Mortgagee will give Borrower at least twenty (20) days' notice of the time and place of any public sale of the Collateral or of the time after which any private sale or any other intended disposition thereof is made. The requirements of reasonable notice shall be met if such notice is mailed, by certified United States mail or equivalent, postage prepaid, to the address of Borrower hereinabove set forth at least twenty (20) days before the time of the sale or disposition. Mortgagee may buy at private sale if the Collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations. Any such sale may be held in conjunction with any foreclosure sale of the Property. If Mortgagee so elects, the Property and the Collateral may be sold as one lot. The net proceeds realized upon any such disposition, after deduction for the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling and the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by Mortgagee, shall be applied against the Debt in such order or manner as Mortgagee shall select. Mortgagee will account to Borrower for any surplus realized on such disposition;

(g) The terms and provisions contained in this Section 1.03, unless the context otherwise requires, shall have the meanings and be construed as provided in the Illinois UCC;

(h) This Security Instrument is intended to be a financing statement within the purview of Section 9-502(b) of the Illinois UCC with respect to the Collateral and the goods described herein, which goods are or may become fixtures relating to the Property. This Security Instrument is to be filed for recording with the recorder of deeds of the county or counties where the Property is located. Borrower is the record owner of the Property;

(i) To the extent permitted by applicable law, the security interest created hereby is specifically intended to cover all Leases between Borrower or its agents as lessor, and various tenants named therein, as lessee, including all extended terms and all extensions and renewals of the terms thereof, as well as any amendments to or replacement of said Leases, together with all of the right, title and interest of Borrower, as lessor thereunder; and

Section 17.09. Future Advances. This Security Instrument is given for the purpose of securing loan advances which Mortgagee may make to or for Borrower pursuant and subject to the terms and provisions of the Loan Agreement. The parties hereto intend that, in addition to any other debt or obligation secured hereby, this Security Instrument shall secure unpaid balances of loan advances made after this Security Instrument is delivered to the Office of the Recorder of the County in which the Property is located, whether made pursuant to an obligation of Mortgagee or otherwise, provided that such advances are within twenty (20) years from the date hereof and in such event, such advances shall be secured to the same extent as if such future advances were made on the date hereof, although there may be no advance made at the time of execution hereof and although there may be no indebtedness outstanding at the time any advance is made.
