the real estate or any part of it to a successor or successors in trust, and to grant to these successor or successors in trust all of the title, estate, powers, and authorities vested in the trustee; (4) to dedicate parks, streets, highways or alleys, and to vacate any subdivision or part of it; (5) to donate, mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber the real estate or any part of it; (6) to lease the real estate or any part of it, in possession or reversion, on any terms and for any period or periods of time up to but not exceeding a single term of 199 years, and to renew or extend leases on any terms and for any period or periods of time, and to amend, change or modify the leases and the terms and provisions of them; (7) to contract to make leases and to grant options to lease and options to renew leases and options to purchase the whole or any part of the reversions, and to contract respecting the manner or fixing the amount of present or future rentals; (8) to execute grants of easements or charges or any kind; (9) to release, convey or assign any right, title, or interest in or about or easement appurtenant to the real estate or any part of it; (10) to deal with title to the real estate and every part of it in any way and for consideration that would be lawful for any person owning the title to the real estate to deal with it, whether similar to or different from the ways specified above.

No party dealing with trustee with regard to real estate owned by the Trust, whether by contract, sale, lease, mortgage or otherwise, shall be required to see to the application of any purchase money, rent, or money borrowed or advanced on the real estate, or be required to see that the terms of the trust have been complied with, or be required to inquire into the necessity or expediency of any act of trustee, or be required to inquire into any of the terms of the trust agreement.

Every deed, trust deed, mortgage, lease, or other instrument executed by trustee or any successor trustee in relation to the real estate shall be conclusive evidence in favor of every person relying on or claiming under any such conveyance, lease or other instrument (1) that at the time of delivery thereof, the trust created herein and by the trust agreement was in full force and effect, (2) that such conveyance or other instrument was executed in accordance with the trusts, conditions, and limitations contained herein and in the trust agreement or in the amendments thereof, and binding on all beneficiaries, (3) that trustee or any successor trustee was duly authorized and empowered to execute and deliver every such deed, trust deed, lease, mortgage or other instrument, and (4) if the conveyance is made to a successor or successors in trust, that such successor or successors in trust have been properly appointed and are fully vested with all the title, estate, rights, powers, authorities, duties, and obligations of the predecessor in trust.

The interest of each beneficiary under the trust agreement and of all persons claiming under them or any of them shall be only in the possession, earnings, avails and proceeds arising from the sale, mortgage or other disposition of the real estate, and such interest is hereby declared to be personal property. No beneficiary of the Trust shall have any title or interest, legal or equitable, except as stated.
