site. No drycleaning activities shall occur on the premises until such time that the operator is fully licensed with the Drycleaner Environmental Response Trust Fund Council of Illinois. This drycleaning facility shall remain open to return any materials left here before June 19, 2017 and may continue to operate as a drop store after that date, if the operator so chooses.

3. Within ten (10) days of the date of service of this Default Judgment Order on the Defendant, the Defendant shall have any and all drycleaning machines located at the Facility professionally drained of all drycleaning solvent in accordance with any applicable regulations.

This includes the following:

- a. All solvent in the solvent tanks must be removed;
- b. Filters must be removed, properly drained, and disposed of;
- c. Any lines that may contain solvent must be drained; and
- d. The residual solvent or other contaminants remaining in the drycleaning machine must be cleaned out and properly disposed of.

The removed drycleaning solvent shall immediately be disposed of at a facility properly licensed to accept such wastes.

4. Within fourteen (14) days after the drycleaning solvent is drained from the
