- The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, on other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the Note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the Note; fourth, any surplus to Mortgagor, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as their title may appear.
- Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such a bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagor at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall then be occupied as a homestead or not, and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the foreclosure suit and in case of sale and deficiency, during the full ordinary period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagor, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the purchase, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of the period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in whole or in part to: (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by a decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to a foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

- Trustee and the holders of the Note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.
- Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obliged to regard this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in the case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnity satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.
- Trustee shall release this Trust Deed and the lien thereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed has been fully paid, and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity hereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the Note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor Trustee, such successor Trustee may accept as true the Note any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior Trustee or Trustee of which evidence in substance with the description herein contained of the Note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original Trustee and if the note is a replacement of the Note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original Trustee and if the note is a replacement of the Note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers thereof.

The monies thus deposited with the holders of the Note are to be held without interest and are to be applied by the holders of the Note to the payment of such taxes, assessments and insurance premiums as they become due and payable. It shall not be obligatory upon the holders of the Note to inquire into the validity or accuracy of any such items before making payment of same, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring the holders to advance other monies for said purposes, except any time the holders of the Note deem the amount deposited insufficient to pay said taxes, assessments and insurance premiums, the Mortgagors will deposit with the holders of the Note any amount necessary to make up the deficiency, provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph contained shall relieve the Mortgagors from the performance of any of the other covenants and agreements contained relative to the payment of taxes and assessments and insurance premiums. In case of default in the payment of any installment of principal or interest or in the performance of any of the covenants and agreements of the Mortgagors herein contained, the holders of the Note may apply any and all sums then on deposit, on account of the indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed.
- For the purposes of paragraphs 4 and 10 hereof the rate of interest shall be the rate specified in the Note as to unpaid installments of principal thereof after due, reduced to such extent, if any, as shall be necessary to comply with any limitations applicable hereto upon rates of interest which may lawfully be charged, contracted for or received.
- The Mortgagors warrant and agree that the proceeds of the Note will be used solely for the purposes specified in paragraph 4 (c) of Chapter 71 of the 1965 Illinois Revised Statutes, that the principal obligation secured hereby constitutes a business loan which comes within the purview of said paragraph. Any other use of the proceeds of the Note shall be a default in this Trust Deed on the part of the Mortgagors.
- Mortgagors agree that if this Trust Deed or the Note is asserted to be subject to tax under the provisions of the Interest Equalization Tax Act (as set forth in Chapter 11, Subtitle D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), or is deemed as presently or hereafter to be subject to any governmental revenue stamp, Mortgagors will be deemed to have successfully defended against a tax and upon failure of Mortgagors so to do Trustee or the holders of the Note may do so and add the amount so paid to the principal indebtedness secured hereby, which said sum, together with interest thereon at the rate provided for in the Note, shall become immediately due and payable.
