Name of Taxpayer

BARBARA A. TAYLOR

As provided by sections 6321, 6322, and 6323 of the Internal Revenue Code, notice is given that taxes (including interest and penalties) have been assessed against the following named taxpayer. Demand for payment of this liability has been made, but it remains unpaid. Therefore, there is a lien in favor of the United States on all property and rights to property belonging to this taxpayer for the amount of these taxes, and additional penalties, interest, and costs that may accrue.

(1) Place for Filing Notice: Form. - The notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of District Court in the county in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(2) Protection for Certain Interests Even Though Notice Filed. - Even though notice of a lien imposed by section 6321 has been filed, such lien shall not be valid.

(3) Purchasers, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanics' Lienors, and Judgment Lien Holders. - The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (4) has been filed by the Secretary.

Sec. 6322. Period of Lien. Unless limited otherwise by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall exist at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed for a judgment against the taxpayer filing out of such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6321. Lien for Taxes. If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount including penalties thereon and any interest which may have accrued thereon shall be in addition to any other liability in respect of which he is liable to pay the same and shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real, personal, or growing out of such property.

Sec. 6320. Excerpts from Internal Revenue Code. (1) Required Filing Period. - In the case of a lien imposed by section 6321, the lien shall be deemed to be satisfied - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(2) Lien on Property Subject to Lien. - For purposes of subsection (1) and (2), property shall be deemed to be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(3) Lien on Property Subject to Lien. - For purposes of subsection (1) and (2), property shall be deemed to be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(1) General Rule. - Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner provided in subsection (2) during the required filing period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (1). After the expiration of such filing period, (2) Place for Filing. - A notice of lien referred to in subsection (1) shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of District Court in the county in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(3) Purchasers, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanics' Lienors, and Judgment Lien Holders. - The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (4) has been filed by the Secretary.

Sec. 6322. Period of Lien. Unless limited otherwise by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall exist at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed for a judgment against the taxpayer filing out of such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

Sec. 6321. Lien for Taxes. If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount including penalties thereon and any interest which may have accrued thereon shall be in addition to any other liability in respect of which he is liable to pay the same and shall be a lien in favor of the United States upon all property and rights to property, whether real, personal, or growing out of such property.

Sec. 6320. Excerpts from Internal Revenue Code. (1) Required Filing Period. - In the case of a lien imposed by section 6321, the lien shall be deemed to be satisfied - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(2) Lien on Property Subject to Lien. - For purposes of subsection (1) and (2), property shall be deemed to be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(3) Lien on Property Subject to Lien. - For purposes of subsection (1) and (2), property shall be deemed to be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

(4) Lien on Property Subject to Lien. - For purposes of subsection (1) and (2), property shall be deemed to be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of - (A) if the property is sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of before the expiration of the period for which the lien is imposed; or (B) if the one-year period ending with the expiration of the lien is extended under section 6321.

Return information for tax administration purposes. - (1) Disclosure of Returns and Return Information. - (a) General Rule. - Unless notice of lien is filed in the manner provided in subsection (2) during the required filing period, such notice of lien shall be treated as filed on the date on which it is filed in accordance with subsection (1). After the expiration of such filing period, (2) Place for Filing. - A notice of lien referred to in subsection (1) shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of District Court in the county in which the property subject to the lien is situated.

(3) Purchasers, Holders of Security Interests, Mechanics' Lienors, and Judgment Lien Holders. - The lien imposed by section 6321 shall not be valid as against any purchaser, holder of a security interest, mechanic's lien, or judgment lien creditor until notice thereof which meets the requirements of subsection (4) has been filed by the Secretary.

Sec. 6322. Period of Lien. Unless limited otherwise by law, the lien imposed by section 6321 shall exist at the time the assessment is made and shall continue until the liability for the amount so assessed for a judgment against the taxpayer filing out of such liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.
