Action of Trustee or holders of the note shall never be considered as a waiver of any right according to them on account of any of the provisions of this paragraph.

2. The Trustee or the holders of the note hereby secured making any payment hereby authorized relating to taxes or assessments, may do so according to any bill, statement or estimate procured from the appropriate public office without inquiry into the accuracy of such bill, statement or estimate or into the validity of any tax, assessment, sale, forfeiture, tax lien or title or claim thereof.

3. At the option of the holders of the note and without notice to First Party, its successors or assigns, all unpaid indebtedness secured by this trust deed shall, notwithstanding anything in the note or in this trust deed to the contrary, become due and payable (a) immediately in the case of default in making payment of any installment of principal or interest on the note, or (b) in the event of the failure of First Party or its successors or assigns to do any of the things specifically set forth in paragraph one hereof and such default shall continue for three days, and option to be exercised at any time after the expiration of said three day period.

4. When the indebtedness hereby secured shall become due whether by acceleration or otherwise, holders of the note or Trustee shall have the right to foreclose the lien hereof. In any suit to foreclose the lien hereof, there shall be allowed and included as additional indebtedness in the decree for sale all expenditures and expenses which may be paid or incurred by one or both of the trustee or holders of the note for attorneys' fees, trustee fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for documentary and expert evidence, demagogic expenses, witness' allowances, expenses of service, expenses of removal of fixtures, expenses of removal of personal property, all expenses of title, title searching and examining, insurance policies, Turners certificates, and similar data and documents with respect to title as Trustee or holders of the note deem to be reasonably necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to holders of any sale which may be had pursuant to such decree the true condition of the title to or the value of the premises. All expenditures and expenses of the nature in this paragraph mentioned shall become so much additional indebtedness secured hereby and immediately due and payable, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum, when paid or incurred by Trustee or holders of the note in connection with the same, including probate and bankruptcy proceedings, to which either of them shall be a party, either as plaintiff, claimant or defendant, by reason of this trust deed or any indebtedness hereby secured; or the preparations for the continuation of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after final trial of such right to foreclose whether or not actually commenced; or (e) preparations for the defense of any threatened suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced.

5. The proceeds of any foreclosure sale of the premises shall be distributed and applied in the following order of priority: First, on account of all costs and expenses incident to the foreclosure proceedings, including all such items as are mentioned in the preceding paragraph hereof; second, all other items which under the terms hereof constitute secured indebtedness additional to that evidenced by the note, with interest thereon as herein provided; third, all principal and interest remaining unpaid on the note; fourth, any overplus to First Party, its legal representatives or assigns, or their rights may appear.

6. Upon, or at any time after the filing of a bill to foreclose this trust deed, the court in which such bill is filed may appoint a receiver of said premises. Such appointment may be made either before or after sale, without notice, without regard to the solvent or insolvency of the person or persons, if any, liable for the payment of the indebtedness secured hereby, and without regard to the value of the premises or whether the same shall be the subject of a mortgage or otherwise held by First Party or its successors or assigns. Such receiver shall have the power to collect all rents and profits of said premises during the pendency of such foreclosure suit and in case of a sale and a deficiency, during the final statutory period of redemption, whether the same be redeemed or not, as well as during any further times when First Party, its successors or assigns, except for the intervention of such receiver, would be entitled to collect such rents and profits, and all other powers which may be necessary or are used in such cases for the protection, possession, control, management and operation of the premises during the whole of said period. The court from time to time may authorize the receiver to apply the net income in his hands in payment in whole or in part of (1) The indebtedness secured hereby, in by any decree foreclosing this trust deed or any tax, special assessment or other lien which may be or become superior to the lien hereof or of such decree, provided such application made prior to foreclosure sale; (2) the deficiency in case of a sale and deficiency.

7. Trustee or the holders of the note shall have the right to inspect the premises at all reasonable times and access thereto shall be permitted for that purpose. Trustee has no duty to examine the title, location, evidence, or condition of the premises, nor shall Trustee be obligated to record this trust deed or to enforce any power herein given, unless such act is obligated by the terms hereof, nor be liable for any acts or omissions hereunder, except if it be of its own gross negligence or misconduct or willful violation of the terms of this instrument.

8. Trustee shall release this trust deed and the lien thereby created by proper instrument upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that all indebtedness secured by this trust deed has been fully paid. In case of the death of the original trustee, the new trustee shall be entitled to make such release, provided that the new trustee practices and exhibits to Bank of Ravenswood the note or certificate that all indebtedness hereby secured has been paid, with representation that same may be good and valid in law. Where a release is requested of a successor trustee, such successor trustee may accept as genuine note herein described any note which bears a certificate of identification purporting to be executed by a prior trustee hereunder or which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party, and where the release is requested of the original trustee and it has never executed a certificate on any instrument identifying same as the note described herein, it may accept as genuine note herein described any note which may be presented and which conforms in substance with the description herein contained of the note and which purports to be executed on behalf of First Party.

9. Trustee may resign by instrument in writing filed in the office of the Recorder or Registrar of Titles in which the instrument shall have been recorded for filing. In case of the resignation, inability or refusal to act, the Vice President and Land Trust Officer of said Bank of Ravenswood shall have the identical powers and authority as are herein given Trustee, and any Trustee or successor shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all acts performed hereunder.

11. The undersigned will not transfer any interest in the aforesaid premises nor shall the beneficiary transfer any interest in the beneficial interest in the trust holding title to the premises. Upon any such transfer the outstanding principal balance at the time of transfer shall become immediately due and payable.

12. The terms and conditions of the Note secured by this trust deed are hereby incorporated by reference and hereby made a part hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Bank of Ravenswood, not personally but as Trustee as aforesaid, has caused the presents to be signed by its Vice President and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and attested by its Land Trust Officer this day and year first above written.
