2. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof. 3. At the option of the holders of the note and without notice to First Party, its successors or assigns, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this trust deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this trust deed to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment of principal or interest on the note, or (b) in the event of the failure of First Party or its successors or assigns to do any of the things recited herein set forth in paragraph one hereof and such default shall continue for three days, said option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period. 4. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorneys' fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the bill or proceeding) for such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, guarantees policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had pursuant to this trust deed. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of First Party or of any other person, and may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be then owned by a mortgagor or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and to apply the same to the payment of such indebtedness, and to receive and retain the same for the purpose of such receiver's redemption or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, may be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, preservation, control, management and operation of the premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit. The receiver shall be authorized to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.
8. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly required by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own fraud, negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may acquire indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.
9. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereon by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid and release may be made at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity hereof, produce and submit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a relative is successor of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of said party; and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of said party.
10. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder or Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be Successor in Trust. Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or Successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.
