Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. 11. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct of that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description hereof of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof; and where the release is requested of a prior trustee, and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying some as the note described herein; it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

Any Successor in Trust hereunder shall have the identical title, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

15. In order to provide for the payment of taxes, the undersigned promises to pay monthly in addition to the above payments, one-twelfth of the annual real estate taxes as estimated by the holder of said note, in such manner as the holder may prescribe, so as to provide for the current year's tax obligation on the last day of each such year during the term of said obligation. The undersigned promises further to pay monthly a pro rata share of all assessments, future hazard insurance premiums, and any other charges that may accrue against the property securing said indebtedness. If the amount estimated to be sufficient to pay said taxes, insurance, assessments, and other charges is not sufficient, the undersigned promises to pay the difference upon demand. It is agreed that all such payments may, at the option of the holder (1) be held in trust by it without earnings for the payment of such items; (2) be carried in a borrower's tax and insurance account and withdrawn by it to pay such items; or (3) be credited to the unpaid balance of said indebtedness as received, provided that the holder advances upon said obligation sums sufficient to pay said items as the same accrue and become payable. If such sums are held in trust or carried in a borrower's tax and insurance account, the same are hereby pledged together with any other account of the undersigned with the holder to further secure said indebtedness and any officer of the holder is authorized to withdraw the same and apply hereon. The holder of said note is authorized to pay said items as charged or billed without further inquiry.
