and in case of said premises shall be nullified by the appointment or entry in possession of a receiver but he may elect to terminate any lease junior to the lien hereof; and upon foreclosure of said premises, there shall be allowed and made good to the mortgagee the amount of the proceeds of the sale of the premises together with interest thereon at the rate of 10% per annum, which shall be paid to the mortgagee by the receiver or the trustee for the mortgagee for the purpose of paying the mortgagee's fees, appraiser's fees, outlays for exhibit attached to proceedings, documentary and expert witness fees, court costs, expenses of the receiver or trustee, and other expenses which may be incurred and to include items to be expended after the entry of the decree of procuring such abstracts, title searches, examinations and reports, guaranty policies, Torrens certificates and similar data and assurances with respect to title as Mortgagee may reasonably deem necessary either to prosecute such suit or to evidence to bidders at any sale held pursuant to such decree the true title to or value of said premises; all of which aforesaid amounts together with interest as herein provided shall be immediately due and payable by the Mortgagee in connection with (a) any proceeding, including probate or bankruptcy proceedings to which either party hereto shall be a party by reason of this Mortgage or the Note hereby secured; or (b) preparations for the commencement of any suit for the foreclosure hereof after the accrual of the right to foreclose, whether or not actually commenced; or (c) preparations for the defense of or intervention in any threatened or contemplated suit or proceeding which might affect the premises or the security hereof, whether or not actually commenced. In the event of a foreclosure sale of said premises there first shall be paid out of the proceeds thereof all of the aforesaid items, then the entire indebtedness whether due and payable by the terms hereof or not and the interest due thereon up to the time of such sale, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagee, and the purchaser shall not be obligated to see to the application of the purchase money.

H. In case the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, shall be taken by condemnation, the Mortgagee is hereby empowered to collect and receive all compensation which may be paid for any property taken or for damages to any property not taken and all condemnation compensation so received shall be forthwith applied by the Mortgagee as it may elect, to the immediate reduction of the indebtedness secured hereby, or to the repair and restoration of any property so damaged, provided that any excess over the amount of the indebtedness shall be delivered to the Mortgagee or his assignee.

I. All easements, rents, issues and profits of said premises are pledged, assigned and transferred to the Mortgagee, whether now due or hereafter to become due, under or by virtue of any lease or agreement for the use or occupancy of said property, or any part thereof, whether said lease or agreement is written or verbal, and it is the intention hereof (a) to pledge said rents, issues and profits on a parity with said real estate and not secondarily and such pledge shall not be deemed merged in any foreclosure decree, and (b) to establish an absolute transfer and assignment to the Mortgagee of all such leases and agreements and all the avails thereunder, together with the right in case of default, either before or after foreclosure sale, to enter upon and take possession of, manage, maintain and operate said premises, or any part thereof, make leases for terms deemed advantageous to it, terminate or modify existing or future leases, collect said avails, rents, issues and profits, regardless of when earned, and use such measures whether legal or equitable as it may deem proper to enforce collection thereof, employ renting agents or other employees, alter or repair said premises, buy furnishings and equipment therefor when it deems necessary, purchase adequate fire and extended coverage and other forms of insurance as may be deemed advisable and in general exercise all powers ordinarily incident to absolute ownership, advance or borrow money necessary for any purpose herein stated to secure which a lien is hereby created on the mortgaged premises and on the income therefrom which lien is prior to the lien of any other indebtedness hereby secured, and out of the income retain reasonable compensation for itself, pay insurance premiums, taxes and assessments, and all expenses of every kind including attorney's fees, incurred in the exercise of the powers herein given, and from time to time apply any balance of income not, in its sole discretion, needed for the aforesaid purposes, first on the interest and then on the principal of the indebtedness hereby secured, before or after any decree of foreclosure, and on the deficiency in the proceeds of sale, if any, whether there be a decree in person therefor or not. Whenever all of the indebtedness secured hereby is paid, and the Mortgagee, in its sole discretion, feels that there is not substantial uncorrected default in performance of the Mortgagee's agreements herein, the Mortgagee, on satisfactory evidence thereof, shall relinquish possession and pay to Mortgagee any surplus income in its hands. The possession of Mortgagee may continue until all indebtedness secured hereby is paid in full or until the delivery of a deed pursuant to a decree foreclosing the lien hereof, but if no deed be issued, then until the expiration of the statutory period during which it may be issued. Mortgagee shall, however, have the discretionary power at any time to refuse to take or to abandon possession of said premises without affecting the lien hereof. Mortgagee shall have all powers, if any, which it might have had without this paragraph. No suit shall be sustainable against Mortgagee based upon acts or omission relating to the subject matter of this paragraph unless commenced within sixty days after Mortgagee's possession ceases.

J. That each right, power and remedy herein conferred upon the Mortgagee is cumulative of each other right or remedy of the Mortgagee, whether herein or by law conferred, and may be enforced concurrently therewith, but no waiver by the Mortgagee of performance of any covenant herein or in said obligation contained shall thereafter in any manner affect the right of Mortgagee to require or enforce performance of the same or any other of said covenants; that wherever the context hereof requires, the masculine gender, as used herein, shall include the feminine and the neuter and the singular number, as used herein, shall include the plural; that all rights and obligations under this Mortgage shall extend to and be binding upon the respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the Mortgagee, and the successors and assigns of the Mortgagee; and that the powers herein mentioned may be exercised as often as occasion therefor arises.
