hereof—including reasonable attorneys' fees, outlays for documentary evidence, stenographers' charges, cost of procuring or completing an abstract of title or a letter, opinion or minutes for foreclosure, showing the whole title to said premises embracing foreclosure decree—shall be paid by the Grantors; that the like expenses and disbursements, occasioned by any suit or proceeding wherein the Trustee, or any holder of any part of said indebtedness, as such, may be a party, shall also be paid by the Grantors; that such fees, expenses and disbursements shall be an additional lien and charge upon said premises secured by this trust deed, shall be taxed as costs and included in any decree that may be rendered in such foreclosure proceedings; and that such proceedings shall not be dismissed, nor a release hereof given, until all such fees, expenses and disbursements, and the costs of suit, have been paid.

The Grantors, for said Grantors and for the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of said Grantors, waive all right to the possession of and income from said premises pending such foreclosure proceedings and until the period of redemption from any sale thereunder expires, and agree that upon the filing of any bill to foreclose this trust deed the court in which such bill is filed may at once and without notice to the said Grantors or to any party claiming under said Grantors appoint a receiver to take possession or charge of said premises with power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the said premises, during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and until the full time allowed by law to redeem the same from any sale thereunder shall expire, irrespective of any redemption that may have been made prior to the expiration of said full period.

When the said notes and all expenses accruing under this trust deed shall be fully paid, the Trustee or its successor shall release this trust deed and reconvey all of said premises remaining unsold to the said Grantors or their heirs or assigns, upon receiving its reasonable charges therefor. The Trustee may in the exercise of its discretion accept the production of the principal notes duly canceled as sufficient proof of the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and may waive the production of any or all of the interest coupons at the time of releasing this Trust Deed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of said Trustee, then The Mutual National Bank of Chicago is hereby appointed and made successor in trust herein, with like power and authority as is hereby vested in said Trustee.

The Grantors agree that the legal holder or holders of said principal note or any agent designated by such holder or holders may take possession of the said premises in case of default hereunder or in the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured, and that such holder or holders or such agent, while in possession thereof, shall have all of the rights and powers of receivers in chancery with respect to the management and control thereof, including without limitation the right to take charge of said premises, to collect the rents, issues and profits thereof, to operate, manage and conserve said premises, to find tenants therefor and to lease the same, to employ janitors, custodians and other help, to make necessary repairs, and to pay operating expenses, including bills for water, light and fuel. The rights and powers herein conferred upon said holder or holders are in addition to and not in derogation of any rights and powers conferred upon the grantee as trustee by virtue of law.

In addition to the payments herein provided, the grantors agree to make proportional monthly deposits sufficient to pay each and every installment of the general real estate taxes levied against the premises, at least thirty days before any penalty shall attach thereto.

If this instrument is executed by one individual, then the word "Grantors" and all verbs, pronouns and other words qualifying, applying or referring to the same in this instrument, shall be construed as if the same had been written in the singular, and if this trust deed secures only one principal note, then the word "notes" as used herein shall be held to mean such note.

WITNESS the hands and seals of the said Grantors, the day and year first above written.
