of the things specifically set forth in paragraph one hereof and such default shall continue for three days, said option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period.

4. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale to all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by or on behalf of Trustee or holders of the note for attorneys' fees, Trustee's fees, appraisal's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, stenographers' charges, publication costs and costs (which may be estimated as to items to be all expended after entry of the decree) of procuring all such abstracts of title, title searchers and examinations, title policies, Torrens certificates, and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note may deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evince to bidders at any sale which may be held pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. 6. Upon, or at any time, or the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvency or insolvency and without regard to the then value of the premises or whether the same shall be then occupied as a homestead or not and the Trustee hereunder may be appointed as such receiver. Such receiver shall have power to collect the rents, issues and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and, in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the full statutory period of redemption, whether there be redemption or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents, issues and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are usual in such cases. The receiver, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period, the court from time to time may authoritatively apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of: (a) The indebtedness secured hereby, or by any decree foreclosing this trust deed, or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application is made prior to foreclosure sale, (b) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose.

8. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, existence or condition of the premises, or to inquire into the validity of the signature or the identity, capacity, or authority of the signator on the note or trust deed, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to exercise any power herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except in case of its own gross negligence herein given unless expressly obligated by the terms hereof, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given or misconduct or that of the agents or employees of Trustee, and it may require indemnities satisfactory to it before exercising any power herein given.

9. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien hereof by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid; and Trustee may execute and deliver a release hereof to and at the request of any person who shall, either before or after maturity thereof, produce and exhibit to Trustee the note, representing that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, which representation Trustee may accept without inquiry. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such a successor trustee may accept as the note herein described any note which bears an identification number purporting to be placed thereon by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which has never been placed thereon by the persons herein designated as the makers thereof, and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never placed its identification number on the note described herein, it may accept as the note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed by the persons herein designated as makers.

10. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which this instrument shall have been recorded or filed. In the case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act of Trustee, the duties, powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all services rendered hereunder.

11. The Holder of the Note may collect a "late charge" not to exceed one cent (5¢) for each payment more than ten days in arrears, to cover the extra expense involved in handling delinquent payments.

12. First Party agrees that, in order to more fully to protect the security of this trust deed, first party will deposit with the holder of the note, on the first day of each month, beginning with first installment, one twelfth of the amount (as stated by the holder of the note) which will be sufficient to pay taxes, special assessments and other charges on the real estate that will become due and payable during the ensuing year plus the amount necessary to pay the required insurance for one year. The holder of the note shall hold such monthly deposits in trust, without any allowance of interest, and shall use the same for the payment of such items when the same are due and payable. If at any time the fund so held by the holder of the note is insufficient to pay such taxes, special assessments and other charges on the real estate that will become due and payable, the holder of the note may at his option apply any money in the fund on any of the mortgage obligations and in such order and manner as he may elect.

13. If it is expressly agreed and understood that in the event of transfer of title to real estate secured herein or in the event present beneficiaries under the trust agreement assign their beneficial interest in the trust to another person without first obtaining the written consent of the holder of the Note secured hereby, the entire balance due on the Note shall then become due and payable in full.

14. First Party hereby waives any and all rights of redemption from sale under any order or decree of foreclosure of this trust deed, on its own behalf and on behalf of each and every person, except decree or judgment creditors of the First Party, securing any interest in or title to the premises subsequent to the date of this trust deed.

15. Note heretofore referred to contains the following clause: Said Note also contains a provision whereby the holder thereof to deposit and pay to the Palos Bank and Trust Company, not personally but as Trustee as aforesaid in the exercise of the power and authority conferred upon and vested in it as such Trustee (and said Palos Bank and Trust Company, hereby warrant that it possesses full power and authority to execute this instrument), and it is expressly understood and agreed that nothing herein or in said note contained shall be construed as creating any liability on the said First Party or on said Palos Bank and Trust Company personally to pay the said note or any interest that may accrue thereon, or any indebtedness accruing hereunder, or to perform any covenant either express or implied herein contained, as such liability, if any, being expressly waived by Trustee and by every person now or hereafter claiming any right or security hereunder, and that so long as the First Party and its successors and said Palos Bank and Trust Company personally are concerned, the legal holder or holders of said note and the other owners of any indebtedness accrued on said note shall be solely to the premises hereby conveyed for the payment thereof, by the enforcement of the lien created, in the manner herein provided, and the holder of the note shall be solely to enforce the personal liability of the grantor or co-makers, if any.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Palos Bank and Trust Company, not personally but as Trustee as aforesaid, has caused these presents to be signed by its Assistant Trust Officer, whose name and address are hereunto affixed and attested by its Assistant Trust Officer the day and year first above written.
