All monies paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees and any other monies advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises, and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be a small additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum. Inaction of Trustee or holders of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right accruing to them on account of inaction hereunder on the part of Mortgages.
5. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office, without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax assessment, sale, foreclosure, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including pre-foreclosure proceedings, in which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured, or (b) any preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose, whether or not actually commenced, or (c) any preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereby secured or not actually commenced.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgages at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of loss and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further term when a mortgagee, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or proper in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness secured hereof, or (2) for any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or any lien or interest, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale. (3) The deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.
10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense which would not be good and available to the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record the trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the trust deed, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.
13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid, and Trustee may execute and deliver such instrument to any person who shall, at the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is refused, a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification hereof to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the original trustee, and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original trustee, and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original trustee, and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof, as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification hereof to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.
