This deed is made, executed and delivered subject to the following: All recorded restrictions, easements, conditions, covenants and building lines; All zoning and building laws, ordinances and regulations; Acts done or suffered by, and judgments against, or in favor of, the Grantor or its predecessors in interest.

A. That until January 1, 2000, each and every lot in Arthur T. McIntosh & Company's Braemar of Inverness, as shown on the plat recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, on the 11th day of September, 1975, as Document No. 23219238 shall be subject to the following restrictions, which shall each be construed as a covenant running with the land; and for and during an additional period of twenty-five (25) years from and after such first mentioned date each such lot shall continue to be subject to such restrictions until and unless the owner, or owners of two-thirds (2/3) in number of the lot in Arthur T. McIntosh & Company's Braemar of Inverness, shall file in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, a written statement signed and acknowledged by such owner or owners stating that such restrictions, or certain thereof, shall become ineffective prior to the end of such additional period, in which event such restrictions, or those specified in such written statement, shall become ineffective on the date stated in such written statement.

- 1. No building shall be erected or maintained on any lot for manufacturing, industrial or business purposes; and no noxious or offensive trade shall be carried on upon any lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or become an annoyance or nuisance in the neighborhood.
2. No building shall be erected or maintained on any lot unless it be a dwelling house designed and equipped for occupancy as a private residence by a single family only, provided that at the time of or after (but not before) the erection of any such dwelling house, accessory buildings (including servants' quarters, private garages and other outbuildings) may be erected and maintained as appurtenances of such dwelling house. No more than one such dwelling house and the accessory buildings appurtenant thereto shall be maintained on any one lot at the same time.
3. Before any building shall be occupied or used, a septic tank or other facilities for the disposal of sewage shall be erected or installed, and the arrangements for sewage disposal shall be such as to prevent all nuisance and all possibility of contamination, and such as to be satisfactory to the State health authorities.
4. No advertising sign, or billboard, including "For Sale" or "For Rent" advertising signs, and no visible oil or gas tank for fuel or other purpose, shall be erected or maintained on any lot; except, however, a sign, not exceeding 12 square feet in area, may be erected during the construction of the house, displaying the name of the general contractor and/or architect. This sign shall be removed immediately after completion of the house.
5. No stables, or other quarters shall be erected, maintained or used on any lot for stabling or accommodating any horses, cattle, swine, goats, sheep, bees or fowl.
6. Notwithstanding that it may comply with the foregoing restrictions, no such dwelling house or accessory building, or septic tank or other facilities for the disposal of sewage, or fence, shall be erected, and no alteration costing more than One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) shall be made to any such dwelling house or accessory building or septic tank or other facilities for the disposal of sewage, or fence, until and unless the plans and specifications for the same have been drawn by a licensed architect, showing the nature, shape, size, architectural design, materials, location, proposed landscaping thereof, and approximate cost, and (1) shall have been first submitted to and approved in writing by Arthur T. McIntosh & Company, 105 West Madison Street, Chicago, Ill. or its successors or assigns, or if not approved in writing by Arthur T. McIntosh & Company, or its successors or assigns, within thirty (30) days after the submission to it of such plans and specifications (2) shall have been submitted to a committee of three architects, the first of whom shall have been appointed by the owner of the lot, and one of whom shall have been appointed by Arthur T. McIntosh & Company, or its successors or assigns, and the third of whom shall have been appointed by the two architects first so appointed, and shall have been approved in writing by two of such committee of architects.
B. Owners from time to time of Lots 22 and 23 are to use Clover Drive for means of ingress and egress and are denied access to Roselle Road; Lots 27 and 28 are to use Dumfries Court for means of ingress and egress and are denied access to Roselle Road; Lots 30 and 31 are to use Balmoral Drive or Balmoral Lane as a means of ingress and egress and are denied access to Roselle Road; and Lots 32, 33, 34 and 35 are to use Balmoral Lane as a means of ingress and egress and are denied access to Roselle Road.
C. Restrictions, easements and conditions are shown on the plat of Arthur T. McIntosh & Company's Braemar of Inverness, recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois on September 11, 1975 as Document No. 23219238.

Special taxes or assessments levied or assessed on or after Jan. 1, 1980 and all consequences of and acts and deeds resulting from any failure to pay same when due.

General Taxes for the year 1980 and thereafter, and all consequences of and acts and deeds resulting from any failure to pay same when due.

In Witness Whereof, said Grantor has caused its corporate seal to be hereto affixed and has caused its name to be signed to these presents by its Vice President, and attested by its Ass't. Secretary, this 1st day of April A.D. 1981.
