The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

Such appointment may be made either before or after judgment, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have authority to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times until Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other moneys which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given, unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereon by proper return upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid, and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and submit to Trustee the note representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which by common usage Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee shall produce and submit to Trustee a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder in which conditions in substance as the descriptive herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate or any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as the genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

14. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation of Trustee or the death of Trustee, the holder of the note shall be entitled to the office of Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.
