thereof or thereto used in habitable form; all conditioning, water, heat, power, refrigeration (whether single units or centrally controlled), and ventilation, including (without restricting the foregoing) electric, window shades, storm doors and windows, door covers, handle bars, kitchen, places and water fixtures. All of the foregoing are declared to be a part of said real estate whether physically attached thereto or not, and it is agreed that all similar apparatus, equipment or articles heretofore placed in the premises by First Party to its interests or assigned shall be considered as constituting part of the real estate.

4.0 HAVE AND HOLD. To the premises unto the said Trustee, its successors and assigns, forever, for the purposes and upon the uses and trusts herein set forth.

5.0 IN CASE OF NON-PERFORMANCE AND ACCELERATION:

1. Until the obligations aforesaid shall be fully paid, and in case of the failure of First Party, its successors or assigns to: (1) promptly repair, or retain any buildings in habitable form or otherwise on the premises which may become damaged or be destroyed; (2) keep said premises in good condition and repair, without waste, and free from incumbrances or other items of claim for fire and expenses, as defined in the law herein § 37-59, when due any indebtedness which may be incurred by a lessee in charge of the premises aforesaid to the lessor hereof, and upon request exhibit satisfactory evidence of the discharge of such prior lien to Trustee or to holder of the note, or complete within a reasonable time any building or buildings now or at any time in process of erection upon said premises; (3) comply with all requirements of law or municipal ordinances with respect to the premises and the use thereof, the right from making material alterations in said premises except as required by law or municipal ordinances; (4) pay before any penalty attaches any interest thereon, plus any special taxes, special assessments, water charges, power service charges, and other charges against the premises when due, and upon written request, to Trustee or to holder of the note duplicate receipts therefor; (5) pay in full under protest to the trustee provided for statute, any tax or assessment which First Party may desire to contest; (6) keep all buildings and fixtures, and any or otherwise situated on said premises located against loss or damage by fire, lightning or whirlwind under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of money sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the cost so incurred hereby, all in compliance therewith to the holder of the note, under insurance policies payable, in case of loss or damage, to Trustee for the benefit of the holder of the note, such rights to be evidenced by this standard mortgage clause to be attached to each policy and to deliver all policies, including additional and renewal policies, to holders of the note, and in case of insurance plan to expire, to deliver renewal policies not less than ten days prior to the respective dates of expiration; then Trustee or the holder of the note may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act hereinabove set forth in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest on note notwithstanding. It may, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax bill or other claim filed, or title of claim thereof, or release from any tax sale or foreclosure affecting said premises, or cancel any tax or assessment. All money paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other money advanced by Trustee or the holder of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lessor, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action hereby authorized may be taken, shall be no more additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum. Payment of Trustee or holder of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right according to them on account of any of the provisions of this paragraph.

2. The Trustee or the holder of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate prepared from the appropriate public office, without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, claim, deficiency, tax bill or title or claim thereof.

3. At the option of the holder of the note and without notice to First Party, its successors or assigns, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this trust deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this trust deed to the contrary, become due and payable tax immediately in the case of default in making payment of any instalment of principal or interest on the note, or (b) in the event of the failure of First Party or its successors or assigns to do any of the things specifically set forth in paragraph one herein and such default shall continue for three days, said option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period.

4. When the indebtedness hereby created shall become due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, whether of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lessor. In any suit to foreclose the lessor, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness to the decree for costs all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by us, on behalf of Trustee or holder of the note for attorney's fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert witnesses, attorney's charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of preparing all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, insurance policies, Survey certificates, and similar data and documents with respect to title as Trustee or holder of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or as evidence to title or at any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become as much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holder of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, in which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, defendant, or defendant by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured or the preparation for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure herein after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (b) preparation for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security herein, whether or not actually commenced.

5. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: first, in payment of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph herein, second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note with interest thereon accrued thereby third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note, fourth, any liability to First Party, its legal representatives or assigns, or their heirs may appear.

6. On or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver instead trustee. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency at the time of application for such trustee, of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a home or not and the trustee hereinabove may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further time when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (1) The indebtedness created hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lessor hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure date; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

8. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

9. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party.

10. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.
