- The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate received from the appropriate public officer without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale of land, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for debt all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorney's fees, Trustee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documents and court expenses, photographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to some to be expended after entry of the decree) of preparing all such abstracts of title, title searches and examinations, separate policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and insurance with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to holders of the note any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree or true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall be deemed to be included in the indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with (a) any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or (b) the proceedings for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof or for secured of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (c) proceedings for the defense of any foreclosure suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

- Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises, such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency of Mortgagors at the time of application for such receiver and without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be then encumbered as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when Mortgagors, except for the intention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other moneys which may be necessary or are usual in such cases for the preservation, protection, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in whole or in part (a) to the indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale; (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency; (c) to the interest on the note; or (d) to the principal of the note.

- Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the then Recorder of Deeds of the county in which the premises are situated shall be Successor in Trust.
