3. Mortgagors shall keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter situated on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning and windstorm under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of moneys sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the indebtedness secured hereby, all in companies satisfactory to the holders of the note, under insurance policies payable in case of loss or damage, to Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the note; such rights to be evidenced by the standard mortgage clause to be attached to each policy, and shall deliver all policies, including additional and renewal policies, to holders of the note; and in case of insurance about to expire, shall deliver renewal policies not less than ten days prior to the respective dates of expiration.

4. In case of default therein, Trustee or the holders of the note may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act hereinbefore required of Mortgagors in any form and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest on prior claims or liens, if any, and purchase, discharge, compromise or settle any tax lien or other prior lien or title or claim thereof, or redeem from any lien or title or for taxing authorities and proceed or contest any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses incurred or paid or incurred in connection therewith, including reasonable attorneys' fees, and any other moneys advanced by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the lien hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action by an authorized may be taken, shall be so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum. 9. Upon or at any time after the filing of a complaint to foreclose this Trust Deed, the Court in which such complaint is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then classified as a homestead or not, and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, profits and proceeds of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period for redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further sales when Mortgagors, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, profits and proceeds, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of such period. The Court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this Trust Deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof, or by such decree, provided such application is made prior to final foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.
