This Indenture Witnesseth,

That the Grantor Florence Edna Devine and Edward J. Devine, her husband. Also Walter F. Hammel and Jacqueline Hammel, his wife of the City of Chicago in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, in hand paid, convey and quit claim to Trustees of the Graceland Cemetery Improvement Fund, a corporation under the laws of Illinois, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot 329 in Section G in Graceland Cemetery situated in the County of Cook, in the State of Illinois, in perpetual trust, however, for and upon the following terms, trusts and conditions, to-wit:

1st. To hold, maintain and keep said lot or parcel of land in trust forever as and for a place of burial as hereinafter named, in accordance with that certain act entitled "An Act in Relation to the Conveyance, Use and Preservation of Burial Lots in Cemeteries," approved April 21, 1899, without any right of the Grantor their heirs or assigns, or of any one claiming in any way under him or them, to sell, assign or convey said lot or any interest therein.

2nd. To allow the bodies of the persons below specified and none others to be buried and remain forever undisturbed in said lot as follows, to-wit:

William E. Hammel, Kathryn Hammel, Florence Edna Devine and Walter F. Hammel

due regard being always had to the capacity of said lot.
