In case of default therein, Trustee or the holders of the note may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest on prior encumbrances affecting said premises or contest any tax or assessment. All monies paid for any of the purposes authorized and all expenses had or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other money advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien thereon, shall be a debt due and owing by the mortgagors to the Trustee or the holders of the note, and shall be immediately payable by the mortgagors to the indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of such appointment, for such amount as may be required to satisfy the demands of the holder of the trust deed.

9. Trustee or receiver may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the dependency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits.

10. The receiver may apply the rents, issues and profits to the payment of all costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred by him in connection with the administration of the estate, including the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to collect the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of:
