THE COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND PROVISIONS REFERRED TO ON PAGE 1 (THE REVERSE SIDE OF THIS TRUST DEED).

1. Mortgagors shall (1) promptly repair, restore or rebuild any buildings or improvements now or hereafter on the premises which may become damaged or be destroyed; (2) keep and preserve in good condition and repair without cost and free from mechanic's or other liens or claims for hire not expressly subordinated to the hereof; (3) pay when due any indebtedness which may be accrued in respect of taxes superior to the hereof, and upon request exhibit satisfactory evidence of the discharge of such prior lien to Trustee or to holders of the note; (4) cause to be paid at reasonable time any building or ground rent now or at any time in process of material alterations in said premises except as required by law or municipal ordinances with respect to the premises and the use thereof; (5) make no material alterations in said premises except as required by law or municipal ordinance.

2. Mortgagors shall pay before any penalty attaches all general taxes, and shall, upon written request, furnish to Trustee or to holders of the note duplicate receipts therefor. To prevent default hereunder Mortgagors shall pay in full under protest, in the manner provided by statute, any tax or assessment which Mortgagors may desire to contest.

3. Mortgagors shall keep all buildings and improvements now or hereafter situated on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning and windstorm under policies providing for payment by the insurance companies of moneys sufficient either to pay the cost of replacing or repairing the same or to pay in full the indebtedness secured hereby, all in companies satisfactory to the holders of the note, under insurance policies payable, in case of loss or damage, to Trustee for the benefit of the holders of the note, such rights to be evidenced by the standard mortgage clause to be attached to each policy, and shall deliver all policies, including additional and renewal policies, to holders of the note, and in case of insurance about to expire, shall deliver renewal policies not less than ten days prior to the respective dates of expiration.

4. In case of default therein, Trustee or the holders of the note may, but need not, make any payment or perform any act heretofore required of mortgagors in any furtive and manner deemed expedient, and may, but need not, make full or partial payments of principal or interest on prior encumbrances, or any other amounts due thereon, or any other prior liens or encumbrances, or any other expenses, or any attorney's fees, or any other amount, or any other charges, alimony and premiums of costs, any tax or assessment. All moneys paid for any of the purposes herein authorized and all expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees, and any other money paid by Trustee or the holders of the note to protect the mortgaged premises and the debt hereof, plus reasonable compensation to Trustee for each matter concerning which action herein authorized may be taken, shall be so much added to the indebtedness secured hereby and shall become immediately due and payable without notice and with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, inaction of Trustee or holders of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right according to them on account of any default hereunder, or as a part of Mortgagors.

5. The "Holder" of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate furnished from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

the value of the property as aforesaid, hereinafter called "Mortgage". The unpaid indebtedness herein mentioned, both principal and interest, when due according to the terms hereof, at the option of the holders of the principal note, and without notice to Mortgagor, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this Trust Deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the principal or interest note or in this Trust Deed to the contrary, become due and payable when default shall occur and continue for three days in the payment of any interest note or in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagor herein contained.

7. When the debt under this note shall become due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to payment of any interest accrued in the performance of any other agreement of the Mortgagors herein contained.

foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographer's charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be expended after entry of the decree) of procuring any such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, title insurance policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale which may be had, the sum to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate and bankruptcies proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (b) preparation for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after accrual of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

8. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the peerless shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, an account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceeding; second, all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the principal note and interest coupons, with interest thereon, third, the principal amount of the principal amount outstanding upon the principal note, interest coupons, fourth, any overplus to Mortgagee, its heirs, legatees, and personal representatives, and fifth, the peerless man's tenement.

9. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagor at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the then value of the premises, or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homeestead or not and the application for such receiver and without regard to the value of the premises or whether such receiver is appointed as a liquidator and the dependency of such receiver on the trustee. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of the premises during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be a redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the non-remediation of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the period of application for the appointment of such receiver, and for the application of the rents, issues and profits of the premises in part or in full to (1) the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this application; (2) any special assessment or other claim which may be become superior to the lien hereof or to such decree; provided such application is made prior to the foreclosure; (3) the deficiency in case of a sale, and by reason of the same.

superior to the ten percent of such note; provided such application is made prior to the foreclosure sale; (d) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency; (e) 10. No action for the enforcement of the lien or of any provision hereof shall be subject to any defense, which would not be good and available in the party interposing same in an action at law upon the note hereby secured.

Purpose The trustee of the Note shall have the right to inspect the premises, at reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted on the part of the trustee for the purpose of examining the condition of the property, or to measure over the validity of the signatures on the Note.

12. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence or condition of the property or to inquire into the validity of the signatures or the authority of any person purporting to act on behalf of the trust. Trustee shall not be liable for any loss resulting from exercising power herein given, unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, not be liable for any acts or omissions of her/his beneficiaries, except in case of its own gross negligence or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to Trustee before exercising any power herein given.

13. Trustee shall release the trust deed and the like thereto by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured

15. Trustee shall release the trust deeds and the non-interest by trustee, his successors or assigns, to the original owner or to his heirs or devisees, or to the request of any person who shall either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the principal note (with or without the couple indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept as true without
